MINUTES OF MEETINGS

OF THE

Board of Commissioners

January, 1930

Newark, N. J., January 8, 1930.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of the meeting of December 31, 1929, were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance entitled, "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark," and stated today was the time fixed for hearing on same.

The following petition was received and read:

To the Honorable Mayor and City Commission of the City of Newark, N. J., the Zoning Board of the City of Newark, N. J.

The petition of John O. Baker, residing at No. 117 Second Avenue, Newark, New Jersey, respectfully shows:

1. That he is the owner of and resides upon a lot of land on the northwest corner of Second Avenue and Clifton Avenue, Newark, N. J., being 75 feet front on Second Avenue and 125 deep on Clifton Avenue.

2. That the other three corners are all zoned for apartment houses. That is to say, the northeast corner, the southeast corner and the southwest corner of Second and Clifton Avenues, are all zoned for apartment houses.

3. Petitioner says that the Zoning Board has several times placed this corner in the apartment house zone, but for some reason it was changed back to private one family dwelling zone, and after some action on the part of the City Commission, Tuesday, January 7, 1930, it was again placed in the one family dwelling zone.

4. That there are no private restrictions on Second Avenue, and petitioner's property is not restricted by any private restrictions in any way.

5. That to place this corner in the private one family dwelling zone makes it absolutely impossible for petitioner to find any purchaser for his property. He has owned and lived in his house for the last 42 years. It is an old-fashioned house. Second Avenue is practically given over to apartments which have been all built for some years. To place petitioner's house in the one family dwelling zone makes it impossible to sell any of the lot, and makes it impossible to sell his house, as nobody will buy the property for any figure unless it is in the apartment house zone. Second Avenue for its entire length is either built up with apartment houses, which predominate, or with old dwellings which have been there for years.

Petitioner respectfully submits that his property standing as a unit, because it is the only corner of Clifton and Second Avenues now left out of the apartment house zone, should be changed back to apartment house zone, and prays that action be taken which will effect that result.

Dated Jan. 8, 1930.

JOHN O. BAKER, Owner,

Per Clifford H. Baker.

Ordered Filed.

Mr. Clifford H. Baker, 312 Mt. Prospect Avenue: I represent my father, John O. Baker, 117 Second Avenue, who has a piece of property at the north west corner of Second Avenue and Clifton Avenue. He has owned that property for over forty years. He is really what you might call a pioneer property owner of Forest Hill. He purchased that property before Clifton Avenue was cut through. When he purchased it it was 175 feet on Second Avenue and 145 feet deep. The city condemned and took 100 feet of his property away from him and paid him, but he had to pay everything back in assessments for streets and paving and so forth, so he didn't make a nickel. The City told my father that his property would be worth very much more on account of the fact that it would be on a corner, which was fair enough. It was all right. As a matter of fact, at the present time the property is not worth nearly as much as it was thirty years ago, and I think I can tell you why. When the first zoning map was shown his property on Second Avenue was included in the map in the zone.

Mayor Congleton: In the zone for what

Mr. Baker: In the zone for apartment houses. I came here to the meeting of protest in July, I think it was, and there was no protest against his house or that property at that time. Everybody, when the second meeting took place in December, I think it was,—late December—I see according to the second map which was published that the property has been taken out of the apartment house and was in the zone for private houses. At that time I made a protest in writing at the meeting. There were two meetings. Now, if his property is not placed in the apartment house zone it means that he will eventually be surrounded on three corners by apartments. It means that his piece of property will be the only piece which can be used for private houses and that he will be placed in a dead hole or in a net, so he will be one of four corners. Therefore his property, the northwest corner of Second and Clifton Avenue, will not be worth a fraction of what it is even worth today. When these apartment houses are built his property will be only one of four pieces which will be occupied by anything but apartments. Therefore I request that you put this particular piece—75 on Second Avenue and 145 on Clifton Avenue running north—in the apartment house zone, for the reason that there are apartment houses on the other three corners, or there will be apartment houses on the other three corners, and in addition to that, there were no protests against that section at the original meeting.

Commissioner Murray: Do you intend to build an apartment on that corner?

Mr. Baker: If we can do so, yes sir. I mean that we intend to sell it for apartment house purposes. We had an offer on it some time ago for apartment house purposes.

Commissioner Murray: It seems to me that it would be better for you to wait until you get a concrete case before we change that block, because of that property on Ridge Street, particularly when you go to Ridge Street, are some very representative one-family houses.

Mr. Baker: That is true, sir, but I don't mean Ridge Street; I mean 75 feet north from Clifton on Second, only 75 feet.

Commissioner Murray: Running on Second Avenue north from the rear.

Mr. Baker: Running on Second Avenue north from Clifton, yes, sir, this side of Ridge.

Commissioner Murray: That would be west?

Mr. Baker: 75 feet west of Clifton on Second.

Commissioner Murray: Running how deep?

Mr. Baker: 145 feet deep practically to Treadwell Street.

Commissioner Murray: What is behind you and Treadwell Street now?

Mr. Baker: A private house and two apartment houses across the street.

Commissioner Murray: In your rear there is a one-family house?

Mr. Baker: There is a one-family house. You see, I think this is a unique situation in Newark. It will be so situated eventually that there will be three apartment houses on the four corners, leaving only for residence.

Commissioner Murray: I know the circumstances, because I live between Abington and Second on Ridge.

Mr. Baker: Is that so? Now, you see, for instance, we will be a block and a half from you on Ridge Street. In other words, this would not interfere with Ridge Street. It would simply be 75 feet on West Second from Clifton.

Commissioner Murray: Making that corner an apartment house zone?

Mr. Baker: Making it actually a small apartment house zone—in other words, not leaving it out. There was no protest at the original meeting. I don't know that there was any protest at all.

Commissioner Murray: There would be from Ridge Street, wouldn't there?

Mr. Baker: There might be from Ridge Street. Certain properties north of us on Second Avenue are restricted by deed, ours is not. I think ours is the only piece of property in that section of the town which is not restricted by deed.

Commissioner Murray: Isn't it the property west of you between your premises and Ridge Street, the big corner, which is restricted?

Mr. Baker: That big corner is restricted by deed. You know that big property, the big brown house, on the west corner of Ridge Street which stands out. That is restricted by deed. Our property is not restricted.

Mayor Congleton: All right, Mr. Baker. Does anyone else desire to be heard on the Zoning Ordinance?

Mr. Rudolph Kruger, 60 Branford Place: I want to know whether anything has been done on the recommendations that have been submitted to your Commission and whether any action has been taken on changing some of them.

Mayor Congleton: None of them are being changed in this ordinance. Some of them may be changed in an amendment which will be offered, but we are going to pass this ordinance pretty nearly as the ordinance is?

Commissioner Murray: Where is your property?

Mr. Kruger: We have no property. We are the architects, but we wish to offer a protest against the ordinance.

Mayor Congleton: Your protest has been recorded on the minutes and it will have whatever legal effect you desire to give it.

Mr. Theodore G. Hindenlang, 784 Broad Street: I represent the property owners on the eastern side of South 20th Street between 11th and 12th Avenues.

Mayor Congleton: Is that the property referred to in the letter, which you want put in the light industrial zone?

Mr. Hindenlang: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: Have you ever suggested this before?

Mr. Hindenlang: You mean under the present consideration?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, under the consideration that has been given to the new zoning ordinance in the last six or seven months. Have the property owners suggested this before?

Mr. Hindenlang: I believe some of my clients have. I may say in this particular block the old zoning board has heretofore granted permission for light industrial purposes. It is across from the cemeteries, and I believe that it is one of those blocks where the land can be used for the light industrial purposes. I would like this Board to take that under consideration, if it will.

Mayor Congleton: You still have the same rights under this zoning ordinance as you had under the old one. You may take special exceptions to it if you want to. We don't want to put all the property in the light industrial section. We have to have some property for people to live in.

Mr. Louis Auerbacher, 60 Park Place: Mr. Mayor and members of the Commission, I represent the Vermont Construction Company, owners of property on Varsity Road in Vailsburg. I have a map here.

Mayor Congleton: Those are the two corners that were left for stores?

Mr. Auerbacher: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: They are still being left that way. Do you want them changed?

Mr. Auerbacher: I want them to remain.

Mayor Congleton: They have been left that way in the ordinance.

Mr. Auerbacher: I understand that the zoning commissioners did not recommend or advise any other stores in the locality, and I understand that a petition was filed with the zoning board asking for stores on Mt. Vernon Place and that the zoning commissioners did not recommend it. You have seen the proposed changed scheme as outlined by the zoning commissioners.

Mayor Congleton: We are going to leave both sections for business.

Mr. Auerbacher: As I understand it, Mt. Vernon Place is a through thoroughfare, and the zoning commissioners thought that it would be dangerous to have there stores of a neighborhood character, because children are sent to the stores after school, and that the stores should be placed on a street which is not a through thoroughfare.

Mayor Congleton: That is where you usually find stores—on a through thoroughfare. That is what makes it a business section—because it is a through thoroughfare.

Mr. Auerbacher: But not for a neighborhood proposition.

Mayor Congleton: We have gone into it very thoroughly and we feel that that neighborhood is entitled to another location for stores. That is a long stretch, Mr. Auerbacher. We are going to leave this for business.

Mr. Auerbacher: I see. Perhaps I had better be satisfied.

Mr. Edward A. Schilling, 763 Broad Street: As a matter of fact, the folks whom I represent up in the annexed district—if there is going to be any preference, as I feel now, they would rather not have them over on Mt. Vernon Avenue, but we have no objection if you are going to leave them in both cases.

Mayor Congleton: That is the way it is planned now. Does anybody else desire to be heard on the proposed zoning ordinance?

Mr. W. N. Atherton, 365 Roseville Avenue: I wish to voice a few objections against the rezoning of Roseville Avenue for a one-family section. A block from where I live are seven stores.

Mayor Congleton: How do you want it?

Mr. Atherton: I want it for business and apartments.

Mayor Congleton: We have made all of Roseville Avenue from Park Avenue to Bloomfield Avenue an apartment zone. The blocks nearest Bloomfield Avenue—I think there are two or three blocks up from Bloomfield Avenue—can have stores.

Commissioner Murray: That is what you wanted?

Mr. Atherton: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Between Second Avenue and Bloomfield Avenue stores are permitted. The rest of Roseville Avenue from Park Avenue to Bloomfield Avenue is available for apartments.

Mr. Atherton: Thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard? It is the purpose of the Commission to adopt the ordinance that is put before you in its present form for the purpose of saving advertising expenses. The amendments that we have told you we are going to make are embodied in another ordinance that will be introduced immediately after the passage of the main ordinance. As I have said, we are doing that for the purpose of saving the cost of readvertising the main ordinance with the map which runs into something like $12,000. With that explanation we will proceed with the ordinance.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on the ordinance?

(No response.)

No one else appearing, Commissioner Gillen moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the following ordinance be taken for its second reading:

Zoning Ordinance of The City of Newark

The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark do ordain:

Section 1. Definition.

Certain words in this ordinance are defined for the purpose thereof as follows:

(a) Words used in the present tense include the future; the singular number includes the plural and the plural the singular; the word "lot" includes the word "plot;" the word "building" includes the word "structure." The word "zone" includes the word "district;" the word "occupied" includes the words "designed or intended to be occupied;" the word "used" includes the words "arranged, designed or intended to be used."

(b) A "building" shall be regarded for the purpose of this ordinance as each of the independent units into which it is divided by party walls

(c) A "non-conforming building or use" is one that does not conform with the use regulation of the district in which it is situated.

(d) A "street" is any road, avenue, street, lane, alley or other way commonly used by the public for street purposes.

(e) The "width of the street" is the mean of the distances between the street lines thereof within a block. Where a street borders a public park or a navigable body of water the width of such street may be taken as the width of such street plus the width of such public park or body of water, provided that the maximum width of such street shall not be more than 100 feet, measured at right angles to the street line.

(f) The "street line" is the dividing line between the street and the lot.

(g) The "street wall" of a building, at any level, is the wall or part of the building (other than a one-story open porch) nearest to the street line.

(h) The "curb level" is the permanently established grade of the street in front of the lot. Where the lot level is higher than the curb level, the average level of the former along the wall in question may be taken as the base for measuring the height of a yard or court. Where a lot fronts upon two or more streets of different levels, the curb level of the higher street may be taken as the base for measuring the height of open spaces and buildings to a distance of 100 feet back from the street with the higher curb level.

(i) A "block" shall be deemed to include every frontage on either side of a street between two intersecting or intercepting streets.

(j) A "story" is that part of a building other than a cellar or basement between any floor and the floor above, and in its absence the roof above. Any story under the pitched roof at the top of the building, the floor of which is not more than two feet below the plate shall be counted a half story when not more than sixty per cent of said floor area is used for rooms, baths or toilets.

(k) A "lot" is a parcel of land, the location, dimensions and boundaries of which are determined by the latest official record.

(l) A "corner lot" is a parcel of land not over fifty feet in width at the junction of and fronting on two intersecting streets, having an area not greater than five thousand square feet and a frontage on one of the intersecting streets not greater than one hundred feet.

(m) An "interior lot" is a lot other than a corner lot.

(n) The "depth of a lot" is the mean distance between its mean front street line and its mean rear line. The greater frontage of a corner lot is its depth, and its lesser frontage its width.

(o) A "front yard" is an open space between the street wall of the building on the lot and the street line.

(p) A "rear yard" is an open unoccupied space between the rear walls of the building on the lot and the rear line of the lot.

(q) A "side yard" is an open unoccupied space situated between the building on the lot and the side line of the lot, and extending through from the street line or front yard to the rear yard, or where no rear yard is required to the rear line of the lot.

(r) An "inner court" is an open unoccupied space on the same lot with a building not extending to either the street or the rear yard.

(s) An "outer court" is an open unoccupied space having a closed end, on the same lot with a building and extending to either the street or the rear yard.

(t) The "least dimension" of a yard or court is the least of the horizontal dimensions of such yard or court.

(u) The "height of a court or yard" is the vertical distance between the lowest level of such court or yard and the highest point of any bounding wall, exclusive of roof structures.

(v) The "height of a building" is the vertical distance measured in the case of flat roofs from the curb level to the level of the highest point of the roof beams adjacent to the street wall, and in the case of pitched roofs, from the curb level to the average height level of the gable. In the case of both flat roofs and pitched roofs the measurement shall be made through the center of the street facade. Where no roof beams exist or there are structures wholly or partly above the roof the height shall be measured from the curb level to the level of the highest point of the building. Where the walls of a building do not adjoin the street, the average level of the ground adjoining the walls of the building may be taken in measuring its height instead of the curb level.

(w) The "building area" is the maximum horizontal projected area of a building and its accessories.

(x) A "family" as used in this ordinance shall be deemed any number of individuals living and cooking together on the premises as a single housekeeping unit, not embracing clubs, boarding or rooming houses.

(y) An "open porch" is a roofed piazza, porch or porte-cochere not more than one story in height which projects beyond the main wall of a building into a required yard. The columns supporting its roof shall present the minimum of obstruction to the view, and any sash placed between the columns during the winter season shall be glazed with clear glass.

(z) The term "private garage" shall be construed to mean a building designed for the storage of not more than three non-commercial motor vehicles, and in which no business, service or industry connected with motor vehicles is conducted or rendered.

(aa) The term "public garage" shall be construed to mean any building or premises in which a business, service or industry connected with motor vehicles is conducted or rendered, and shall include all premises used for motor vehicles either housed or unhoused, excepting automobile sales rooms conducted exclusively for the exhibition of not more than twenty vehicles.

Section 2. Zone Classification.

For the purposes of limiting and restricting to specified districts, and regulating therein buildings and structures according to their construction and the nature and extent of their use, and to regulate and restrict the height number of stories, and size of buildings and other structures, the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use and extent of use of buildings and structures for trade, industry, residence or other purposes, the City of Newark is hereby divided into seven classes of districts:

1. First residence districts.
2. Second residence districts.
3. Third residence districts.
4. First business districts.
5. Second business districts.
6. First industrial districts.

as shown on the Zoning Map which accompanies and is hereby declared to be a part of this ordinance. The districts designated on said map are hereby established. The designations which accompany said map are hereby declared to be a part thereof.

No building or premises shall be erected, altered or used for any purpose except in accordance with the regulations herein prescribed for the district in which such building or premises is located, nor until application has been filed in the office of and approved by the Superintendent of Buildings.

Section 3. Use Regulations Controlling First Residence Districts.

In a First Residence District no building or premises shall be used, and no building shall be erected, in whole or in part for any industrial, manufacturing or commercial purpose, or for any other than the following specified purposes:

- (c) Churches.
- (d) Schools, libraries or public museums

(e) Accessory uses customarily incident to the above uses, the term accessory use, however, not including a business or any building or use not located on the same lot with the building to which it is accessory. A private garage, as herein defined, shall be permitted as an accessory use.

Section 4. Use Regulations Controlling Second Residence Districts.

In a Second Residence District, no building or premises shall be used, and no building shall be erected to be used in whole or in part for any industrial, manufacturing or commercial purpose, or for any other than the following specified purposes:

- (c) Clubs, except clubs the chief activity of which is a service carried on as a business.
- (d) Railroad passenger stations.

(f) Accessory uses customarily incident to the above uses, the term accessory use, however, not including a business or any building or use not located on the same lot with the building to which it is accessory. A garage or a group of garages for more than five motor vehicles shall not be permitted as an accessory use; but such garage or garages need not be occupied by the motor vehicles owned by the occupant of the premises to come within the definition of an accessory garage. Such garage may not, however, be occupied by any motor vehicle licensed for commercial purposes.

No use permitted in a first residence district shall be excluded from a second residence district.

Section 5. Use, Regulations Controlling Third Residence Districts.

In a Third Residence District, no building or premises shall be used, and no building shall be erected to be used in whole or in part for any industrial, manufacturing, or commercial purpose, or for any other than the following specified purposes

(a) Apartment or tenement houses.

(b) Hotels.

(c) Central Telephone Exchange Buildings, not immediately adjoining on the side or fronting on a First or Second Residence District. Such buildings shall exclude all public business facilities, the storage of outside plant material, trucks, repair equipment, the housing of outside repair crews, or any operation which might cause annoyance to a residential neighborhood.

(d) Accessory uses customarily incident to the above uses, the term accessory use, however, not including a business or any building or use not located on the same lot with the building to which it is accessory. A group of garages not exceeding more than one motor vehicle for each 1,000 square feet of lot area shall be permitted as an accessory use, provided the number of such garages does not exceed by more than two the number of families housed on such plot. Such garages need not be occupied by the motor vehicles owned by the occupant of the premises to come within the definition of an accessory garage. Such garages may not be occupied by any motor vehicle licensed for commercial purposes.

No use permitted in First or Second Residence Districts shall be excluded from a Third Residence District.

Section 6. Use Regulations Controlling First Business Districts.

In a First Business District, no building or premises shall be used, and no building shall be erected to be used in whole or in part for any industrial, manufacturing or commercial purposes above the ground story thereof, or for any purpose other than permitted in a Residence District.

No trade, industry or use prohibited in Second Business Districts shall be permitted in First Business Districts. A use not so excluded may be operated or conducted only below the second story of the building in which it is located.

No use permitted in Residence Districts shall be excluded from the First Business District.

Accessory uses incident to a use not otherwise excluded from First Business Districts, when located upon the same lot with the building or use to which it is accessory, may include a group of garages for not more than one motor vehicle for each 1,000 square feet of lot area. Such garages, however, may not be used for the storage of commercial motor vehicles having a capacity of more than two tons each.

Section 7. Use Regulations Controlling Second Business Districts.

In a Second Business District no building or premises shall be used, and no building shall be erected to be used for any of the following specified trades, industries or uses:

(a) Bottling plant, or station for the wholesale distribution of bottled products.

(b) Building material storage yard.

(c) Carpet, rug or bag cleaning establishment.

(d) Contractor's plant or storage yard.

(e) Carousel, ferris wheel, merry-go-round, roller coaster, or similar amusement devices.

(f) Coal, coke, lumber or wood yard.

(g) Dry cleaning or dyeing establishment, employing power machinery.

(a) Unless otherwise expressly provided, the term rear yard, front yard, side yard, inner court, or outer court, when used in this ordinance shall be deemed to refer only to a rear yard, front yard, side yard, inner court or outer court required by this ordinance. No lot area shall be so reduced or diminished that the yards, courts or other open spaces shall be smaller than prescribed by this ordinance. No existing building shall be altered, enlarged or rebuilt except in conformity with the regulations herein prescribed.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this ordinance every room in which persons live, sleep, work or congregate, shall have at least one window or ventilating skylight opening directly either upon a street or upon a rear yard, front yard, side yard, inner court or outer court located upon the same lot and conforming to the requirements prescribed by this ordinance as to its minimum area and least dimensions. In buildings used for industrial purposes such window or skylight shall provide at least one square foot of opening between stop heads for every twenty square feet or proportional part thereof of floor area in the room, and in all other buildings one square foot of opening for every ten square feet or proportional part thereof of floor area in the room. Courts, yards and other open spaces, if provided in addition to those required by this ordinance, need not be of the area and dimensions herein prescribed. No yard, court or other open space provided about any building for the purpose of complying with the provisions of this ordinance shall again be used as a yard, court or other open space for another building.

(c) Courts or shafts needed exclusively for lighting and ventilating bathrooms, toilet compartments, hallways or stairways, need not comply with the area regulations of the different zones.

Section 16. Exceptions to Area Requirements.

(a) The area required in a court or yard at any given level shall be open from such level to the sky unobstructed, except for the ordinary projections of skylights and parapets above the bottom of such court or yard, and except for the ordinary projections of window sills and belt courses to the extent of not more than four inches. Cornices and other ornamental features may extend into such court or yard to the extent of not more than twelve inches.

(b) An open or lattice enclosed iron fire-escape, fireproof outside stairway, or solid-floored balcony to a fire tower may project not more than four feet into a rear yard or an inner court, except that an open or lattice-enclosed iron fire-escape may project not more than eight feet into a rear yard or into an inner court, when it does not occupy more than twenty per cent. of the area of such inner court.

(c) A corner of a court or yard may be cut off between walls of the same building, provided that the length of the wall of such cut-off does not exceed seven feet.

(d) Windows opening on an offset to a court or yard shall be deemed to comply with the provisions of this ordinance provided such offset is no deeper in any part than it is wide on the open side. The open side of such offset shall in no case be less than six feet. The area contained in an offset shall in no case be included in computing the required area of a court or yard.

Section 17. Front Yards.

The street wall of every building hereafter erected, reconstructed or altered, shall in no wise project beyond the average observed by the street walls of the buildings on the same side of the street within the block at the time of the passage of this ordinance. Where there are no existing buildings at the time of the passage of this ordinance on one or both sides of the street within the block, no new building shall be erected on the vacant side with its street wall nearer the street line than the standard depth of front yard shown for each respective zone on the "Schedule Limiting Height and Bulk of Buildings."

The average depth of front yard observed by buildings on the same side of the street within two hundred (200) feet on each side of the lot in question shall control, in lieu of the average depth within the block, where the block affected has a length of more than one thousand (1000) feet between its intersecting or intercepting streets.

A building erected on a corner lot shall observe the front yard requirements on its narrow street front, and on its greater street front the required front yard may be reduced one-half. Where the two street frontages of a corner lot are of equal length, the front yard requirement shall be observed on the block having the greater length.

A one-story open porch may project into a required front yard for a distance not greater than eight feet.

Section 18. Rear Yards.

(a) A rear yard extending along the rear lot line shall be required on every lot. This provision shall, however, not apply to buildings exclusively business or industrial when situated on corner lots in Business or Industrial Districts.

(b) Where a lot is not within a residence district as designated on the Zoning Map, the lowest level of a rear yard shall not be above the sill level of the second story window nor in any case more than twenty feet above the curb level. Where a lot is within a residence district the lowest level of a rear yard shall not be above the curb level.

(c) In Third Residence and First Business Districts an interior lot running from street to street shall not be required to provide a rear yard when improved with a single building, provided the requirements as to percentage of lot occupancy are complied with, and provided further, that when such a building is located between lots requiring rear yards on either or both sides such building shall provide a court on the side or sides on which the adjoining lots are required to provide rear yards, and for the full distance between the projected minimum rear yard lines.

(d) In Residence Districts accessory buildings may occupy forty per cent. of the required area of a rear yard up to a height of eighteen feet above the curb level.

(e) Chimneys or flues may be erected within a side or rear yard, provided they do not exceed five square feet in area in the aggregate and do not obstruct ventilation.

Section 19. Exceptions to Height Regulations.

(a) In Third Residence and First

Business Districts where streets are more than sixty (60) feet in width, the same height regulations shall be applied as on streets sixty (60) feet in width.

(c) In Second Business and Industrial Districts five feet may be added to the height limit of a building or portion thereof for each one foot that such building or such portion sets back from the street line.

(d) In Second Business and Industrial Districts a dormer, elevator bulkhead or other structure may be erected above the height limit at any level for any part of a building, provided its frontage length on any given street be not greater than fifty (50%) per cent. of the length of such street frontage of such part of the building. Such frontage length of such structure at any given level shall be decreased by an amount equal to one (1%) per cent. of such street frontage of such part of the building for every foot such level is above such height limit. If there are more than one such structures, their aggregate frontage shall not exceed the frontage length above permitted at any given level.

(e) In Second Business and Industrial Districts if the area of a building is reduced so that above a given level it covers in the aggregate not more than twenty-five (25%) per cent. of the area of the lot, the building above such level shall be excepted from the height regulations. Such portion of the building may be erected to any height, provided that it sets back from each of its lot lines at every level at least one inch for each one foot that such level is above the curb level.

(f) Along a narrower street near its intersection with a wider street, any building, or any part of any building fronting on the narrower street within one hundred and fifty (150) feet, measured at right angles to the side of the wider street, shall be governed by the height regulations provided for the wider street. A corner building on such intersecting streets shall be governed by the height regulations provided for the wider street for one hundred fifty (150) feet from the side of such wider street, measured along such narrower street.

(g) The height regulations shall not apply to the erection of church spires, belfries, chimneys, flues, grain elevators or gas holders; nor to bulkheads, elevator enclosures or water tanks occupying in the aggregate less than ten (10%) per cent. of the area of the roof on which they are located.

(h) Nothing in this ordinance shall prevent the projection of a cornice beyond the street wall to an extent of not more than three (3) feet, nor prevent the erection above the height limit of a parapet wall or cornice extending above such height limit not more than five (5) feet.

any rules, regulations or permits previously adopted or issued or which shall be adopted or issued pursuant to law relating to the use of buildings or premises; nor is it intended by this ordinance to interfere with or abrogate or annul any easements, covenants or other agreements between parties; provided, however, that where this ordinance imposes a greater restriction upon the use of buildings or premises or upon the height of buildings, or requires larger yards, courts or other open spaces than are imposed or required by such existing provision of law or ordinance or by such rules, regulations or permits or by such easements, covenants or agreements, the provisions of this ordinance shall control.

Section 22. Enforcement, Legal Procedure, Penalties.

Final action shall not be taken on an application involving a change of district or boundary lines, however, until the City Clerk shall have given due notice in writing of the application, and the date of hearing thereon, to the owners of every property entitled to protest as above mentioned.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. John L. Becker, 361 Grove Street: Gentlemen, on behalf of the majority of the property owners on these streets I wish to protest against the paving of them. There is a total frontage on these streets on both sides of 1470 feet, of which 585 feet is owned by cemeteries, the Holy Sepulchre and a group of Jewish cemeteries. We understand that the cemeteries do not pay assessments.

Mayor Congleton: That does not increase your assessment.

Mr. Becker: I understand that. The point I am making is to omit all the paving. We represent 93 per cent. of the property owners on the street.

Mayor Congleton: What is the real objection to having it paved? These are two of the very few unpaved streets in our city. It costs a lot of money every year for treating them with oil and trying to keep the dust down for the neighbors. It is time, it seems to me that the few remaining dirt streets ought to be done away with and be paved.

Mr. Becker: We have no objection to paying money. The property owners have been paying money every year.

Mayor Congleton: We treat them with oil.

Mr. Kemp: This past year is the only year that the city has taken possession of it and have been treating it with oil. Previous to that Mr. Becker and I have taken possession and have filled it and leveled it with ashes.

Mayor Congleton: And you call that a street in the City of Newark?

Mr. Becker: Mr. Kemp has a greenhouse, and I have that house, and there is a big wagon shop there. We moved into that neighborhood, because it is a property that is peculiar. It is adapted to our use. We do not need the paving. We don't ask for it.

Mayor Congleton: It is an expensive thing not to have it paved. Everytime there is a rain the dirt and dust fills the sewer basin and it needs constant care.

Mr. Becker: There are only two buildings, two-three-family houses now. I can't see any reason for paving that street. Of course, of late traffic has centered over Grove Street, around Ruth, Whitney, and South Orange Avenue, to avoid the congestion on South Orange Avenue, and it has been a great aid to motorists wanting to avoid the traffic on South Orange Avenue, but we do not feel that we are obliged to pay for the traffic to go over the street in front of our houses.

Mayor Congleton: The rest of us have to. Other people pass in front of my house, and I have to pay for the paving as a property owner.

Mr. Becker: I know, but why should that fall on three property owners?

Mayor Congleton: That is because you have so much frontage.

Mr. Becker: We wish to protest against the paving. If it is necessary we would like to have that go into the general levy.

Mayor Congleton: You mean the city stand it?

Mr. Becker: On the city at large, because it is an improvement that is being enjoyed by all the people and used at large.

Mayor Congleton: It will never go there, because it will enhance the value of your property. You will receive the benefit of it.

Mr. Becker: It will never enhance the value of our property.

Mayor Congleton: There we disagree. Every piece of property, whenever a street is improved, is enhanced over what it was before the street was paved.

Mr. Becker: I offer this petition.

(A petition signed by Elwell Kemp, Charles L. Becker, and John A. Reichstetter protesting against the paving of Whitney and Ruth Streets was then received, read and on motion ordered referred to Mayor Congleton.)

Mayor Congleton: The petition will be received and the hearing will be postponed until we look into it.

The Board of Adjustment
City of Newark, N. J.

December 19, 1929.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted varying the Zoning Ordinance and granting the application of Gas Stations Holding Company for the construction of a gasoline station at 341-345 Orange Street, corner of Eighth Avenue.

Plans for this building were denied by the Building Department December 9, 1929, and an appeal filed with the Board of Adjustment the same day.

A public hearing on the appeal was ordered for December 19th, at which time Mr. A. J. Isserman appeared as counsel for the applicant. The only objector to appear was Mr. Elias Doremus representing the Lackawanna Railroad.

The premises in question is a narrow triangular piece separated from the railroad property by the width of Lackawanna Avenue, an alley about twenty feet wide. At a previous hearing on this application, resulting in a denial on January 3, 1929, representatives of the railroad pointed out that the grade of the tracks at that point was rather steep, and that locomotives under forced draft were apt to throw off sparks. They felt that these facts should prevent the construction of a gasoline station at that point.

At the hearing of December 19th it was learned that 90 per cent of the trains would be operated by electricity in a short time, and that the element of danger from sparks would therefore be considerably reduced.

There is no church, school, or similar institution within 200 feet.

The nearest gasoline station is at 315-321 Orange Street and was approved May 16, 1929.

The application was granted by unanimous vote.

The Board of Adjustment,
R. B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Commissioner Brennan moved that the application be laid over to January 15, 1930.

A public hearing was ordered for December 19, 1929, at which time Mr. Louis E. Aronowitz represented the applicant. No objectors appeared.

To the Honorable
City Commissioners,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

We, the undersigned, being property owners and taxpayers on property situated on Cutler Street and on Seventh Avenue, in the City of Newark, N. J., believing that the present pavements on both thoroughfares have served their usefulness and are now outworn and beyond repair, being in their present condition a menace to public health and a detriment to the progress and improvement of the neighborhood property; do hereby respectfully petition your honorable body to consider carefully and act upon the advisability of paving Cutler Street and Seventh Avenue.

In the event that both thoroughfares cannot be considered at this time, we would respectfully urge your consideration of Cutler Street, especially as it is in an absolutely unsanitary condition.

Respectfully submitted,

Signed by Columbus Trust Co.

Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association

Board of City Commissioners,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

In the midst of other drives, we hesitate to approach you, but the subject matter is of such vital importance both commercially and in the humanitarian sense of saving life and property, that we feel warranted in doing so.

We ask you to carefully consider the enclosed statement bearing upon the New Jersey Canal Project. We need your support to adequately present the case to the Engineers and to Congress.

Respectfully yours,

J. H. Moore,
President.

Referred to the Mayor.

The undersigned property owners, merchants and residents of Roseville, urgently request that the plan for building the new city subway along the route of the abandoned Morris Canal be changed to eliminate the crossing of Orange Street at grade.

It is reasonable to assume that the use of the high-speed line will be on an ever increasing scale and the complexities likely to result, even within a comparatively short time, from a grade crossing at that juncture are, we feel quite apparent. Such a grade crossing would constitute a hazard to life or at least would necessitate the installation of such safeguards as would create a street traffic congestion that would become worse as time passed.

We respectfully submit that it is unfair to inflict such a damaging discrimination upon Orange Street, for the inevitable result would be to divert street traffic to other east and west bound thoroughfares, causing depreciation of Orange Street property values and seriously affecting business in this neighborhood.

Moreover, the electrification of the Lackawanna Railroad, the completion of the new building of the Newark Academy adjacent to the proposed crossing and other improvements are positive factors in the further development of this section, while the proposal to construct the new high speed line across Orange Street at grade, instead of at an elevation, would offset to a large extent the benefits to be derived from the other projects mentioned.

We appeal, therefore, to you to give further consideration to the plan adopted, as far as it concerns Orange Street, and to devise with the aid of your engineers a modification that will not block the free passage of traffic on Orange Street and that will be more in accord with the now well established grade crossing policy of the state.

Signed by

Eleventh Ward B. & L. Assn.

Benj. F. Hurd,
President,
and approximately 250 others.

Referred to the Mayor.

Plans of suggested changes of Orange Street crossing of city railway were presented by Mr. Lurich and referred to the Mayor for conference.

Mr. Louis Auérbacher, 60 Park Place.

Mr. Mayor, a group of citizens, property owners and merchants, and residents, from the Roseville section of the City are here to protest against the grade crossing of the City Railway at Orange Street. We have here a series of petitions signed by the property owners, merchants and residents.

Our group feels that it would be dangerous to have the city railway line cross at grade at Orange Street. It is planned to make this a rapid transit line, and we feel that if it is to be such a rapid transit line, it should either go under Orange Street or over.

Mr. Lurich has here a sketch of a proposed plan showing that it would not be a difficult thing for the city railway to cross over Orange Street.

Mr. Benjamin F. Hurd, 487 Orange Street.

I don't know that I have very much to say about it except that a year ago I wrote Jackson, the Park Commissioner, asking if he didn't think that Orange Street was susceptible of being raised starting at Hudson Street, which is a high point, and probably coming back to grade somewhere around First or Second Street. There is very little property that would be damaged.

There are a lot of angles to it. It would seem to me that if a bridge is built there it would not be a very expensive proposition. You would not have to move sewers, you would not have to move pipe of any kind. It is really a much cheaper proposition than having to go under the canal and a much more practical one, because the railroad could be carried under the Orange Avenue elevation 8 or 9 feet.

As a matter of fact, it seems to me that there are several features that might require some study. I believe that the railroad station could be made part of the elevation. It would save the cost of the railroad station, which must do something, and get light from the elevation. In other words, the railroad station could be put right under the elevated street.

Mayor Congleton: The station must be there. The cars are going to turn out from the surface of the canal onto the surface of Orange Street.

Mr. Hurd: Well, from an engineering standpoint, it is not advisable.

Mayor Congleton: I am not talking from an engineering standpoint. We have thought that this is the best way to do it now. You speak of these cars as being rapid transit cars. For the time being they are going to be trolley cars, and the only one that will pass over Orange Street, which you are complaining about, are the ones that are going onto Bloomfield Avenue.

We have every reason to hope that this system will not be in operation for many years before the necessity for real rapid transit occurs. Rapid transit that will just travel back and forth in the canal and on out to the north will be in operation, and the other surface lines or jitneys will come to the subway and discharge their passengers there or take them away from the rapid transit lines, the same as we saw in Boston.

We think, however, that we should not touch that proposition until that time arrives, and that we ought to postpone this very expensive proposition until we have had an opportunity to see it in operation, to be able to judge as to which would be the best thing to do.

Mr. Hurd: Of course, that is good sense. Nevertheless, we feel that it would create a very, very dangerous situation there. The traffic is going to increase very rapidly.

Mayor Congleton: Where would it be any different, Mr. Hurd, from the trolleys on First Street crossing Sussex Avenue, crossing Hecker Street or Warren Street, or any of the other cross streets?

Mr. Hurd: Well, merely because you put a railroad station there, which would increase the number of pedestrians.

Mayor Congleton: The railroad station won't be on Orange Street! it will be in cut. People will have to get on or off the trolleys down below the surface of the street.

Mr. Hurd: I presume that you people have studied it out very carefully, but it would seem to me that perhaps your idea of waiting a year or two might be a good one. I have, however, given the subject quite a little thought, and it seems to me that we have there three nuisances. One is the Roseville station, the other is the Broad Street station and the third is the park at Sussex Avenue, which is nothing but an empty hole. The only thing that park is used for, I think, is about three or four times a year you see a few half-naked boys running around a circle.

Mayor Congleton: It is used a little more than that. You don't go there enough.

Mr. Hurd: It seems to me that if a combination is made at that point of the railroad station together with the rapid transit—if that thing could be figured out—or perhaps it would be better to try your scheme to see how the present arrangement would do and set out the station there.

Mayor Congleton: From the operation standpoint, the Public Service has always insisted that they wanted it underneath rather than elevated.

Mr. Hurd: I think it is absolutely impractical to carry it under the railroad.

Mayor Congleton: They don't think so, and they have been in that business for a good many years. We have, I think, a very good engineer in that line, Mr. Smiley, who was of the chief designing engineers of the Holland Tunnel, and who devoted his life to this kind of work. I have been advised that when it is done it should be in a tunnel underneath the surface rather than overhead on account of operating features.

Mr. Hurd: I don't want to take up your time but I simply want to say that the running of these trolleys on the surface, with the cars going to turn out there, is going to create a congested point and a dangerous one. Perhaps the other scheme can be worked out, but I don't think it ought to be done that way.

Mayor Congleton: From the statements that I have made I don't mean to imply that we are not interested in your proposition. We will take it in conference with the full Board of Commissioners and go into it very carefully. I just want you men to know why we have proposed doing it in the fashion that we have been doing it, so that you will have a picture of it before you.

Mr. Charles Lurich, 4 North 9th Street.

The City of Newark purchased that canal at quite an expense, but on the other hand they procured a great bargain. The City of Newark possesses a great slogan of knowing how to do things.

Now, we have a proposition there in the canal for a highspeed railway. Why not put that to the use of a real and efficient railway. If you are going to spend any money we would like to see it done judiciously.

As I understand it, two units of contracts have been given, and it is proposed in the near future to give other units beyond Orange Street, but your present plan is to bring it up to grade and to cross Orange Street at grade. Now, that means that you have to take the fill from Lock Street at grade and cart it up to Orange Street to bring it up to the Orange Street grade. If in the future you contemplate going under the railway, all that earth that is being carted up to that point now will have to be carted away.

Mayor Congleton: Carted up to what point?

Mr. Lurich: Up to Orange Street, to bring the bed of the canal up to level where those cars have to turn in. It is an economic waste. It will not be so much more expensive to give us a viaduct there and give us a permanent improvement.

Mayor Congleton: In the near future when the operating company would want to put a fast line, such as the Hudson-Manhattan tube or the subway in New York, they will insist upon the tunnel being put underneath, which is the way the contract that is in existence reads. The contract made for the building of this city railway and the operation of it by the Public Service calls for a tunnel underneath Orange Street, and underneath the railroad track.

When we actually got into the working of it, we thought that for the time being we could save that much expenditure, until we saw exactly how the thing operated. The Public Service can today, if they desire, compel us to come underneath Orange Street and under the railroad, and we can not compel them, unless they see fit, to go over these streets by viaduct. They insisted in the negotiations that if the grade was to be started it should be through a tunnel underneath the tracks, and that is what the contract calls for. There were very expensive public hearings on those contracts, too.

Mr. Lurich: We have canvassed all the merchants in the civic associations up there, and we haven't found a dissenting voice on this proposition of going over it by the viaduct. It need not be anything unsightly. I think the city is fortunate in having only one crossing where they have to provide some method of going over an artery.

There is another obstruction, which has been caused partly by the fact that the Lackawanna is depressed there. The Lackawanna is preparing to take away that bridge that carried over the cradle that carried the canal boats over the street. Now you have some other proposition. They don't dare have the lights too high or too low. If you have a grade crossing it would interfere materially with the operation.

Mayor Congleton: It doesn't interfere with the operation one bit.

Mr. Lurich: Their engineer advised me that it would and I am just repeating to you what he said.

Mayor Congleton: Our engineer advises us differently.

Mr. Lurich: The Roseville people feel that you ought to have some permanent proposition there.

Mayor Congleton: The permanent proposition provided for by the contract, and the proposition that the Public Service can hold us to is to tunnel underneath the tracks. We have thought to let this thing go in operation as it is until we see that there is any need of it.

Mr. Lurich: I talked this over with Mr. McCarter of the Public Service and he said to refer it to the City Commission. He has an open mind if some other proposition would be advisable and not too expensive.

We understand up there that the reason why you are not going under is due to the fact that Mr. Costello said that it would cost in the neighborhood of half a million dollars at the present time and that you did not feel disposed to spend that money. I think we can have a permanent fixed and ornamental viaduct there. These crossings through the Oranges are pretty nice. There is nothing very unsightly about them.

Mayor Congleton: We will take it up in conference.

Mr. Lurich: I may further state that we have here a set of plans which show just how it can be done. We would like to have you consider them. I file these plans with you.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance providing for the opening and widening of Haynes Avenue, on the northerly side thereof from Frelinghuysen Avenue easterly to Fenwick Street; for the change of grade of Haynes Avenue, from a line at right angles thereto intersecting the southerly line of the same at a point distant 415 feet easterly from the south-easterly corner of Frelinghuysen Avenue and Haynes Avenue, easterly 404 feet to the proposed westerly abutment of the bridge over the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad; and for the opening and widening of Meeker Avenue, on the westerly side thereof from Frelinghuysen Avenue southerly to Haynes Avenue; and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. William L. Morgan, Pitney, Hardin & Skinner, 763 Broad Street.

Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen of the Commission: I represent the Weston Electrical Instrument Company. This proposed improvement extends along Haynes Avenue for the entire block in front of the Weston Electrical Instrument Company. The ordinance as it is printed and before you now makes this a local improvement assessed against the properties immediately benefited. The real purpose of this improvement is undoubtedly to provide a good approach to Route 1. We think that a good part of the benefits will run to the City at large. We are not opposed to this improvement; we want it. We believe it is a good improvement, but we do not think the assessment ought to be levied heavily against the property in this very small restricted area, which only covers a few hundred feet from Frelinghuysen Avenue to the approach to the bridge.

Ordinances have been presented and passed heretofore in many instances, there has been a provision made in the ordinance by which a certain proportion is assessed against the properties benefited, and the rest against the City at large. We are wondering why that provision has not been made in this ordinance, because, I think, we will all undoubtedly agree that this is an improvement which is for the general benefit of the public. It gives an access to Route 1 in that section of the city which requires an access to Route 1.

So far as the Weston Electrical Instrument Company is concerned, at the present time they have every surface and everything that they need. The question as to whether there should be sixty feet in front of them or a hundred feet does not mean anything to them, and the present amount of traffic is not burdensome.

Mayor Congleton: It means a lot to them as to the kind of bridge they have there, Mr. Morgan. In order to have a proper and up to date bridge it is necessary to widen this street. You will bear in mind an opening and widening improvement is not limited. The assessments for the benefits are not limited to the property that abut upon the improvement; it is spread over a very much larger area.

Mr. Morgan: That is very true, but may I ask why the ordinance has not been presented in the usual form of apportionment between the property owners and the city at large?

Mayor Congleton: That is not the usual form. Mulberry Street was not that way, you know. Washington Street was not that way, Jones Street was not that way, and most arteries that we improve for the very purpose and use that this one is to be improved for.

Mr. Morgan: If I recall rightly, Ferry Street was that way.

Mayor Congleton: There have been some, but there have not been any lately.

Mr. Morgan: I have been before the Board on several occasions when we have had that understood, and it has been incorporated in the ordinance.

Mayor Congleton: There have been none lately.

Mr. Morgan: Do not misunderstand me. We do not oppose the widening of the street. I say that the surface that they have at the present time is absolutely complete and satisfactory. The street is well paved. We have practically a new pavement there.

Mayor Congleton: The bridge that is there now is to be replaced. In order to construct the proper kind of approach for up to date traffic, it is necessary to widen the street. We are following the usual custom, and the city, of course, on all improvements of this nature, absorbs a very substantial part of it.

Mr. Morgan: Such, of course, is absolutely and positively satisfactory to my clients, if that is the understanding and it is to be done in that way.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

There being no one else to be heard, Commissioner Gillen moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

An ordinance providing for the opening and widening of Haynes Avenue, on the northerly side thereof from Frelinghuysen Avenue easterly to Fenwick Street; for the change of grade of Haynes Avenue, from a line at right angles thereto intersecting the southerly line of the same at a point distant 415 feet easterly from the south-easterly corner of Frelinghuysen Avenue and Haynes Avenue, easterly 404 feet to the proposed westerly abutment of the bridge over the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad; and for the opening and widening of Meeker Avenue, on the westerly side thereof from Frelinghuysen Avenue southerly to Haynes Avenue.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance to provide for the paving and repaving of McWhorter Street from Ferry Street to Elm Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Mr. W. P. Gregory, 709 DeGraw Avenue.

I represent the Ironbound Manufacturers Association. We approve of the repaving of McWhorter Street. The association believes that it will be one of the main arteries from South Street to the Pennsylvania station. I understand that a number of property owners are favorable toward this proposition, providing the city can see its way clear to bear sixty per cent. of the cost—a sixty-forty proposition.

Mr. E. J. Pucciariello, 163 Lafayette Street.

I have a petition here in favor of the paving of the street providing that the City will help pay for the pavement.

Mayor Congleton: The City always does help pay for every single street that is improved.

Mr. Pucciariello: Then we are satisfied.

The following petition was received and read:

To The City Commission,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:-

The undersigned, property owners on McWhorter Street, from Elm Street to Ferry Street, respectfully request your body to pave and widen the above section of McWhorter Street; the pavement to be smooth and the width of the street to be that of a four-vehicle thoroughfare. We also ask that the trolley tracks be removed from the street, and that buses be substituted for trolleys as a means of transportation thereon.

As McWhorter Street is an important cross town traffic artery, and will be one of the principal North and South feeders to the new Pennsylvania Plaza and Depot at Market Street, we would respectfully request that the City assume sixty per cent. of the cost of the improvement.

Signed by 23 property-owners.

Referred to the Mayor.

Mr. Joseph A. Gay, 20 Bruen Street.
Gentlemen, while we have a petition on the other side of the question, we realize that McWhorter Street eventually is going to be a main artery. Our idea in asking that the repaving be deferred until after the new plaza is worked out is to see how the whole thing ties in. As I said, it appears to us only a question of time before this improvement takes place, but inasmuch as the street is to be widened—the street now is in good enough condition for the amount of traffic going through there, but it is not a local improvement for the benefit of the property owners. It becomes more of a main thoroughfare or highway. Our idea is to play along with this thing if it can be made sixty and forty per cent. between the City and the property owners.

Mayor Congleton: One reason why we are proceeding with some of these streets is not to have the plaza all torn up and the other streets all torn up at one time. We want to go ahead as fast as we can with improvements so as to give some relief when the congestion comes at the plaza of the Pennsylvania station when they get actively working there. It has been our thought that the City ought to proceed as rapidly as we can and that it is part of the work that we have in mind, so that would be some relief granted when the Pennsylvania gets busy.

Mr. Gay: May I ask about when this approach for the plaza will commence?

Mayor Congleton: The ordinance is passed. The matter is now in the hands of the Board of Assessment Commissioners. As soon as they are able to hold their hearings and determine what amount the property owners are entitled to and their report is confirmed, it is the intention of my department to proceed immediately to have the buildings wrecked and the plaza created, so that we will have our new streets on the east side of the Pennsylvania Railroad and make it possible for people to travel in and around there without all of the congestion that is bound to follow when the Pennsylvania Railroad is constructing its new depot and its new track. I want to do the same thing on this side of the new station as soon as the lines can definitely be determined.

We want to go ahead as rapidly as we can with our part of the work.

There are petitions here both ways. I would suggest, gentlemen, that we postpone this matter two weeks, for the purpose of having this matter checked. Of course if there is in opposition a petition containing sufficient frontage, it acts as a veto.

Mr. Gregory: Here is another petition in favor of it.

To the Honorable Commissioners of the City of Newark, Essex County, New Jersey.

We, the undersigned, property owners of more than two-thirds of the assessed valuation of the properties fronting on McWhorter Street from Ferry Street to Elm Street inclusive (the said amount being statutory requirement to defeat the proposed improvement) hereby object to the passage of a certain proposed ordinance contemplating the repaving and/or paving of the aforementioned portion of McWhorter Street at this time, for the following reasons:

1. The said street is not in need of the proposed improvement.
2. The said street in its present condition is adequate to the needs and requirements of the locality which is served by it.
3. The proposed improvement would in no way benefit the property owners even at least to the extent of the cost of the same.
4. The same is not an improvement of a local nature.

For the said reasons we respectfully urge you to defer without date or to defeat the passage of the ordinance proposing the said alleged improvement.

Respectfully,

Signed by Blanchard Bro. & Lane and 24 property owners

Referred to the Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: In the meantime, at our conference we will take up this request for a forty-sixty apportionment.

The motion is that this be postponed for two weeks for further consideration and so that the petition for the sixty-four apportionment may be considered.

Commissioner Brennan moved that the ordinance be laid over to January 29, 1930.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance to provide for the repaving of Madison Street from Market Street to Lafayette Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Mr. Gregory: I might say that the Ironbound Manufacturers Association has gone on record as being in favor of this. I think that they have suggested this along with a number of other street improvements in the Ironbound Section. They feel that in a short time it will become a main artery. Madison is partly an improved street, but they feel that the work should be done. They believe that it should be done on the same basis that the City paves its other streets that are used as through thorough-fares and that the City defray a certain portion of the expense, whatever they deem proper.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is that further consideration be deferred.

Commissioner Howe moved that the ordinance be laid over to January 29, 1930.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance to provide for the repaving of Twelfth Avenue from West Market Street to Newton Street and from Bergen Street to Fairmount Avenue with new oblong granite block pavement on a new six (6) in concrete foundation; from Newton Street to Bergen Street and from Fairmount Avenue to South 12.h Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, the street railway track area between South 10th Street and South 12th Street to be repaired or repaved with granite block where necessary, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Mayor Congleton: In that case, gentlemen, there is a protest filed by ninety per cent. of the property owners, so a motion to strike out the ordaining clause will be in order.

Commissioner Gillen: I move the ordaining clause be stricken out.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Joseph Zemel, 763 Broad Street: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I believe that I am in order when I appear here this morning on behalf of myself and other property owners in Newark. I want to be heard, if I may, for a few moments on the question of the leasing of the Centre Market. I haven't received any direct information on this; all I have is what I have read in the press, and that wasn't fully detailed. Therefore, I may not be in a position to state in full detail, but I think I have a general outline of what the proposition is that is before the Commission at this time.

I feel that in discussing the matter of the Centre Market we must discuss in two branches. The first is whether it is advisable to lease the Centre Market at this time. The second is if the Commission is of the opinion that it is advisable to lease the Centre Market at the present time as to the condition and the terms under which it should be leased. If you will go back for a moment to the conditions on Commerce Street and Canal Street before the Centre Market was built you will recall the condition that existed there. There were a lot of old shacks there. Property values weren't very high. Since the Market has come in the property values there have gone up tremendously. I dare say that they have gone up in the neighborhood of five hundred per cent. Not only have the property values gone up, but the assessments of the properties have increased, with the result that the City gets five times as much revenue in taxes from the property as they usually got from it prior to the erection of the Market.

We are told that the Market has been run at a loss of $125,000 a year. I don't know the exact figures, but that is my understanding of it. I want to submit to you that this is not a loss on the Market. If it costs money to run that market, the people of Newark get the benefit from it. The property in the immediate vicinity, as I have said, has gone up, and I am sure that when you consider the amount of increased revenue that the city gets in taxes there, the $125,000 loss dwindles into comparative insignificance when compared to the tremendous increase of revenue received as a result of the greatly increased assessments since the Market has been built.

We also know that the erection of the Pennsylvania Railroad station and the other new improvements there, values there are going to change. We have seen the great increase in values for the past ten years. We don't know what increase or decrease in values there is going to be during the next ten years. Now, then, if we lease this market today aren't we letting out a cat in the bag, so to speak? We don't know what we are leasing. We may be giving away valuable birthright for a mess of porridge.

I don't think that we should consider any proposition for leasing at the present time. If we carried this thing for ten years and have lost $125,000 a year, then, we can go along for another few years or so until we get an idea as to what the value of that property is going to be. I am very much against the idea of leasing or renting out something the value of which we do not know. If, however, in the judgment of the Commission it is decided that the property ought to be leased, we ought to consider carefully the terms of the lease. It is my understanding that the terms submitted by one of the prospective bidders for the market provides, among other things, for a bond of $100,000 and that it also provides that the present market buildings shall be tax exempt. Gentlemen, I hold now brief for either bidder. I don't know either of them. It seems to me, however, that it would be a very poor business proposition to let out something which has cost the City in the neighborhood of $5,000,000 and is worth at a minimum, as any competent real estate broker will be able to tell you, $15,000,000 today—to my mind it is very poor business judgment to rent this out for a bond of $100,000.

Even if we do rent it, what is to stop these people from going to work are making changes. What guarantee is there that they are not going to get out after a while, after they may have done things that will depreciate the value of the property. We have there now a number of tenants who are making their living there. It is going to cost these tenants money to move. Are we going to work and throw them out? Should we put the lessees in a position where they can do these things for a measly $200,000 a year. You know how much construction work you can do for $100,000. If the new lessees move one wall there, if they make the slightest so-called improvements, your $100,000 vanishes quickly when you go to replace it.

As to the personal liability or responsibility of these men, of course, I know nothing, but I do know that if they collect the rent there for only three or four months your $100,000 is gone, so they can pay the other things. As I understand it, when you rent this there is a requisite that you pay in the neighborhood of $33,000 commission at once. If you pay $33,000 commission at once and if you then go to work and give these people possession, if they only collect the rents for three or four months they have got their money out. In other words, they are given a splendid opportunity to speculate at the City's expense. As I understand it, there is a corporation. There is no individual liability. If things go nicely they have a splendid fifty year option on the best real estate in Newark. If things do not go just the way they want, they simply walk out, and that is all there is to it.

As I understand it, the lease also provides that the property, or the present building is to be tax exempt.

Now, when the man on the other side of the street—I am not speaking for myself only now. I have to make a lease for my property. When I have to rent my property I must take into consideration the taxes. My rent must include the taxes and then it must include, of course, the carrying charges on mortgages and so forth. These new people come into the Centre Market and they have no tax to pay. They are put in a very, very advantageous position over me, and I submit to you, now, that the advantage is a very unfair one. I have got to go to work and pay taxes. They go to work and buy the same article cheaper and do not have to pay taxes.

The present tenants there have certain rights. Aside from the legal rights, they are moral rights. Some of them have been in the Market or the predecessor of that Market for upwards of twenty years. Can we throw them out or put them in a position where they can be thrown out, for a measly $100,000? I don't think that it is proper for the City to go into the real estate business. It is only eight or nine or ten years ago since the City acquired the land for the present Market. At that time the City bought some of the land and some of it was acquired by condemnation.

Mayor Congleton: The City holds a deed in fee simply to every single piece of property in the tract.

Mr. Joseph Zemel: I didn't know that, sir.

Mayor Congleton: We did condemn some of it, but we got a deed for it. There are no reversionary rights involved in this particular piece of property.

Mr. Joseph Zemel: I want to call this to your attention—that a lot of people may have sold to the City, but I believe that they sold at prices that weren't nearly enough, but they, knowing the sad experience of people who go through condemnation thought, "We will get a lot less for it, so we will take all we can get now."

I want to leave with you the thought that if we only rent this thing and taken in $100,000 it is a lease that no competent or experienced or prudent business man will go into. We have got to pay out a tremendous commission. I like to see real estate brokers get money for their work, but I don't think they ought to do it at the expense of the City. We are put in a position where we may see a lemon on our hands. (Applause.)

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, I think that you ought to be corrected with respect to one or two things so that you and those here who applauded your speech may not think that your statements are entirely correct. The members of the Commission are agreed on certain things. They have differed on others. We are all in agreement that the present market buildings can not be tax exempt. Any lease that is made will provide that the buildings shall be taxed, the same as any other building.

Mr. Joseph Zemel: I see.

Commissioner Howe: Were you in error there?

Mr. Joseph Zemel: I was, sir, I got my information from the newspapers, and as I recall it, the papers said that there was a provision in the lease whereby, it seems, there was to be no taxes on the buildings. I may have misread the newspapers, but I don't think so.

Commissioner Howe: Are you aware of the fact that Highway 21 is going right through it and that it will destroy a great part of it?

Mr. Joseph Zemel: I understand that the plans for the highway are not entirely complete.

Commissioner Howe: They are complete as far as that is concerned.

Mr. Joseph Zemel: I didn't know it, sir.

Mayor Congleton: There is a further thing that I want to speak about. My own personal judgment—and I think the others have the same opinion—is that the time for the City to maintain a municipal market in the center part of our city has long since passed. With our neighborhood communities growing up as they are, where everybody has an opportunity to shop near at home, we feel that it is a waste of the citizens' money to maintain that market there at the loss that we are sustaining year by year. I am one hundred per cent. with all of the commissioners here who believe that the time for the abandonment of the Market has arrived.

Mr. Joseph Zemel: Of City planning, Mr. Mayor, I know very little, but I think that nine or ten years ago, when the Market was built--of course, that Market wasn't built for a day or for a year; it was built for a long time. The Commission may have been mistaken, but to err is human, and if it is the judgment of this body that the City is no longer in a position where it can maintain a Market, well and good, but even if that is so, I still don't see why, if we have here a valuable piece of property, we should lease it at a time when we don't know what the property is going to be worth.

Mayor Congleton: It is a matter of judgment. I disagree with you on that question. Each one is entitled to his own judgment. The thought has been brought forward by some that we can always make a better lease when things are coming along fine, when we are anticipating the improvements than you can after they are completed. One of the best illustrations I know of is the prices that people were getting for property on South Broad Street. The boom dropped and some people found themselves with very heavy burdens to carry. Often times you can make a good lease with the rising market rather than by waiting until it is all completed.

Mr. Joseph Zemel: I agree with you on that.

Mayor Congleton: That is a question of judgment upon which everybody is entitled to state his views.

Mr. Joseph Zemel: Here is a thought that occurs to me. These men who have made the offer, as I see it, if they have too large a burden won't be able to carry it. After all, it is only a corporation, an empty shell. They have only put up $100,000.

Mayor Congleton: That is one of the things that I want to correct you about. I don't want to state what the responsibility of the individuals is. They have been investigated, however, and found to be all right. The lease has been made in the name of the corporation, but all of the men interested in the lease, I think there are five of them, are to personally and individually sign the lease and to guarantee to finance it. It was so stated in the papers.

Commissioner Howe: In addition to that, I might say that their assets are at least $2,500,000. There is another question that I want to take up with you in defense of the City Commission and the Assessment Commission. Do you know of one piece of property which the City has condemned for which the owner did not receive a little more than anyone else would give him? Can you think of one?

Mr. Joseph Zemel: Right offhand I can't, but I think you can.

Commissioner Howe: I can think of hundreds where they did receive more. In every instance where the City condemns and wants to purchase the property, the owners ask anywhere from one to five times what the property, is assessed for, and very often two or three times what it is worth. Take the history of Mulberry Street. You are familiar with that.

Mr. Joseph Zemel: I know what they are asking, but what they will get is quite another story.

Commissioner Howe: They generally get all that is coming to them and sometimes more.

Mr. Max L. Tannenbaum, 335 Osborne Terrace: Gentlemen, I represent the property at 128 and 130 Commerce Street. We also feel that this is not the time to lease out the Market property, in view of the fact that immediate possession is not going to be taken.

Mayor Congleton: Why do you say that immediate possession is not to be taken?

Mr. Tannenbaum: Well, that is according to what I understand from the newspapers--that it is going to be a couple of years before possession is taken.

Mayor Congleton: The resolution that was read and passed this morning is on the theory that the people that have made the bid will take immediate possession. They are urging the Law Department to get the lease out as quickly as possible and they are in hopes that the lease can be agreed upon and that they can take possession by March 1 and commence to pay rent.

Mr. Tannenbaum: That may be well and good. They may take possession of one building and build their arena on it, but they will not take possession of the land where we will really get the benefit of it. It will also mean that the City will have to look for a site for another Farmers' Market, which will mean another burden on the taxpayers. It will also mean that we will lose whatever tenants we have down there at the present time. We are now renting to commission merchants. If they feel that the Farmers' Market is no longer going to be there, of course, they are not going to stay. I must say that our price of property has been the football of the City for the past two years. It originally was supposed to be the cutting though of Ward Street. We weren't allowed to do anything or to build at the time. They said to us, "We are going to take it for Ward Street." Then the ordinance was rescinded. In the meanwhile the property, or the buildings thereon were depreciating. We have had the same thing all over again. We applied for a permit to build but we weren't allowed to build. They said to us, "You can't build on that property. We are going to take it for Route 21." Two or three weeks ago, after waiting three or four years, we are notified that we can go ahead and build, that you are going to change your plans.

Mayor Congleton: Notified by whom?

Mr. Tannenbaum: Well, the State Highway Board and the City.

Mayor Congleton: By the City?

Mr. Tannenbaum: Well, the City gives or refuses the building permit.

Mayor Congleton: The City has nothing to do with establishing the lines of Route 21. That is a State Highway proposition.

Mr. Tannenbaum: We are supposed to get the building permit from the City. At the request of the State Highway Commission the City didn't issue the building permit. That is the way that piece of property has suffered. It has been a football for seven years. We have taken a good licking on it, and we feel that if we have to lose now whatever tenants we have down there and lose whatever rental we are getting on it and then pay taxes besides, that we are going to suffer. We believe that the lease will not be a benefit to the City at the present time and that it certainly will be harmful to the property owners there.

Commissioner Murray: Why do you say that the City must buy a new Farmers' Market?

Mr. Tannenbaum: Well, the farmers will go somewhere.

Commissioner Howe: Here is one in the Commission who will not vote for the City to buy a new farmers market. Why should we have a farmers' market at this day and age?

Mr. Tannenbaum: I feel that it will be an extra burden upon us. We will be losing our tenants if this lease goes through.

Commissioner Howe: You are looking out for yourself and not for the best interests of the City, is that it? Can't you get another line of people to come in there?

Mr. Tannenbaum: I believe that the City ought to give us a fifty-fifty break, at least. I am looking out for myself as well as the City.

Commissioner Howe: You have been getting it.

Mr. Tannenbaum: We haven't been getting so much. We have lost $30,000 by being kicked around.

Commissioner Murray: Don't you think that this improvement is going to benefit your property?

Mr. Tannenbaum: Yes, if we can live long enough to stand it.

Commissioner Murray: You will live. You are healthy.

Mr. Tannenbaum: If we can hold the property and stand the losses for seven years more, maybe, but we don't know. What next? We have no assurance. We have been taking a licking right along. It has cost us more to take title to it for the very same reason. We can't get it. They say that the city is going to take it.

Mayor Congleton: The city wanted to take the property for the widening of Ward Street but the property owners had such exaggerated ideas as to the value of their property that we abandoned it. The City Commission is not to be found fault with by the property owners, because after we abandoned it a number of the property owners, I don't know whether you were one of them or not, came back and tried to get us to revive it. They agreed to take substantially less than the values they testified to before the Board of Assessment Commissioners.

Mr. Tannenbaum: On this piece of property we had an offer set on it by the City and we never said yes or no or anything else. We didn't object to it at all. About the other pieces of property I don't know.

Mayor Congleton: That is the reason why it was abandoned—the selfishness of the property owners who tried to stick the city, but they didn't do it.

Commissioner Howe: That is in keeping with what I said a moment ago. That is our experience.

Mr. Tannenbaum: We didn't do anything of the kind. We just got the offer from the city and were ready to take it. I say that the tenants will have to get out of there now. Whether the lessees take possession immediately or not, the tenants are going to start looking for other places and we are going to start losing our tenants. It will be just like the other end of Commerce Street from Mulberry Street west. You will have the same thing happen from Mulberry Street east.

Mr. Meyer Zemel, 826 South 13th Street: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I have listened very patiently to all the previous speakers. Like everything else, it all simmers down to dollars and cents. If the basic value of that market is $5,000,000 and you are going to receive $200,000 a year in rental, that is four per cent. on the money, isn't it? Very true. That just about pays the taxes on it. I think that there were some bonds floated to build that market. I don't know whether they were pledged at four and a half, four and three-quarters, or five per cent., but as a property owner and one of the sufferers right in Newark, New Jersey, I have to pay six per cent. for money and almost four per cent. for taxes. The ridiculously low price that you will lease this market for bodes no good for the taxpayer in the future. Four per cent. on $5,000,000. Just imagine. Mr. Howe wisely remarked that property owners want an exorbitant price for their property. That is true, but Mr. Howe is a property owner. The Mayor is a property owner. Can you carry a property at four per cent? I can't. No other citizen can. Why should these people get an under-advantage over every citizen in Newark, New Jersey. Four per cent. and taxes—

Commissioner Howe: For how long four per cent

Mr. Meyer Zemel: For how long four per cent?

Commissioner Howe: Yes.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: If you do me an injustice for a day it is an injustice still.

Mayor Congleton: You are overlooking one important factor. This lease does not run at four per cent. They are under obligation to build buildings to cost not less than $5,000,000 upon which they will pay the same taxes as you pay.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: When? Sometime in the future?

Mayor Congleton: From the time the buildings are erected.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Yes, some time in the future.

Mayor Congleton: The time at which they shall erect is specified.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Four or five or six years, and give them a chance to get out. They are putting up $100,000 and they are going to collect $33,000 in commissions which leaves $67,000 stuck in with the city. What a fine city that is, leasing away $5,-000,000 worth of the citizens' hard earned money. You still can't convince me.'

Gentlemen, I am an old newsboy. I started out in 1888 when I was six years ago. I remember the old market. I remember when there were plenty of vacant stands there, but as the population of our city increased the market became too small. The men that conceived the idea of that market conceived it for the future as well as for the present. While we do run it probably at a loss and there may be plenty of vacant stands, we picture the city of Newark coming into the million class and now closely approaching a half million. I strongly urge you to disregard this entire proposition. This isn't the time for this thing. There is a time and place for everything. The City of Newark can not at this time lease away this proposition. I think it is four or five years until these people are obliged to build anything.

Mayor Congleton: They are obligated to spend a million dollars immediately and pay taxes on the building that is there

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Will that even it? If you get $10,000 more on your million, will that pay? How much more is that?

Commissioner Howe: You know that the rent goes on up to five hundred and six hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: All right, but tomorrow may never come to me, Mr. Howe.

Commissioner Howe: And in addition there are the taxes on the buildings.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: They are paying no ground taxes.

Commissioner Howe: We are running it now at an annual deficit.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Does Bamberger pay a ground tax? Does the Prudential pay? Does every property owner pay ground tax? These people are getting away with their ground tax? What for?

Commissioner Howe: Do you know any city, county, state, or national land, that pays taxes? Do you think that we ought to change the law in this case?

Mr. Meyer Zemel: We haven't any reasons to give that away at this time, under certain circumstances.

Commissioner Howe: This wasn't done in a day; this proposition has had months and months of consideration.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: We have been around here all the time watching. On the original proposal, if you recollect, if your memory serves you right, I was here and my brothers were here and other property owners were here right in this room.

Commissioner Howe: Why don't you take it up? You are a wise fellow.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: I don't think it is for any citizen to take it up. I think the City of Newark should carry it. Gentlemen, you know that as soon as you start handing over these tenants to private interests the rents will increase and people will start moving out. Our tenants are restless now. We will suffer a loss. We will come back to you Commissioners to decrease our taxes. You are in no mood to do it. I know you can't do it with the present improvements. We approve of them. We approve of Port Newark. We approve of your station. We approve of everything. Newark must go ahead. Newark must provide work for its citizens, but, gentlemen, this is a very poor proposition to take up, especially at this time.

Mayor Congleton: I just want to call your attention to this fact: I may be mistaken in my recollection, because it is seven years ago. I had charge of the acquiring of all of the land that now constitutes the market site. My recollection is that the land cost something less than two and a half million dollars and that is what the city paid for it. Of course, at six per cent. on that we are getting in the land rent. We are getting more than six per cent. of the value that we paid for the land, and the buildings that will be built on the property will be treated exactly the same as yours and mine, which will make for an addition to the rutables.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: I understand that the improvements cost close to five million.

Mayor Congleton: The building cost, as I recall, $2,400,000. The land cost in the neighborhood of $2,500,000.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: There is five million dollars.

Mayor Congleton: We are leasing the land and the buildings upon it are going to be treated just the same as your buildings and my buildings so that you can't talk about a four per cent return on the property.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: But, gentlement, previous property in Newark, New Jersey enhanced in value, so you can't take it that way. If that was worth $5,000,000 in 1930, in my humble opinion it has at least appreciated to seven and a half million. You may take it any way you like. Figures don't lie. You can not rent any proposition at four per cent. Without figuring that you have a bond issue. You have got to pay for it. No property owner can go to work and run his properties without paying interest in his mortgage which is practically a bond issue. He has got to pay his taxes, insurance, water, and repairs. You can not befog the issue. The city has got a pretty poor bargain here. As a matter of fact, every citizen will lose.

Mayor Congleton: I want to state this: That no municipal market in the City of Newark—and I am speaking now of the old one—was ever self sustaining as long as there were any bonds outstanding. When I was in the Common Council there was a bond issue outstanding and in order to meet the interest on the bonds we had to resort to direct taxation and place in our tax budget, a sum sufficient to meet that. I think that the time has come when it is not the function of a city as large as ours to maintain one center market. If you are going into the Market business, there should be smaller markets scattered around in the congested parts of the city, because the masses can not get to this market.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: As long as you are talking about self-sustaining propositions, is the water department self-sustaining?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, sir. It brought in a half a million dollars of profit.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Is Port Newark self-sustaining?

Mayor Congleton: No, sir, but we hope it to be.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Does the License Division sustain itself?

Commissioner Brennan: Yes, sir.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Does the Taxing Division?

Mayor Congleton: Why, of course not. It is service being rendered.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: We have profitable divisions and we have divisions that lose money. The City of Newark is duty bound to maintain them and the City of Newark is duty bound as a duty to all its citizens to maintain that Market.

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Zemel and his brother have raised twenty-nine points in their discussion. They were wrong in twenty-eight. They were only right in one. Almost every argument presented by Mr. Zemel, the lawyer, was wrong. The Mayor has corrected him in a number. I could correct him in the rest, but what is the use?

Mr. Zemel has property down there which is leased out to commission merchants. He is afraid that if this Market is done away with he will lose tenants who are now in his property on Commerce Street. The City of Newark is very anxious to clean up that whole district north of Market Street between the Pennsylvania Railroad and Broad Street. As has been stated time and again, we are looking forward to the day when that district will become a great office building and financial district. The Pennsylvania Railroad is building to the east, intending to spend some twelve millions of dollars there for improvements. Lefcourt is going to spend probably ten million dollars on the west. The National Newark and Essex Banking Company is spending some three to five million dollars on the west. The Public Service is extending its buildings on the west.

Located between all these improvements we have the Center Market, which for many years past has been more of a detriment than a benefit to the City. The City has thought out the whole situation. It wishes to go along with those who are ready to spend many millions of dollars in these vast improvements. Now, I know and everybody else knows that the sidewalk stands, the chicken markets, the meat markets, and all the similar businesses, while of a legitimate character, create a great nuisance. They bring to that section a lot of filth and dirt that can never be cleaned out. If all those commission houses and poultry markets stay there with all the junk and dirt and filth that is in the section, the property can never be devoted to anything like the needs of a high class section.

When the Pennsylvania Railroad finishes its magnificent structure on the east, it will cost, with all the appurtenances, something like $12,000,000. On this side, the west, the private owners, when all is finished, will have spent about $20,000,000 more for greater improvements. In spite of that, Mr. Zemel would have the City continue the present condition in the center of all these vast improvements, which would be a detriment to everything.

Here the city has an opportunity to transform this section into a beautiful office building and mercantile district, but Mr. Zemel thinks that the commission houses, the chicken markets, the slaughter houses, and all the sidewalk stands ought to remain there for all eternity. They won't remain. They are going.

Mr. Zemel thinks that we ought to take the Farmers' Market and put it on top of the Center Market, to keep it there forever. He wrote me to that effect sometime ago. If we did this, that section would always remain the kind of section it now is, a section that has in it the worst ramshackle buildings in the City of Newark, buildings that are so ancient that even Mr. Zemel can not remember when they were built. These ramshackle buildings the eye-sores, and all the filth and dirt there has to be cleaned out. That is the reason for leasing the Center Market.

In regards to the return to the City: The four per cent. that has been mentioned is another one of the twenty-nine points that have been misrepresented. The City of Newark has there today a property, excluding the part that is going to be taken away for the station plaza, that is valued by real estate experts at $4,000,000.

Along comes a group of substantial business men who have been successful in life, who represent combined assets, valued at some two and a half million dollars, who will put up $100,000 in cold cash, and who agree to take off the city's hands immediately a white elephant that is costing us some $170,000 a year. That is the amount we are losing. These men have agreed to pay $200,000 a year rent for four years. That $200,000 is more than to pay the carrying charges on the Market. They have agreed to operate the Center Market for three or four years and to allow the present stand holders to remain there, so they are not going to be thrown on their heads, as Mr. Zemel has said.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: What guarantee have you on the rent?

Commissioner Gillen: They agree to guarantee the rents on their personal responsibility.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: I mean on the raising of the rents of the present tenants.

Commissioner Gillen: There is a guarantee. They will not be allowed to raise rents. The tenants will be allowed to remain there under present conditions. That is all in the lease and will all be taken care of by me, your humble servant.

It is a funny thing to me. Two weeks from now we will have here a budget of $21,000,000. The City of Newark is going to spend $21,000,000, which fact is going to be advertised in the press. I will make a bet now that neither Mr. Zemel nor anyone else in Newark will come in and criticize that budget. The City of Newark, is going to spend $21,000,000 from which there will be no return, but the very moment we take a piece of land owned by the City, a piece of land worth $4,000,000 and we receive on it an offer from a group of responsible men to come in and spend $20,000,000 in fifty years, and, on top of that, to pay increased taxes the aggrieved property owners come in and say that they do not want that to be done. They do not want the City to make $20,000,000, but it is all right for the City to spend $21,000,000. The very moment that the City has an opportunity to get some money back they protest. I say that that is all wrong.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Gentlemen: I have always thought and I still believe that the Commissioners here were elected by a majority of the people and that the people chose wisely and well. The people have elected you and repose confidence in your ability to spend their money wisely and right.

Commissioner Gillen: But you are not content to have us make any.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: I have always had confidence in all the commissioners, that all of you gentlemen conduct your departments properly. When Commissioner Gillen says this section is an eye-sore, that it is a hell-hole with all the slaughter houses down there, we are amenable to the law. We are good citizens. If there is anything wrong, if you send anybody down there and tell us to improve it, we will comply with your will.

No, sir, I never thought that the Commissioners, especially Mr. Gillen, had the right to instill fear and distress into the taxpayers' hearts, by having all their tenants upset by the entire thing. I always felt it was the duty of the Commissioners to instill confidence, and it is a wrong idea that Commissioner Gillen has got about losing his tenants. You are a real estate man. Would you like to lose your tenants? Can you replace them today? We need them. We could not pay your taxes and we could not pay interest on the mortgages, we could not pay the water or the upkeep without the tenants. We are here with our backs to the wall.

We are fighting your proposition as honest men, and I still maintain and insist that no four per cent. proposition will properly and adequately compensate the City for that market.

Gentlemen I strongly urge you to disregard the thing for this time. Let it wait. Newark has a great future. You think well enough of it to help along with the railroad. You think well enough of it to help along with the fast line railway and the depot and Port Newark. Why hurry? There is a time and place for everything. This is no time to lease that market. If it is leased now, every citizen in Newark will suffer.

Mr. Herman Z. Baum, 834 South 13th Street: Gentlemen, I am against leasing the market at this time. As my colleague said, if the City wants to lease it and must lease it—I don't think as Commissioner Gillen said, that they are going to spend millions of dollars there, that they should have an arena there. If you must lease it, lease it to some concern that will not build an arena. An arena is not the kind of thing we want around there. It won't bring the right kind of things around there. With all these office buildings around the arena is not the right kind of thing to have there. That is all that I have to say.

Mayor Congleton: Does any other person desire to say anything?

Mr. Nathan Goldsmith, 60 Park Place: I do not agree with the previous speaker with regard to the question of dollars and cents at this particular time. I am inclined to agree with Director Gillen, with regard to the picture that he has painted regarding the change in that section. You have made a good start, I think, with the Lefcourt Building. Whatever the rent may be, it is certainly enhancing the property in the immediate locality. The only thought that I want to leave with you gentlemen is that you carry out and continue that picture. If you are convinced beyond a shadow of doubt that the corporation to whom you are now going to lease the market can carry out such projects that will conform with the start that you have made, I am heartily in favor of your entering into such a lease. You have made a good start on this city property. It is up to you gentlemen to give consideration to whether the people to whom you are leasing can and will continue what you have started. I think that it is timely to change the picture of that whole section, as the Commissioner has laid it out. The only thought that I want to leave with you is that if you continue along these lines, regardless of what rents you get at the present time, all the property in that section will benefit, if not immediately, in a very short time.

Mayor Congleton: Does any other person desire to be heard?

(No response.)

Mayor Congleton: I just want to say one further word and then I shall be through with the proposition. The Board of Commissioners unanimously agreed weeks ago, not in executive session, but in open meeting, by a solemn resolution passed and referred to in the newspapers, that we were in favor of abandoning the Market and leasing the property. Proposals for the property were advertised for publicly. I think full page ads or halfpage ads appeared in our local papers. Not until now, when we are about to consummate a deal, has there been any protest against that proposition. It seems to me that the protests come very late in the day.

Commissioner Brennan moved to adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Kowe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

APPROVED:

JEROME T. CONGLETON
W. J. BRENNAN
JOHN HOWE
CHARLES P. GILLEN
JNO. F. MURRAY, JR.

W. J. EGAN,
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., January 22, 1930.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of January 15th were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "Zoning Ordinance of the City of Newark," adopted January 8, 1930, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Richard Otto, 810 Broad Street: Gentlemen of the Board, at the meeting when the ordinance was taken up originally I appeared here with reference to a piece of property at Clinton Avenue and South 14th Street. I asked for an extension of the zone to cover the entire plot, so that apartment houses and business buildings could be constructed there.

Commissioner Murray: Where is it on 14th Street?

Mr. Otto: Northwest corner.

Mayor Congleton: It has been taken care of.

Mr. Otto: It has been taken care of to the extent of 50 feet. Unfortunately, our property is a little deeper.

Mayor Congleton: We can't make this ordinance apply to each particular piece of property. We have extended it to 50 feet. If your lot happens to be longer than that you will have to come and ask for a variation of the ordinance, which undoubtedly will be granted to meet your particular case and other particular cases. We can't, however, draw this ordinance to meet each particular piece of property. We felt that 150 feet was a proper depth to arrive at as a general proposition, but that does not deprive you of your right to come in and ask to have your lot taken in.

Does anyone else desire to be heard on this zoning ordinance?

(No response.)

No one else appearing, Commissioner Brennan moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Brennan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Peter J. Lombardi, 37 Seventh Avenue: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I am here in behalf of a group of property owners along Seventh Avenue on both sides, number 52 out of 70 owners and representing a frontage of 2,740 feet out of possibly 4,000 including the Seventh Avenue School which is city property, in the Second Precinct. I do not want to create the impression that we are against this improvement as a whole, but we do ask this Commission to give up a little more time under present conditions. We have flats empty, stores empty, and rent is hard to collect. Therefore, we think that we are not in a position to meet the paving bill that would be assessed against us if this ordinance went through at the present time.

Furthermore, in order to show that we are whole-heartedly in favor of improvements in our section, we only ask an extension of probably two years, and that when that period is up Seventh Avenue be paved, including the following improvements—eliminate all telegraph, telephone and electric poles—

Mayor Congleton: You are asking us to do something over which we have no jurisdiction. The companies are under contract to put two miles of their wires underground each year, and they are way ahead of their schedule. They are working from the center out and they have a right to select whatever neighborhood they please.

Mr. Lombardi: I believe that within a period of a year or two years the Commission will be in a position to arrange with the company to put these poles under ground.

Mayor Congleton: No, we can't. They can go from where they started and work their way out.

Mr. Lombardi: Well, we are in favor of these improvements, but we just want it delayed for two years. We are not against it. That is all I wanted to tell you.

Mayor Congleton: Of course, this is a very old pavement, you know. It was in 1893 that it was laid. It is a very hard street to keep dressed up and cleaned at all, because of the type of pavement. I suggest that we lay it over for two weeks.

Mr. Lombardi: As I stated before, I do not want to create the impression that we are against any improvements at all, because I am only a very small owner of property. I am simply here to represent the rest of the owners.

Mr. Lombardi then filed a petition signed by fifty-five property owners.

Commissioner Brennan moved that the ordinance be laid over until February 5th.

Section 1. All other matters in respect to such temporary bonds or notes shall be determined by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Finance who is hereby authorized to execute and issue said bonds or notes.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Abe Sternbach for a gasoline station at 73 Elizabeth Avenue; approved on condition that the maximum amount of gasoline stored on the premises is not to exceed 1000 gallons, that a fireproof wall be erected between the filling station and the stores to the south, and that an automatic sprinkler system be installed in the garage in the rear of the filling station;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. Jacob L. Newman, 810 Broad Street.

I merely desire to make a statement. I have spoken to the Law Department, about these premises. I believe that it is a matter that is not discretionary with the Board. It is a matter in which I have a positive legal right to have it granted, because of the pre-existing use of this place as a gasoline station. If you differ with me, with all respect for this Board and the City Counsel who has rendered his opinion, why? I have no other redress but take the matter up in the courts.

Mayor Congleton: The mere fact that gas was sold there before, Mr. Newman—I don't quite go along with you—is no reason why they should be allowed to sell gas there again. You want to conduct a business in a manner that will call for two drives in over Elizabeth Avenue, right next to a moving picture theatre, where large numbers of people congregate daily. It seems to me that if the Zoning law means anything at all in referring to this body for its approval, one of the important factors that we are bound to take into consideration is the safety of the public. They have the right of the use of the sidewalks.

Mr. Newman: I understand your point of view, but I differ with it. It is a matter for you to decide, of course, in your wisdom. I do not see any need for argument on the matter, because we have gone over it several times.

Mayor Congleton: I only wanted to make my position clear.

Mr. Newman: Of course, you understand—I want this on the record—but there is no objection to this from any outsider.

Mayor Congleton: The resolution is to concur in the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment approving the erection of this gasoline station. The clerk will call the roll.

Board of Adjustment
City of Newark, N. J.

January 16, 1930.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:-

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted varying the zoning ordinance and granting the application of the Peerless Oil Company for the construction of a gasoline station, premises 1249-1253 Broad Street, northwest corner of Pionier Street.

Plans for this building were denied by the Building Department, December 30, 1929, and an appeal filed with the Board of Adjustment January 6, 1930.

A public hearing on the appeal was ordered for January 16th at which time neither the applicant nor any objectors appeared. This company now operates a gasoline station on the south east corner of Frelinghuysen Avenue and Poinier Street, and because the proposed widening of Pionier Street will take much of the property now under lease to them they are seeking a new location in the neighborhood. Mr. John H. Yauch, Jr., appeared as counsel for N. Drake & Sons, owners of the Frelinghuysen Avenue corner. He stated that if the Peerless Oil Company obtained a new location, the Drake Company would erect an addition to its warehouse on what remained of the Frelinghuysen Avenue property after Poinier Street was widened.

There is no church, school, or similar institution within 200 feet.

The application was granted by a vote of four to one, Mr. Lehman voting in the negative.

THE BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT
R. B. Rankin, Secretary

Other gasoline stations in the neighborhood are as follows:

1237 Broad Street, N. W. cor Vanderpool, granted March 1, 1928.

Broad & Poinier, (S. E. cor.), antedates amendment of Dec. 1927, excluding gasoline stations from Industrial Zones.

1210 Broad St., (S. E. cor. Wright) granted before 1924.

Poinier Street and Pennsylvania Avenue (N. E. cor.) has been denied twice: April 19, 1928, and October 17, 1929.

Order filed.

Mayor Congleton: In that matter I wanted to suggest to my colleagues the suspension of our rule laying the matter over for two weeks, for the following reasons. This is not the granting of an additional station; it is the moving of a station from the corner of Poinier Street and Frelinghuysen Avenue at the corner that we are widening to the corner of Broad Street and Poinier. The Board of Adjustment has recommended it and there have been no objections. It is holding up a City improvement. I would like to ask the Board to suspend the rules and act upon it now. I might further add that the continuance of the gas station at Frelinghuysen Avenue and Poinier Street is holding up improvements of over a half million dollars. Two weeks in that case means quite some time.

Does anyone desire to be heard on the matter?

Commissioner Murray: I move that we suspend the rules and take action upon this now.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gilen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Peerless Oil Company for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 1249-1253 Broad Street; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gilen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The following communications were received and read:

January 16, 1930.

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark.

Gentlemen:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted varying the Zoning Ordinance and granting the application of Anthony Carracino for the construction of a gasoline station at premises 560/566 Frelinghuysen Avenue.

Plans for this building were denied by the Building Department and an appeal filed with the Board of Adjustment November 6, 1929.

A public hearing on the appeal was ordered for November 21, 1929. On this date and on December 5 Mr. Maurice J. Zucker, counsel for the applicant, obtained adjournment. No objectors were present at either meeting.

On December 19, Mr. Zucker presented the written consent from Dr. Edward Weston. He explained that the station would occupy the land fronting on Haynes Avenue between Frelinghuysen Avenue and Meeker Avenues for a depth of 100 feet and that the station was so laid out that when the city widened Haynes Avenue the buildings would not be damaged. He agreed to waive damages to improvements in the event of street widening. In the absence of definite information on the proposed new width of Haynes Avenue the matter was laid over.

On January 2, 1930, Mr. Zucker was again present and asked the Board to grant the application on condition that no part of the station would be erected within the new lines of Haynes Avenue. He also agreed not to do any building until the new lines were established. The Board decided that further study was needed and the matter was again laid over.

This application was before the new Board of Adjustment on January 16, 1930, at which time Mr. Zucker presented plans showing the new location of the station based on the proposed widening of Haynes Avenue.

The application was granted by unanimous vote on condition that the owner would not hold the City liable for damages due to street improvements to any buildings he might erect.

Other gasoline stations in the vicinity are as follows:

495/505 Frelinghuysen Avenue,
granted October 4, 1928.

511/513 Frelinghuysen Avenue, denied October 18, 1929.

511/513 Frelinghuysen Avenue,
granted November 15, 1928.

Frelinghuysen and Dayton, Antedated jurisdiction of Board of Adjustment.

Frelinghuysen and Meeker (SE cor.) Antedated jurisdiction of Board of Adjustment.

In accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, it is respectfully recommended that the above structure be allowed.

R. B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Received; further action deferred until February 5. Copies to be sent to each Commissioner.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted varying the zoning ordinance and granting the application of the I. N. L. Building and Loan Association to use part of the building at 47-49 Pierce Street for a commercial garage.

This application was filed with the Board of Adjustment January 2, 1930, on appeal from the refusal of the Administrative Officer to permit a commercial garage in the same block with a public meeting hall, the rear end of Newark Labor Lyceum being almost directly across the street.

A public hearing on the appeal was ordered for January 16th, at which time a representative of the Building and Loan Association, owner of the premises, was present. He explained that the building had been leased to the Society Club Beverage Company, who desired to keep their delivery trucks on the premises. Five objectors were present, most of whom withdrew their opposition when the lessee's representative agreed to operate the plant only between the hours of 7 A. M. and 6 P. M.

The application was granted by unanimous vote of the Board on condition that no night work be conducted at the plant.

In accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, it is respectfully recommended that the above use be allowed.

The Board of Adjustment,

R. B. Rankin,
Secretary.

Received; further action deferred to February 5. Copies to be sent to each Commissioner.

This application was filed with the Board of Adjustment January 4th on appeal from the refusal of the Administrative Officer to permit manufacturing in a Second Business District.

A public hearing on the appeal was ordered for January 16th, at which time the owner was represented by his counsel, Mr. Joerg. No objectors were present.

The application was granted by a vote of four to one, Mr. Pashkow voting in the negative.

Secretary.

Received; further action deferred until February 5, 1930. Copies to be sent to each Commissioner.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:

On October 16, 1929, your honorable body adopted a resolution concurring in the action of the Board of Adjustment approving my application for an open air parking station at 1021 Broad Street. At that time approval was given for ninety days on condition that the driveway from Broad Street be not more than 10 feet in width and that all cars leave by way of Beecher Street. In view of the fact that the period of ninety days has expired I hereby earnestly petition your Board to grant an extension of this permit for such period and under whatever conditions you desire to impose.

Alphonse J. Schlegel.

Commissioner Murray: That is the case, Mr. Mayor, where it was agreed that a certain ornamental front fence would be erected, that there would be one entrance from Broad Street and four exits by way of Beecher Street. Nothing has been done. They have stuck a sign up there—"Parking 25c." If these people promise to do things in order to get a permit, they should live up to their promises and not have their permit extended.

Mr. Alphonse J. Schlegel, 1021 Broad Street.

Gentlemen, it is not a question of not wanting to do it; it is a question of not having the money. Business has been slow, but I am in a position now to go right ahead with it.

Commissioner Murray: I move that Mr. Schlegel be given 30 days in which to comply with the agreements he made with the Commission before. He brought a sketch here, a profile of the ornamental fence which would relieve the unsightly condition and the view that you get from the street of some of these parking stations, and pledged to erect that within three months. He asks for an extension now. I move that he be granted 30 days to see if he does it. If he does it within that time and lives up to the agreement, he can be given further consideration.

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, by resolution adopted October 16, 1929, concurred in the action of the Board of Adjustment in granting a permit to Alphonse J. Schlegel for an open air parking station at 1021 Broad Street for a period of ninety days, and under certain other conditions set forth therein; and

WHEREAS, the period of ninety days has expired; therefore be it

RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, that an extension of thirty days be and it is hereby granted to the said Alphonse J. Schlegel, on condition that he erect a fence along the Broad Street frontage of the premises in question.

Newark City Commissioners,
City Hall,
Newark, New Jersey.

Gentlemen:

I have been informed that your Commission has passed an ordinance that no boy could sell the Ladies' Home Journal or other papers unless he was 12 years of age.

I don't see how you can pass an ordinance that is retroactive. My boy, Teddy, who will be 11 years of age on February 18th next, has been selling the Ladies' Home Journal for two years. He has worked up a nice little trade and sells 20 or more each month. He has learned to keep accounts and to study business methods.

I began life myself selling newspapers in New York City before I was 10 years old, and I think I have made quite a success of life. My boy is now deprived of a self-business education, through some foolish ordinance passed by your Commission. I applied today to the Board of Education for a permit and was politely told he could not have it.

I think such an ordinance as this should be rescinded at once. Will you kindly let me have your reaction on this matter at once, or at your pleasure?

Always at your service, I am

Vigorously Yours,

Dr. F. W. Collins,
Dean.

Mayor Congleton: This matter was gone into very thoroughly. I am not yet prepared to vote to repeal the ordinance.

Commissioner Brennan: I move that the communication be received and filed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gil-len, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A communication from the United Volunteer Marine Corps Reserve Company G, 2nd Battalion, 19th Regiment, extending an invitation to attend a meeting to be held on Sunday, January 26th, at 2:30 P. M. in the Council Chamber, City Hall, was received and on motion as many as can were requested to attend.

Officers Reports

The following reports of City Officers were received and ordered filed:

Overseer of the Poor for November and December, 1929.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Meyer Zemel, 826 South 13th Street, appeared and protested against the proposed lease of the Centre Market Building and Farmers' Market, and suggested that the City wait for a more opportune time to lease the property.

Mr. Nathan Goldsmith appeared before the Commission and requested information as to when the State Highway Commission will definitely pass upon Route No. 21.

Mayor Congleton stated he made inquiries and he was unable to get any information that the line of Route 21 is to be changed, and as late as this morning the engineers' recommendation was that Route 21 stay as it is, as they have adopted it.

Mr. C. H. Bishop, 204 Miller Street, appeared and presented the following communication:

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners:

Just a few words in behalf of citizens and tax payers of Newark relative to the necessity of a Farmers' Market. Of course, as you all know we have an established precedent of a great many years standing of having had a place within the confines of the City of Newark for the local farmers to distribute the various fruits and vegetables peculiar to our location.

We wish to state that as citizens primarily, and also as experienced handlers of fruit and vegetables, otherwise known as Commission Merchants, we feel the necessity of having a market for the Local Farmers to reach the consumer with the least possible handling and the quickest transition from grower to consumer. For various reasons it is good business to reach the consumer as quickly as possible with perishable commodities, and while it is true that the Commission Merchants supply Newark and vicinity with goods of that nature from distant points, the local farmer has the advantage of delivering without the refrigerating process necessary to bringing the same class of products from distant points, consequently a tendency to keeping prices at lowest level.

Would also call attention to the fact that the administration by the City of Newark of Farmers' Market has always been an income to the City of Newark. I have been told on authority the last year's farmers' receipts surpassed expenditures by more than $13,000.00, rather a good paying proposition, considering the more essential point of giving our citizens the products of food at first-hands without adding to the cost of production through refrigeration and handling charges, necessary from distant points. Would also say for the time which our Farmers operate it has a tendency to keep prices down on account of no intervening charges from grower to consumer. I know of no large or medium-sized city in the United States or Europe, for that matter, that does not support a local farmers' market, and I am pleased to say I have visited numbers of them in this country and Europe.

I cannot elaborate on the technical points, as I am not well enough posted, but it seems to me with all cities of the world favoring a farmers' market there must be good and sufficient reason for such maintenance.

In a conversation with some of the local growers recently, it was said by them that in the event of Newark not providing a stand for them they would be compelled to go to Paterson or New York City. Do we want this condition to arise for our local farmer not to be able to market his produce in the 14th largest city of the United States, but be compelled to drive round or through it to dispose of his edibles. We hope not, gentlemen, and its up to you to see that they do not.

Very truly yours,

C. H. Bishop,
204 Miller Street.

Ordered referred to Commissioner Gillen.

John H. Van Riper, J. S. Hagaman, 205 Miller Street; Roscoe De Baun and John A. Gill, 215 Miller Street, appeared and requested that the Farmers' Market be established in the vicinity of the present commission merchants.

Mayor Congleton: The matter will be taken up in conference by the Commissioners.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the agreement between the City of Newark and David Ripley & Sons, W. Frank Hopping, Inc., a corporation, covering lease of two (2) acres more or less at Port Newark Terminal, for ten (10) years, from April 1, 1930, to April 1, 1940, a copy of which agreement dated November 27th, 1929, hereto is annexed, be and the same hereby is approved, and the Director of the Department of Public Affairs and the City Clerk hereby are authorized and directed to execute the same on the part of the City of Newark upon the adoption of this resolution.

Newark, N. J., January 29, 1930.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 10 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Brennan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Gillen.

Mayor Congleton: The time fixed by resolution for a public hearing on the municipal budget has arrived. We are now ready to go into the hearing. Does anyone desire to be heard?

Mr. Ralph H. Lum, Griffith Building.

May it please your Honor and members of the Commission, I am going to speak with reference to the high principles—

Mayor Congleton: Mr Lum, do you mind if we first read a letter that we have received, so that you may have that before you to refer to when you speak?

The following communication was received and read:

Charles Basile
Counsellor-at-Law, Newark, N. J.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor, City of Newark,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

My dear Mayor Congleton:

According to newspaper accounts, I find that the City Commission has included in the City Tax Budget for 1930 the sum of ninety thousand ($90,000.00) dollars, appropriated for the purpose of certain hospitals in the City of Newark; and being of the opinion that this action is illegal, I am writing this letter to you protesting against the inclusion of said appropriation in the budget. As I am scheduled to appear at Trenton in the Federal Court on Wednesday next at the time that the public hearing is to be heard with reference to the budget, this communication is sent to you with the hope that you will bring it to the attention of your fellow Commissioners.

At the outset, I wish to make it clear, that my objection to the inclusion of the ninety thousand ($90,000.00) dollars in the City Budget is not based upon any animosity toward the Welfare Federation or the personnel of the Committee which appeared before the City Commission asking for the appropriation; as a matter of fact, I am in great sympathy with its activities and I trust I may be pardoned if I say my charitable inclinations and sympathies have always been toward the assistance of such worthy objects, and in this last drive, members of my family helped to solicit funds.

Nor do I wish to deprecate the worthiness of the institutions intended to be benefited; but my objection is based solely upon the fact that what is here attempted is in direct violation of the fundamental law of this State as provided under Sections 19 and 20 of the State Constitution as follows:

Article 1, Section 19—"No county, city, borough, town, township or village shall hereafter give any money or property or loan its money or credit, to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, or become security for or be directly or indirectly the owner of any stock or bonds of any association or corporation."

Section 20—"No donation of land or appropriation of money shall be made by the State or any municipal corporation to or for the use of any society, association or corporation whatever."

The original constitution provides no such prohibition as above quoted, but experience evidently dictated the necessity for such provisions, for sections 19 and 20 were subsequently added as amendments.

The law prohibiting the making of any donation of money or property to any society, individual or corporation, being part of our constitution, no municipal body has a right to include an appropriation of this kind in the tax budget, no matter how worthy the object; and, if the City Commission feels that such things should be done, then it should first seek repeal of the law and not proceed illegally.

Sections 19 and 20 of the Constitution have been interpreted in the case of Morris and Essex Railroad vs. Newark, etc., 76 New Jersey Law, page 555, and in Jersey City vs. Railroad, 78 New Jersey Law, 72-73 Atlantic 609.

In the first case the question there decided was whether or not the City of Newark could abrogate an agreement executed with the Railroad Company providing for the elevation and depression of tracks to avoid dangers to life, etc., which agreement was entered into by virtue of the authority given the City by the law approved March 20, 1901, Pamphlet page 116, Justice Vren-denburgh rendering the opinion, the gist of which, was that there was a consideration for the contract, the Railroad Company having ceded certain rights of way and abutting property.

In the latter case of Jersey City vs. Railroad which was decided in the Supreme Court of this State a year later, Justice Swayze in rendering the opinion denied the right of a municipal corporation to release a private corporation from an obligation to pay license fees and differentiated between a municipal corporation and an individual or private persons with reference to an estoppel; but he goes further and also announces the rule that "The doubt has never been whether such an act required express legislative authority but whether it was even within the power of the Legislature to authorize such a donation. Since the decision in Loan Association vs. Topeka, 20 Wall 655, it has been thought beyond the power of the Legislature itself to authorize municipal aid to private corporations and certainly such aid has been impossible since the amendments to our Constitution in 1875, Sections 19-20.

I have also reviewed the law, Chapter 249, Laws of 1929, page 462 and find that this law applies to Counties having less than 500,000 population, and question whether or not this is constitutional, in view of the foregoing; but even if it is constitutional, it does not seem to apply to Cities.

In view of what is herein outlined, does the City Commission intend to keep this appropriation in the budget?

It would also seem, that by asking the Commissioners for such appropriations, those urging it, have spelled the doom of the Community Chest, for the logical reaction will be, "Why donate to the Chest, when the City is providing for it."

Trusting that you will give this communication careful consideration and assuring you that the same is not intended for any purpose other than constructive criticism, I am

Sincerely yours,

Chas. Basile.

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Lum, the City Commissioners have taken the position that by leaving this amount in the budget we are not making a donation to a private or charitable institution but are buying certain service that we feel we have a right to purchase, under the law.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Lum, before you speak I should like to say something. I think that it is my place, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, to read a paragraph from a letter that I have received from the Medical Director of the Board of Trustees of the Eye and Ear Hospital. (Reading) "Our association with the City Hospital is most intimate, and we have up to the present time relieved the City Hospital of many burdens pertaining to cases that required highly technical operations and treatments in relation to our specialties, and we didn't believe in a duplication of special equipment, which is very expensive and which would be used too infrequently—this not being conducive to the highest efficiency.

"But because of ever increasing numbers of indigent sick residents of the City of Newark requiring such treatment, we took our stand on the necessity of an enlarged City Hospital to remove from our shoulders the weight of an expensive and constantly increasing burden."

Mr. Lum: I read with much interest the Mayor's observations yesterday and I have heard with much interest the extract from the letter of Dr. Eagleton. I am here merely to express the view of many scores of our leading citizens, who have asked me to express to the Commission their very great appreciation of what it has done and their realization of your conviction, foresight, and courage under the present circumstances, where we all know that we are met with an increase in taxes and a decrease in ratables. Many of the citizens I have spoken of would have been here today, but they feel that there is no need under the circumstances of doing any more than having someone express to you our very great appreciation.

The Mayor, of course, is absolutely correct in his reply to the criticisms of the young gentleman who seems to desire publicity at the expense of even the sick and destitute and even the health of our entire City, the cases he has cited you may realize, have no more application to the present situation than a citation of cranberries and oysters.

The reference in the letter, which I had read in the press before hearing it here today, to the dumping of the Community Chest is also apparently a very ill-advised consideration, which I will speak of very briefly. The efforts were made to raise the money to take care of the health and welfare of the character building agencies of our City, of the day nurseries, and of all that goes with the 56 agencies that are in the chest have been. I say, a tremendously extensive work. We have had voluntary co-operation without hope of material reward of a great army of magnificent men and women, who have done wonderful work each year.

We have met with the fact that the need for help has been so very great that the budget for the hospitals had to be met in the first instance, even though it meant a denial of the $1,000, to the Boy Scouts, where it was tremendously needed. That need of the health, as I say, which was considered first had prevented the aiding of many other things, which should have been done.

You are recognizing a tremendous emergency that exists here. The failure to do this would mean a serious curtailment in all the work of every one of these agencies. I say advisedly that there is no way in which there could be a possible calculation of the immeasurable good that you gentlemen have done by writing this item into the budget. I say that the blessings of the entire community and the sincere appreciation and very high regard of all the heads of all the agencies and boards of the 56 rest with you for your efforts. We thank you most sincerely. There are many here who would be glad of the opportunity to speak, but they could repeat this same message in different words. Again I wish to most sincerely thank you.

Mr. Richard Hartshorne, 9 Clinton Street: I am interested in the letter of Mr. Basile, who cites the case of Loan Association vs. Topeka, because unless I am very much mistaken I taught Mr. Basile the case of the Loan Association against Topeka in Law School. That case is one that has no bearing, or a very indirect one, upon the case at hand, it is a case of a city donating money to a factory. Yours is a case of a city saving the lives of its citizens. Nothing could be more clearly within the police power of a city than that. If, therefore, as the Mayor has stated, the money is to be appropriated to purchase medical and surgical care for the lives of the citizens, there can hardly be a question of the legality of it, assuming, of course, that City can enter into contracts, which it does every day of the week. It is a matter, therefore, we submit, of a purely legal duty that you gentlemen are performing on behalf of the citizens generally, who are assisting otherwise in the care of the lives of the citizens.

We congratulate the Commission upon performing their duty in a proper and generous way.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard? As long as we are talking about the hospital situation we may as well clear it up. Does anyone else desire to speak on that particular item?

Mr. Meyer Zemel, 826 So. 13th Street: Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, I too, as one of your humble citizens and taxpayers, want to support every word that the previous two speakers have said. This is for a good cause. There is no reason to criticize the Commission for making that donation.

Mayor Congleton: Does any one else desire to be heard on this particular item? If not, we will pass to the next matter.

Mr. G. W. Gehin, 786 Broad Street: Gentlemen of the Commission, the Municipal Affairs Committee of the Newark Chamber of Commerce, as you probably know, have had the data sheets, or some of them, for two or three days, in order to go into this matter as carefully as it could. I might say, in line with the hope that we saw expressed in the newspapers by the Commissioners that the citizenry in general would go into this thing and come down here to pass their comments. That is the spirit in which we would like, if we may be permitted, to read this report.

The City Clerk then read the following communication:

Chamber of Commerce of the
City of Newark, N. J.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

On behalf of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Newark, its Committee on Municipal Affairs submits the following in connection with the municipal budget for the year 1930, and the preparation of budgets for subsequent years.

To analyze each particular item making up the budget and pass upon its necessity is a task which cannot be accomplished by this Committee in the time available between the issuance of the official figures and this hearing. However, it is not necessary to make such an itemized check in order to form a basis for the general recommendations submitted herewith.

In the light of conditions which now confront the taxpayer, it is proper to say that among the budget items there are certain ones which should be reconsidered. Reference is made to the appropriation for fifty additional policemen, the cost of erecting a new police station, and the item of shade trees. The Committee questions these items at this particular time and urges their elimination or revision downward.

The effort on the part of the Tax Board to make up largely by increases in assessment on centrally located real estate, the ratables lost through depreciation in the value of securities held by financial institutions, is believed to be unsound. The loss in ratables is presumably temporary, and it is submitted that an increase in the tax rate for the current year spreading this loss over all taxpayers is a fairer method than placing the greater part of the burden on owners of central properties. It is further submitted that the reassessment is unwise because of the advancement of the bonded debt limit, as such increase in assessed valuation causes the taxpayers of the City of Newark to assume an ever greater proportion of the State Tax, to the financial detriment of Newark and the financial benefit of twenty counties.

The occasional financing of the cost of equipment for replacement and normal expansion is again decried. It should be possible to anticipate replacement and normal expansion equipment requirements, making it possible to carry such items in the tax budget. The item of $700,000 as interest on temporary loan bonds as shown in the budget is evidence of the burden of this unsound practice is helping to produce. This item of interest being six times the sum expended for the same purpose in 1925, points to a practice which must be curbed.

This Committee is aware of the fact that a considerable proportion of the items included in the present budget are mandatory in nature. Many such items, however, are mandatory this year because of commitments made in previous years. It is urged that a long term public works program be developed, paralleled by a financial program which will set forth the future bond commitments or requirements therefor.

Other mandatory items as the result of State legislation, could have been avoided if the municipalities affected had voiced their opposition to the legislation at the time. Therefore, it is suggested that the City Commission scrutinize all legislative bills and actively oppose those which in the judgment of the Commission are not in harmony with the principle of Home Rule.

A perusal of the budget fails to indicate any item of expense or income for the Water Department. Irrespective of the fact that the Water Department is self-sustaining, its maintenance and operation is an item of expense and all items in connection with it should be subject to the scrutiny of the taxpayer.

In this same connection a copy of the budget advertised in local newspapers is misleading, in that net operating costs are shown rather than a complete statement of expenses and income.

This occurs in the item of House Sewer Connections in the Department of Public Affairs, where the appropriation in the advertised budget is $1,500, although the amount contemplated to be spent is $70,240, against which is applied collections amounting to $65,740. Such budgeting does not give the taxpayer a true picture of the total cost of his government. The fact that the law requires fees or collections from certain items to be applied to certain specific accounts does not remove the obligation on the part of the City Commissioners to fully inform the taxpayer, and it is urged that such procedure be adopted for future budgets.

It is also urged that in the future the conferences of the Commission at which the preliminary work on the budget is done be open to the public and that suitable notification be given thereof. As has been pointed out, the present method has not allowed time for study. Open conferences for budget making purposes will also give the taxpayer a greater knowledge of the conditions underlying the published budget, thereby stimulating greater public interest and insuring more intelligent participation in its preparation.

Without regard to the actual necessity for the number of employees now on the municipal payroll, this Committee notes with pleasure that the Commissioners do not appear to have recommended any wholesale increases in salaries. Such commendable action of course will be vitiated if increases are made by resolution during the year.

The public is entitled to rely on the fact that the items of salaries appearing in the budget are those which will be paid during the current year. The custom of granting increases during the year should be discontinued and surplus revenue from other items should remain surplus revenue and not be used for salary increases not contemplated in the budget.

It may appear that the total sum involved in the budget represents a normal increase in view of the growth of the City, but such assumption cannot be sound unless the budget truly reflects all items of expense as well as all income, and unless comparison is made with costs of operation in years when the City's affairs were more economically administered. There is room for great improvement in this regard and the same services can be furnished to the taxpayer at greatly decreased costs. A study by your Commission of the cost of cleaning public buildings as compared with those operated privately, will convince you on this point.

There never is a time to spend money wastefully, but there are times when even wise expenditure of public funds becomes burdensome to the taxpayer. Such time has now arrived, and while this Committee does not advocate the abandonment or delay of major municipal projects which are now in process, we do urge that every effort be made by the City Commission to reduce this budget below its present awesome total.

A table entitled "Comparative Tax Rates" of 235 cities over 30,000 population for 1929, published in the National Municipal Review of December, 1929, shows that Newark leads all the cities, which include New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, Buffalo, Milwaukee and Cincinnati in its tax rate—a final adjusted tax rate being $3.80 against $2.32 for New York, $2.66 for Buffalo, $2.44 for Rochester. If one takes exception to the adjustment necessary to compile such a table, we refer you to the American City Magazine for February, 1929, in which the cost of City Governments for the year 1927 as taken from the Report of the Bureau of the Census, of the United States Department of Commerce, is enumerated, which shows that Newark has a per capita levy for the government of the City of $58.92 and a per capita levy for all purposes of $66.87, and is exceeded in per capita levy for all purposes by only New York City, Detroit, Boston, Jersey City and Miami.

The same authority shows that Newark with a per capita governmental cost for expenses of all general municipal departments in 1927 of $57.08 is third highest of 33 listed cities, being exceeded only by Boston, Mass., with a per capita cost of $62.81 and Buffalo, N. Y., with a per capita cost of $58.02. This figure of $57.08 for Newark contrasted with $54.87 for New York; $40.68 for Philadelphia; $28.42 for New Orleans, gives some idea of the alarming increase in the cost of our municipal government.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Newark, N. J., by its Municipal Affairs Committee.

G. W. Gehin,
Chairman.

ATTEST:

E. W. Wollmuth,
Executive Vice-President.

January 29th, 1930.

Ordered filed.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor, I would like to answer Mr. Gehin on the question of the Broad Street taxes being increased. I have made inquiry of the Tax Board—and it is their power, not mine, to fix those taxes—and learned that the increase in taxes includes sections as far south as the Bay Bridge, Thomas Street, South Street, and that section, Frelinghuysen Avenue and certain sections of Vailsburg. I personally took up the question of this section of Broad Street and they were satisfied that the lower end of Broad Street was not ready for an increase, and increases were modified in many instances.

Mr. Gehin: I think that is so. That is the reason why we have said that it was made up largely of central property.

Commissioner Howe: Another thing that you have spoken of is the temporary loan bonds. You are a financial man and you must know that it has been impossible to get money under six per cent. Every city is carrying along temporary loan bonds. Money expended for temporary loan bonds was for only a few months — well, let us say for even six months or a year. Had we issued before the issue of bonds that we are going to issue next month, it would have had to be at a rate of at least one per cent. higher than we will sell them for next month, for a period ranging from twenty to forty years. You will readily see that it is a wise thing to borrow money on temporary loan bonds.

Mr. Gehin: But the point we stress is that by a comparison of the increase from year to year for the last five years an increase of six times for the last five years is shown.

Mayor Congleton: We have increased our improvements.

Mr. Gehin: Of course.

Mayor Congleton: That is the way they are financed until they are completed. When paving a street we have to finance it during its entire period of construction until the assessment Commissioners have levied the assessment for benefits. That is the way we have to raise money to pay the contractors.

Mr. Gehin: Isn't it possible sometimes to defer these things until the money can be raised?

Mayor Congleton: Defer what improvements?

Mr. Gehin: The paving of the streets for this big Port Newark project.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Gehin, the procedure for a municipal improvement such as the paving of a street, the widening of a street, or the building of a sewer is defined by law. We must first introduce the ordinance. Upon its passage a contract is let for the work, the ordinance carrying an appropriation. Every ordinance provides for the temporary financing of that improvement. Temporary bonds are issued. Until, as I have said, the Assessment Commission has made its assessment for benefits against the abutting properties or the property improved, we have no money coming in. Meanwhile the improvement must be financed by a temporary loan.

Now, the $700,000 interest on Temporary Loans, not only includes those items, but also the interest on unpaid taxes and unpaid assessments. As Commissioner Howe informed us the other day, on December 1, when the second half of the 1929 taxes went into arrears, there were ten millions of unpaid taxes. That money has been used for our last year's expenditures, and until those people pay up their taxes they have to be carried on tax revenue notes. That is what goes in to make up this $700,000 of interest on temporary notes. In addition to that, the amount also includes interest on the notes that have been issued until such time as we can sell permanent bonds, which we are advertising now, for work on the City Railway and every other large City improvement. Until such time as the market is ripe for the sale of permanent bonds, these improvements must be carried on temporary notes.

Mr. Gehin: I appreciate that, Mr. Mayor, but at the same time, the fact does remain that $700,000 for one year's interest on temporary loan bonds is a very considerable item. I am not enough of a city expert to know whether it is possible to reduce that, but I do think that it is well worth very serious study to see if it is possible to reduce the charge for temporary financing. $700,000 is a whole year's interest at six per cent. on nearly $12,000,000. That is a lot of money to carry on a temporary arrangement. It may be necessary that that be gone into very carefully.

Mayor Congleton: It has been gone into. It has been given very careful study. I think that sometime in February the Commissioner will have a sale of permanent bonds running in the neighborhood of $11,000,000. These temporary bonds have been taken up, but I don't think that you or any other banker would have advised selling anything but temporary bonds during the last year.

Commissioner Brennan: I would like to comment for a moment on your suggestion that the fifty additional patrolmen provided for in the budget of the Department of Safety, be for the time being, at least, discontinued. For your information, Mr. Gehin, the Ironbound Manufacturers have been for a period of two years constantly pleading for additional men and protection in the Ironbound District.

Mr. Gehin: Yes, sir, I know that is so.

Commissioner Brennan: They have asked for a hundred men, which is impossible now. If conditions were ripe, however, I think there should be a hundred instead of fifty included in the budget to give the patrol protection down there that is accorded to other sections of the City, which protection can only be by the employment of the additional men.

Mr. Gehin: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Brennan: If it is attempted to give protection as requested by the Manufacturers and Citizens in the so-called Ironbound District without the additional men, it will only deprive other sections of the city of the protection of which they claim they have not sufficient now. Now, with fifty additional men it is impossible to get along in the present stations. In other words, it would be impossible to have a system there in the station below the railroad whereby their hourly calls can be recorded and taken in from the desk ticker unless an additional one is put in, which will cost in the neighborhood of $40,000 and would be only a temporary makeshift at the best. It was thought, therefore, that it would be better at this time to build a small station with the layout so that it can be enlarged upon as necessity requires and to spend the money on installing a new desk and bigger system in the Third Precinct, which is about four and a half to five miles from the lower end of the City.

Mayor Congleton: On City owned property.

Commissioner Brennan: Yes, the station is intended to be built on city owned property so as to keep its cost as nearly to the minimum as it is possible and to pare down the expense. It is very true that we could take that amount out of the budget for the Department of Public Safety, but then there could not be given to the citizens of the Ironbound District that protection which they are, after various surveys, pleading and insisting upon, which, after their last appearance before us I am in accord with, because of the extension of industry down there and limited patrol protection that has been accorded them under our present conditions. The protection cannot be improved upon without additional men and places whereby they can be properly organized as a branch of the Department.

Mr. Gehin: Well, of course, in general practice the thing that is usually done is to make comparisons. When you find out if one thing is relatively more satisfactory than another, you try to make comparisons. I have a table here, which, I understand, is taken from a census report which shows some particularly interesting things. According to my information, we have in Newark a population of 485,000 and we have 1,102 police officers. That may be a few out of the way either way, but it is approximately right. Now, here is the City of Cleveland -

Mayor Congleton: Between what two large cities is the city you are going to compare ours with?

Mr. Gehin: I was just proceeding, Mr. Mayor, to show that in Cleveland with a population of 1,057,000, they have 1,075 policemen, if this report is correct. Take Oakland with 356,000, they have 331 policemen. In Cincinnati, which is a pretty tough town, with a population of 450,000; they have 465 police officers.

Commissioner Brennan: In relation to Oakland, Mr. Gehin, do you know over one-half of the police patrol in either Oakland or San Francisco is provided by a privately owned agency and paid for by the property owners?

Mr. Gehin: No, I didn't. That, of course, is true. We have some of that, but besides, if they don't have as many officers they don't pay for it either, and that is to their advantage. Here we do pay for it. Another interesting city is Washington. We have all been to Washington. They have to have a lot of policemen in the parks and public buildings and so on. They have a population of 542,000 with 1,161 police officers despite the fact that there are public buildings and circles and things of that sort, which are very well policed. The only comparisons, are those we get from what we presume are properly constituted sources. I may be wrong, however.

Commissioner Brennan: There is one thing that draws upon the police Department of Newark more than it does upon any other city, which I presume any citizen can see, and that is the traffic situation. We are the gateway, you might say, to New York City to the east, as well as to the west. We have to utilize more men on traffic duty than any other city I know of to keep traffic moving. At the same time we have to protect some dangerous intersections in the vicinity of schools. If it were possible to assign all the men that are requested by citizens, including mothers and otherwise, there could be a thousand and more men added to that particular branch of it, and still, I believe, there would be more demands.

Commissioner Murray: Mr. Gehin, when you refer to the population of the City of Newark and the number of policemen, do you give any credit to the Department for the fact that the City of Newark in daylight hours carries the burden of about twenty or twenty-one municipalities outside Newark that function in this city all day long?

Mr. Gehin: As far as traffic goes?

Commissioner Murray: As far as traffic goes, and general regulation. When there is trouble in these sections the trouble makers come into Newark. The Newark police have to take care of them. In day light everyone of our highways leading into our city from other municipalities and counties and leading out from our city to other municipalities and counties are filled up constantly, in and out, all of which has to be supervised by the Newark police. That, naturally calls for a tremendous number of traffic men, in order to conserve life and run the affairs of the Department in a satisfactory way.

Mr. Gehin: We have no doubt that that is the reason for the unfavorable comparison that Newark makes with other cities.

Commissioner Murray: Unless you get a city that is geographically located as we are, taking on the burden of the traffic of surrounding country, and being, as Commissioner Brennan has said, the gateway in and out of New York, a comparison should not be made. It stands to reason that we must bear the burden of very heavy traffic.

Mr. Gehin: That is very true. Take Baltimore, however. There is a situation somewhat similar to that of Newark. The streets are narrow and there is tremendous traffic there. We in Newark do not appreciate the number of automobiles that go to Washington to see the City. There are thousands of them every day. Baltimore's traffic problem must be quite as large as ours, and it is well handled. They have a population of 844,000 and have 1,350 policemen. Now, if you compare our 485,000 population with Baltimore's 844,000 and our 1,102 policemen with Baltimore's 1,350, you will find that we are eighteen per cent. ahead of them with our police.

Commissioner Brennan: I appreciate that fact that we are ahead of any city of our size in the proportion of police to the population, but, as I am trying to explain, the cause of that is that we have almost 400 men on traffic duty, despite the many dollars that we are spending to try to alleviate it somewhat by signal lights and otherwise.

Mr. Gehin: I think that is going to help a lot.

Commissioner Brennan: It matters not how many lights or how many signals you may have, it is necessary, we have found, to have a man in uniform on duty, in order to keep traffic moving.

Mr. Gehin: We admit that we have a serious problem here, but we do hope that you will continue as you have done and try to keep it down, and maybe you can get it down a little.

Mayor Congleton: There are one or two other things that you have spoken of, as to which I should like to correct your impression. You have made some reference about an increase in salaries and have expressed the thought that we would not use the surplus revenue for that. That can not be done and has never yet been done for any salary increase. The funds must come out of the budget as we have made it up. If any surplus revenue comes in in excess of the amount that we have appropriated it can not be used by us. It is kept in hand and is used the following year to reduce the amount to be raised by taxation, exactly the same as we are using $911,000 this year.

Mr. Gehin: Let us hope that there is a lot left over then, so that we can cut out some next year.

Mayor Congleton: You have made a reference to this being an unusual year in ratables. I think you ought to be informed that the loss in ratables that we have sustained through the large insurance companies is going to be pretty much the same next year as it is this year, and I think you should know.

Mr. Gehin: $27,000,000 approximately.

Mayor Congleton: $27,000,000. Under the law, these large companies, make a return for taxing purposes. One of the important items is the market value of their securities as of the December 31 preceding the October that we use. The reason why we have had this big drop this year is that the companies carry bonds very extensively, and the bond market was down on December 31, 1928 because of the fact that everybody who could do so was throwing his money into the stock market. Now, the bond market on December 31 of this year was not any too good, either, or perhaps no better than it was in December, 1928, so that that is the figure that the insurance companies will use when they come to make up their tax returns to us next year.

Mr. Gehin: But the opinion is—and I think I voice it correctly—that bonds will more than come back into their own very shortly.

Mayor Congleton: It won't make any difference; the value will have been fixed.

Mr. Gehin: Isn't it possible to fix it subsequently, when they change their values?

Mayor Congleton: When they make their return to us as of October 1st next year they will, under the law, give the value of the securities as December 31, 1929. Those are the ratables that we will be dealing with when we take up our budget next year.

Mr. Gehin: But in the following years, if the bonds are up the values will come up.

Mayor Congleton: In 1932 yes. If bonds are up next December it will be reflected in the returns when we are dealing with the budget for 1932.

Mr. Gehin: We ought to think of that now. We ought to think in anticipation of two years. Two years isn't such a terribly long time in municipal matters.

Mayor Congleton: To anticipate what?

Mr. Gehin: To anticipate the return of values.

Mayor Congleton: Based upon what?

Mr. Gehin: I don't know.

Mayor Congleton: We can not postpone the Pennsylvania Railroad improvement; we are committed to it. We cannot postpone our share of route 21; we are committed to it. We cannot postpone the City Railway; we are committed to it.

Mr. E. W. Wollmuth, 24 Branford Place: I should like to interrupt here to say, with reference to what Mr. Gehin has been saying, that our efforts here are not in the nature of criticism, but merely to offer suggestions as to how we think certain items can be reduced.

Mayor Congleton: We understand that it is not criticism. We have invited you, and everybody else, here to make suggestions. That is what we want.

Mr. Wollmuth: Perhaps moratorium could be declared to some extent with respect to certain plans in connection with Port Newark. The widening of streets not absolutely essential at this time, but in the program of that department, could perhaps, also be deferred without any great danger to the best interests of the City, I think.

Mr. Gehin: Isn't it a fact that after all what the citizens of Newark are interested in is this: That all the time they will pay their money for taxes. Now, we know that there has been a gradual and general improvement in living conditions. Everybody is more comfortable, now than they were a few years ago. We admit that. The individual, however, feels that cost too much. I represent, as you know, considerably properties on Broad Street, and I tell you that it is difficult for us to raise the rents fast enough to keep up with the taxes that are increased continually. There is a limit. Go along Broad Street and what do you see? More stores and second floors with "To Let" signs in them than you have seen in any year since 1919. The owners cannot rent the stores for anything less than they are asking, because if they do they will have to dig into their own pockets to make up the difference. That is the point that we are trying to as anxious to get things done as you are, but certainly the man in the street is the one who feels the burden.

Mayor Congleton: In that respect, let me tell you my viewpoint of that. Newark is a very small place. The merchants that you represent are constantly after us to do these things, so that they can bring in the people from the outlying districts. If the merchants want these improvements made and they cannot devise some way of having the other parts of Essex County or our immediate adjoining neighbors bear some part of the burden, your taxes are going to go up.

Mr. Gehin: That is unquestionable.

Mayor Congleton: I do not recall that anyone came here to say that we should not go ahead with the City Railway, with the Pennsylvania Railroad improvements, and with many of the other large improvements which are not made just for the people of Newark. For instance, the widening of the streets that you have referred to would not be necessary if they were for the use of only our community. When you speak of that,—you must bear in mind that we have over twenty-six millions of people alone going to the Hudson and Manhattan Tube trains every year, great numbers of which come from outside the City of Newark. The merchants here are urging us to widen this street and that street to bring the people in to trade with them. I have great hopes that the Commission that is working under authority of the Legislature on what they call intermunicipal improvements, will find some way to help relieve the taxpayers of Newark of the entire burden. This question of letting it go year after year is what we have been confronted with for the last several years. That policy was followed. Things were not done. When this great mass came in on us, we had to go ahead, at the urgent request of the merchants and taxpayers of Newark to meet the condition. Until we have rebuilt our city and have widened our streets, I don't see how taxes are going to be reduced very much.

Mr. Gehin: Well, certainly we have to pay for the expenditures that we have contracted for, but I should just like to say that I know that the people of Newark would appreciate every single cent that you can keep the tax rate down.

Mayor Congleton: We want to do that, too.

Mr. Gehin: A cent does not mean very much, so when you multiply it by thousands it means a lot.

Mayor Congleton: There is one further thing I want to speak about, and that is with respect to the reference in your report to our conferences on the budget being open. They are open. No one knows that better than the association that you represent, because for several years they had representatives sitting in with us while we were making up our budgets. The doors are not closed. Everyone is welcome. Everyone may be there. For the last three years your association has not sent any one to these conferences.

Mr. Wollmuth: Mr. Brady has been exceedingly courteous. While we have been trying not to bother him more than is necessary, he has been exceedingly courteous and has given us everything that we have asked for. True, the time is short, but we have been doing the best we can.

Mayor Congleton: I am referring to the conferences that we have while we are making up the budget, to which reference has been made.

Mr. Wollmuth: The thought, Mr. Mayor, is that it would be very helpful—and that is a thought in the mind of a lot of people—if it were announced to the people that there are conferences and that they are open to the people.

Mayor Congleton: We have done that. The newspapers have carried that information and delegations have come before us.

Mr. Wollmuth: Not as to the conferences.

Mayor Congleton: Oh, yes, absolutely. The newspapers have carried the information that at certain conferences certain people were there, I want you and the rest of the public to know that we had four conferences weeks apart and that the public was there.

Mr. Wollmuth: That is fine. I didn't know that, sir. The Chamber of Commerce did have a representative sitting in for several years. I think, and then for some reason that I do not know they kept their representative away.

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Gehin, you have spoken of the increase in interest on temporary loan bonds. Let us go back three years. On December 1, 1927, there was due for taxes $4,600,000. On December 1, 1928 there was $6,400,000 and on December 1, 1929 $10,120,000. We had to get that money somewhere, and the only way to get it was by temporary loan bonds. That money is not lost, however, because while the taxes have not been paid on the first half, the people were paying from the first of June nine per cent. interest, whereas we borrowed the money for six. As you can see, a lot of that money comes back. What I want to show, however, is the reason why the interest for this year is greater than that of the other years. From the fact that in the last two years the amount due on the first of December for taxes has increased from $4,600,000 to $6,500,000 and then to $10,120,000, you can see that for this year there is more money left unpaid by the taxpayers when it should be paid, and for that reason we have to continue to borrow more and more.

Mr. Wollmuth: Of course, this temporary bond interest item of $700,000 on the statement made in the committee report with respect to interest on bonds—

Commissioner Howe: But the Mayor has explained the high rate of interest. We have been compelled to borrow. That is so not only in Newark, but all over the country.

Mr. Wollmuth: Of Course, you have to have temporary loan bonds for the financing of public improvements. You can not get away from that.

Commissioner Howe: There would not have been money borrowed if we had money to pay for it.

Mr. Wollmuth: You mean in the bank?

Commissioner Howe: I mean in the bank. In addition to that, there were hundreds of thousands of dollars due to the City for grading and paving. People took advantage of the law, under which they are entitled to make five payments over four years.

Mayor Congleton: While that $700,- appears as an expenditure a large part of it comes back to us, because if a person takes five payments to pay his paving assessment, he is paying on each installment six per cent. up to that paid date and also on unpaid balance, and that interest is taken up in the surplus revenue and appropriated.

Commissioner Howe: If the taxpayers fail to pay taxes between the period of April 15 and December 31, we have to have money to run the City. The taxpayer, however, is paying interest at the rate of nine per cent. so that we are not losing any money on it and the money is not wasted.

Mr. Wollmuth: One of the great difficulties of public administration is to meet with the demands of this, and the other person, for all the demands that are made by the public, that is true; but there is a very great danger of what we are heading for. I am not speaking of here, but I am speaking generally to the effect of mortgaging the future. No one knows that better than you do gentlemen right around this table. It is that plus these other things that the general public, and the taxpayers are thinking about; there isn't any question about it. You Gentlemen here are informed about that too.

Mayor Congleton: Just as long as we are at the hub of the wheel and are the center of the outlying districts--

Mr. Wollmuth: It might pay to be selfish.

Mayor Congleton: Then, the merchants will be after us saying that trade is going to someone else—to New York. Perhaps we can work out some scheme whereby we won't be contributing money for the benefit of somebody else.

Mr. Wollmuth: I think there is one other point to be made. While check-ups and surveys cost money, nevertheless in the long run by means of them it is very frequently possible to bring about better organization and save money. One very helpful thing, that could be done would be to have a practical check-up made. There isn't any question—referring to the comparisons between our city and other cities with respect to police protection, police supervision, and traffic control—that our condition is so much different than it is in Cleveland. Cleveland has its suburb. It has its through traffic quite as heavy as we have it here. A check-up will prove that. Baltimore, which Mr. Gehin has referred to, has a comparable situation. Unquestionably there is reason to believe there is justification for a check-up. Now, things grow. We know they grow in private organizations as well as public organizations a pyramiding process takes place until such time as somebody comes in and checks-up. That is natural in private business, and it can be well applied to public business. It can be applied to this well known situation with respect to the capable police protection that we have here, because taking all the other collateral things in mind, we still show up very high in police cost. It is undeniable.

Mayor Congleton: There is no denying the fact that we are higher but I don't know of any city in the United States that has the situation that we have. We have as one of our suburbs New York City, if you please a suburb, where 26,000,000 people a year use just one station in Newark to go to New York to earn a livelihood and come back. I do not know of any city that has a condition like that. When you add to that the other stations, you will see what we have to take care of.

Mr. Wollmuth: Those things have all been taken into account when the check-up and survey was made.

Mayor Congleton: Not in the schedule you read as a schedule of comparisons.

Mr. Wollmuth: Yes, those things are all taken into account.

Mayor Congleton: No, not when you take population and divide it by the number of police.

Mr. Wollmuth: We have taken areas. Areas are counted in that comparison. Certainly there is justification for a check-up to find out where we can save. We can not keep on adding more and more policemen. The real estate in town simply will not stand for the additional expense, the way values are now. With new building coming up in town, the competitive situation is so stiff that you cannot raise the rentals per square foot any more.

Commissioner Howe: The only relief you can get is to go to Trenton. They added eight points to the tax rate when they took away from us the assessment on automobiles.

Mr. Wollmuth: That was right. There was a double assessment there.

Commissioner Howe: That is right. What has happened? $10,000,000 are paid into the State Treasury, according to Senator Pierson, I guess, for gas. $2,100,000 of that came back to the counties. The great County of Essex received $100,000, yet we are paying on the road tax $866,000 this year, and for agencies and institutions just one half of that, yet we get $100,000.

Mayor Congleton: Cape May and Burlington and those other counties down there get as much as we do.

Mr. Wollmuth: That is an unfair condition, there is no doubt about it. Can't you go down to Trenton and correct that?

Commissioner Howe: I have attended the meetings that have been attended by the Director of Finance of Jersey City, the Mayor of Bloomfield, the Mayor of Paterson, the Director of Finance of Camden, and others. There was a committee of twenty represented.

Mayor Congleton: You know where the majority of the votes are in the Senate, don't you?

Mr. Wollmuth: Yes, that is the right answer.

Commissioner Howe: Five North North Jersey Counties pay 70 per cent. of the taxes, yet we have five senators and the rest of the counties have sixteen.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Mr. Meyer Zemel: Mr. Mayor and Directors, the mountains trembled and produced a mouse! I am going to ask you a very pertinent question: Who caught and produced the evidence to convict the Lee murderers yesterday? Mr. Brennan's Police Department (Applause). The City of Newark, which is mine and everybody's here, is freer of crime than any city in the country. Figure it out for yourself. New York City has a Baumes law, where they give criminals life after the third or fourth offense. We are the dumping ground, and that is what Mr. Brennan has tried to cope with. I am no defender of his. The people said last May that they reposed confidence in his ability to run that department and run it right. I am really ashamed of myself that I cannot come here and ask for fifty more policemen for that man. I know the condition in police headquarters, where some of the men work fourteen, sixteen and sometimes twenty-four hours without sleep. They are producers. They made Newark safe for you and for me, and they make it a better place to live in. Now you want to tie his hands by telling him that Cincinnati, Cleveland, and some other jerkwater towns—compare it to Newark, New Jersey! Almighty in the heavens! The fire Department? Well, I am truly proud of the record they made in 1929. You can not criticize it. His License Department? No scandal, no graft, nobody working for nothing. Its cost has been cut down to a minimum. His Building Department? The most efficient in the country. Yet, you criticize him. Well, Commissioner Brennan, I assure you, as one of your humble citizens, that I have a word of praise for you. Well, I am glad that they did not criticize Commissioner Murray. I wonder if they could get a few people out of the City Hospital to keep down the budget. I wonder if they could get a few out of the Alms House and get some fellow out of the City Hospital for a few weeks. Maybe they could take a few out of the Convalescent Home, or maybe they could keep a quarter of ton of coal from the Overseer of the Poor to distribute. I will tell you the trouble. The majority of the Chamber of Commerce do not live in Newark. While their pockets are in Newark, their hearts are not here, yet they have the nerve to come down here and criticize us. They didn't tell you to stop the big projects. Go ahead. God be with you. I am with you. Mr. Howe, I want to tell them that I have known you long before you were in the City Hall.

Commissioner Howe: That is some time.

Mr. Zemel: Yes, yes, yes, true, and you have handled the proposition in the Tax Board and you are now at the head of the Department of Revenue and Finance, I guess finishing your seventh or eighth year. I have not heard any newspapers or man criticize you, yet you have handled,—I don't know, I guess God knows how many millions of dollars. I guess they repose confidence in you. I haven't a word to say against this budget. I pay my share of taxes. They are paid. No matter how I get to it, gentlemen, I assure you I get it honestly. They haven't got the water? Let them move to Irvington and East Orange. I have said to them, "Go to East Orange or to Irvington." The water up there is terrible, nothing to it. I find out that more and more people are sending their children to Irvington or Newark. Why? The Board of Education does not demand the same high standards in the suburban towns. Your health, that you can't pay for with money, ain't as sacred in other as it is in Newark, New Jersey, under our Mr. Murray. We have Port Newark. We have our diamond in the rough. It must be cut. It must be polished. It is already bringing in some revenue, but it isn't enough to carry itself, all those things enter into your tax rate. Before you raise a child you must first nurse him along, then he starts creeping, walking, and talking. You send him to school. Then after he graduates from school he becomes a producer. That is what all these things are. They are only in their infancy. We are visioning a greater Newark. It is becoming better every day.

Then they talk about the tax rate along Broad Street. Mr. Gehin, who in Newark, New Jersey, do you know who will sell his property along Broad Street for what it is assessed for tax purposes? Do you know of anybody? Newark is very decent. They are liberal. They have done the right thing. I recollect back when Jacob Haussling took office as Mayor—the late Mayor Jacob Haussling—God be good to him—after Doremus went out. I think the tax rate was approaching close to $3 under Henry Doremus. When Mr. Haussling appointed his tax board—Mr. Howe was one of them—they reduced the rate to $1.76, but what did they do? They had to jack up the ratables. Now, what do you want? Do you want the City re-assessed? I think it ought to be, myself. I think every person in Newark, New Jersey should pay the portion of taxes that belongs to the City of Newark, honestly and justly. Some of them are being treated too leniently, yet they come down here and kick. Thank you gentlemen.

Mayor Congleton: Does any one else desire to be heard?

Mr. O. Henry Gois, 704 South 14th Street: I am not appearing here today representing organized labor, although that is the official capacity in which I function. My main object in appearing before the Board of Commissioners I am the standard bearer. Sometimes we study what we hear and then we form our own opinions. This budget lacks one thing that we are vitally interested in. We believe in the elevation of the workingman. We believe there is no better thing that can be done than to give the workingman of the City of Newark that which he is legally entitled to. That refers specifically to the police and firemen of the City of Newark. They are not included in this budget for a raise. We know the hardships that have been imposed upon the Director of Public Safety by eliminating the raise. We know that they are justly entitled to a raise. We know that any man working continuously at the same craft without any future in store for him except just the ordinary life of a cop for the rest of his years until he is retired, with no opportunity to advance himself and to put himself in that social world, where he can gain the prominence that we business men or professional men can gain. We realize that the policemen and firemen of Newark are not adequately paid. We think that they should be better compensated. I believe that it would be an easy matter for this Board of Commissioners regardless of what the tax rate may be, to do what is right by their policemen and firemen and include at least an appropriation of $50,000 or $100,000 in their behalf.

We know that not only are the police and fire departments well taken care of in this City, but, as it has been brought out, that the Fire Department saves annually large sums in the cost of coal. Because of the way they have organized their fire department, utilizing their coal to the utmost, using the cheapest grade and getting the best amount of heat out of it, they have reflected a great saving for the citizens of Newark.

Take the Police Department. Think back twenty years ago. Well I can remember when a policeman could wear two-inch soles on his shoes and wear the shoes for months and months. Today, however, the policemen have to be fleet. He has to get around. He can not wear such heavy shoes. His clothing expense is higher. All his wearing apparel, all the way through is higher. When he gets his measly salary each week, he has to deduct from it the money for his pension, his clothes and his other expenses, and God knows, the poor copper has plenty.

I am here in behalf of these policemen and firemen through my organization to urge the Board of Commissioners to see if they can not grant them an increase, regardless of what kind of increase it may be, so as to compensate them in a better manner and make them feel contented. I am firm believer in the saying that our policemen should be like Caesar's wife—above suspicion. Our policemen are a great example of that. They are above suspicion, because they are handling their work in an efficient manner.

I want to come back to some of the words used by the President of the Chamber of Commerce. I have never agreed with the Chamber of Commerce and God knows I never will, because I represent the man and woman who toils for a livelihood and not the business or professional man. I do not usually agree with the Chamber of Commerce, but Mr. Bittles said that he is in favor of paying the highest wages that the tariff can bear. I believe that the tariff in the City of Newark can bear to pay a higher wage to the firemen and policemen. They are rightfully entitled to receive it, due to the fact that there is nothing left for them but to continue their lives in the role until they are retired, as a policeman or fireman, probably. Only one out of a thousand ever becomes a chief. The others can only become deputy chiefs, lieutenants, and captains, and so on down the line. They have nothing to do but go out and protect our lives and property.

This fact should be given consideration: I was one of the main advocates for the pay raise in the City of Harrison. There the Commissioners saw that they were entitled to it, and the citizens echoed the feeling of the Board further when they sanctioned that pay increase. The people themselves realized the work of these servants, and realized what they are doing in every way for our protection, not only our property, life and limb, but our social welfare. We can't compare our city with any other city in the world, because Newark is far too respectable to compare with any other city in the world, regardless of what other individuals may say.

I will say that since the Police and Fire Departments have been under Commissioner Brennan's care he has done everything that he could to protect the interests of the taxpayers, and he is willing now to do so. In doing so, he has not only gained the confidence and loyalty of all the men under his supervision, but he has gotten service out of that that should be compensated for in a better way.

In the Legislature a bill was introduced last year raising the salaries by thousands of dollars for the Commissioners. There was no opposition to that. I don't want you gentlemen to feel that I am trying to begrudge you your increase, but what is good for the goose is good for the gander. The police and firemen are men without a future. They should be compensated rightfully, and this is where they should be compensated. There should be an item included in that budget to take care of them.

I am only sorry that my profession does not allow me to be more intimate with them, because they are the finest people in the world. They have souls that can not speak for themselves. I say that if you want to do what is right by the citizens that you represent, that great constituency of this great cosmopolitan city, it is your duty to include an item to take care of these men, so that they may again have a wave of prosperity, as outlined by the President.

We read on the billboards that business is good. Everywhere you see billboards saying that business is good, although I have heard from the Chamber of Commerce that it is not so good. That is the proposition I want to lay before you in regard to your stalwart citizens of this City of Newark, and I hope that Director Brennan will see his way clear, as well as the rest of you Commissioners, to give them that which they are justly entitled to. "It will bring the tax rate up three or four points or whatever it is, you may say, but something should be given to these men for their faithfulness and for the fact that they have nothing ahead of them but to be a policeman or fireman for the rest of their lives.

That is all I want to say in their behalf, and I hope you will take it into consideration and give them the raise that they are entitled to.

Mr. Sigmund Bach; 818 South Orange Avenue; Gentlemen, I am here not to criticize the tax rate, not to criticize the improvements supposed to be, but what I am here for is the safety of the public in Vailsburg, especially between Munn Avenue and Central Avenue. I remember in the last three years at least twelve to fifteen men and women got run over and killed in Vailsburg section. Here is a gentleman whose brother got killed and everyone of us knows that Mr. Donnelly got killed a couple of weeks ago. The same condition happens practically every day, the same kind of accidents, which absolutely must be abolished in the interests of this section and of the life and limb of all the neighbors, in the Vailsburg Section between Munn and Central Avenue. I appeal to you to take this matter into consideration. That is a very dangerous neighborhood there. As far as traffic goes, it is plainly impossible to cross any part of South Orange Avenue between the south and north sides. This matter must be abolished somehow in the interest of everybody living in this neighborhood. For this reason I am here to appeal to you gentlemen to take this matter up and improve this condition as quick as possible. Every day it is possible to drag somebody to the grave, we have plenty of cemeteries, but we don't have to furnish them with corpses for these purposes.

Mr. Henry H. Weisman, 384 18th Avenue; Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I think that we ought to have here a little more home rule. The State Legislature down there is making quite some laws here and I suppose that it is very difficult for the gentlemen here to get over some of these things, because they have to act accordingly. Now I am not going to keep you very long here. I just want to state, after hearing some of the speakers that I have heard here, that we should try to see that Newark does not come in such a condition as Chicago is at the present time. I think a good many of you gentlemen have read in the papers about Chicago. If we got down to that condition I think it would be very sad. I don't think there would be any question of raising anything when it comes down to that point.

I trust that the Commission will try to do the best, so that we do not get to where Chicago is at the present time, because it is in a very deplorable condition, where all the working people have worked for the City of Chicago for two months and can't get any pay.

When we come down to that condition, then, I guess, it is a pretty bad one. They don't know when they are going to get paid.

I thank you very much.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: That is the ordinance on which we have had an extensive protest. We have had a protest on this ordinance signed by over seventy per cent of the property owners. We have no action to take in the matter except to kill it.

Mr. Joseph H. Gunn, 44 Branford Place: Mr. Mayor, Mr. Gay, who got up that petition is here. We would like to discuss the matter a little. Mr. Gay is a friend of mine. He is in favor of the improvement. When he got this petition he thought that it would be a hundred per cent assessment on the property owners. We have talked to him and told him that that is not the case, and he is willing, if he understands that the assessment will be what he considers fair, to withdraw that petition. Now, we all recognize the value of the improvements like Market Plaza and the Pennsylvania Plaza. Mr. Gay is now anxious to present his side of the case, so I will let him speak.

Mr. Joseph H. Gay, 20 Bruen Street: Gentlemen, while we and those on the petition felt that this improvement was not necessary, we as an individual organization down there felt that we should work with the City on what the City deems best for the community at large. We do not consider this as a local improvement. We feel that if the City deems it necessary that this goes through, which it will do eventually,—and we wanted to show a disposition to have it go through at the opportune time—that the City should stand sixty per cent of the improvement and the property owners forty per cent. The property owners, in addition to that assessment, will have to stand the expense for connection water, sewer and gas. If it is your pleasure, I say that we would desire to withdraw our request or use our influence with the other taxpayers to carry on your program. If it is deemed best that this shall lay over indefinitely, we are perfectly agreeable to it. In fact, that is our personal preference, irrespective—

Mayor Congleton: Suppose we let it lie over for two weeks until we go into the proposition of the forty and sixty per cent division and see how that strikes the other property owners?

Mr. Gay: We may say further that at this period we are having a very great depression. In fact, we have cut down our production almost to a minimum, and it is not an encouraging moment to take on any extra expense.

Mayor Congleton: Let it lie over for two weeks. I wish to say to you, Mr. Gay, that it will not go through in any manner than what you have suggested at this time, if it does go through. We will take it up.

Mr. Gay: I thank you.

If your Honor please, I have come down her to request an adjournment for one week.

Mayor Congleton: What is the purpose of the adjournment? we have adjourned it two or three times. We have all looked at it. Our minds are pretty well made up on it.

Mayor Congleton: If there is a good reason why it should be held over, we will carry it along.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Harry A. Pines, 17 Academy Street.

Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the Commission, I represent Mr. Giuliano, who in October last year leased the garage and lot adjoining that runs into Washington Street from the Yellow Taxicab Company, which had been using the house for over eleven years and using the vacant premises to drive on and store cars from time to time. Mr. Giuliano got a permit, I understand, for the garage, but neglected to get a permit for the open air end of the proposition. He was notified early in November that he would have to get a permit. So in due course he applied to the Board of Adjustment who granted the permit. He now applies for approval of it, with limitations. I explained to him just what the Commission's attitude was with reference to these open air parking stations. I happen to agree with the Commission. So I told him that it would be advisable to make application for approval because the Commission was absolutely opposed to these open air parking stations. His request now is that he be permitted to stay there until the expiration of his lease. His lease runs from October 15 until April 30, this year, with a privilege of renewal on certain conditions. He would like to have permission to stay there until April 30, when he would have the right to cancel the lease and get out. Now I feel, gentlemen, that the Commission's stand with reference to open air parking stations would not be considered inconsistent if they permitted Mr. Giuliano to stay there. Reverend Father Quirk in the church on the other side of the street assured Mr. Giuliano that he had no objection to his staying there for that period. The Globe Indemnity Company, which has a building diagonally opposite, has been having its employees use this for parking purposes. And I feel no harm could be done; the interests of the surrounding neighbors would not be hurt in any way; and the rights of the City would not be prejudiced and the position of the Commissioners would not be held to be inconsistent if Mr. Giuliano is granted this permit. It is a matter of two and a half months, and I feel that you would be giving him an opportunity to recoup some of his investment by permitting him to stay there for that time, and after that he will cancel his lease, as he has a right to.

Mayor Congleton: The land is tied up with the lease of the garage in the rear?

Mr. Pines: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: I move that be granted, with the understanding that it will be discontinued at that time.

Commissioner Brennan: I second that.

Commissioner Howe: Is your entrance across the sidewalk on Washington Street?

Mr. Pines: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: It has been there for some time.

Mr. Pines: Over eleven years, I think.

Commissioner Howe: No, sir, it has not been there at all. That is why we objected to it.

Commissioner Murray: It has been there; he has been using it.

Commissioner Howe: In and out from the other street.

Mayor Congleton: From the alley that runs across Central Avenue.

Commissioner Howe: I think we ought to have that clear. And as far as the objection of Monsignor Quirk, he is two blocks away from there.

Mayor Congleton: Oh no. He is right on the corner.

Commissioner Murray: On the south side of Central Avenue. But this place is about 125 feet north. We objected on account of the Museum and Y. W. C. A.

Commissioner Howe: He is in another block.

Mr. Pines: This limitation would make it necessary for him to get out.

Mayor Congleton: The motion is to concur in the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment, with a limitation to May 1.

Commissioner Howe: And not to take advantage of the lease.

Mayor Congleton: A temporary permit until May 1.

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Inspector of the Bureau of Combustibles and Fire Risks, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of I. N. L. Building & Loan Association to maintain a commercial garage at 47-49 Pierce Street; on condition that no night work be conducted on the premises;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment be and the same is hereby approved, and the Inspector of the Bureau of Combustibles and Fire Risks, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Jerome T. Congleton
W. J. Brennan
John Howe
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

Mr. Louis Rellis, representing I. N. L. B. & L. Association.

This application is made by the I. N. L. Building and Loan Association and the Society Beverage Club jointly, and the interest of the Building and Loan Association is that of owner of the building, and the Society Club Beverage Company is that of a proposed buyer; and pending tenant until title is closed. Now, the I. N. L. Building and Loan Association had a mortgage on this property and it was foreclosed, and the Building and Loan was obliged to take it back under foreclosure sale with the result that they have been holding the property for quite some time. The building resembling in all respects a public garage and there being no tenants for it, the place has been empty for quite some time, has brought no income, and has been a liability to the Building and Loan Association ever since it was taken over. Now, we have been extremely fortunate in getting the Society Club Beverage Company to come in and make us an offer. The building is in the light industrial section, and the chief objection to the purchaser going through is that it does not comply with the Zoning law with respect to the housing of trucks. We do not propose to use the building for a public garage. The purchaser wants to go in there and use it for the manufacture of soda water beverages; and in the conduct of their business it is necessary for them to have three or four trucks in the building. Now, they are willing to comply with all the requirements that may be made by the Bureau of Combustibles and Fire Risks by the Zoning Department with respect to the structure or change of the structure, and do all things that will enable them to go ahead with the closing of title. I earnestly request the Commissioners to consider this application favorably, because it is not a situation where somebody is trying to speculate on it and make a little money. It involves a Building and Loan Association that has about 500 shareholders.

Mayor Congleton: And they are very anxious to get out whole if they can, but we have to think of the neighboring property owners who object to a soda water plant, if they are going to work nights. I understand after the property owners raised objections you have agreed you will not conduct business there at night.

Mr. Samuel Daniels, representing Society Club Beverage Corporation.

That was stipulated on the record before the Board of Adjustment. I think that was the only objection, and we readily acquiesced in it.

Mayor Congleton: A bottling plant working nights in a great nuisance to surrounding buildings.

Mr. Rellis: There were other objections before the Zoning Board and Mr. Daniels agreed to a springler system and a wall to set apart the garage from the rest of the building.

Mr. Daniels: We stipulated we would comply with all of the requirements the Bureau of Combustibles would impose, and particularly would not do any night work.

Mayor Congleton: The resolution is to concur in the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment on condition the bottling plant is not to be operated nights.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Howe, Murrany, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Murray: You understand, of course, that after you get this plant in operation if you start to work at night the Health Department will close you down.

Mr. Daniels: We understand that. That is definitely understood.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed;

Application of Anthony Carracino for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 560-566 Frelinghuysen Avenue;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Howe moved that the application be laid over to March 5, 1930.

Mayor Congleton: Does any person have any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

The following communication was received and read:

Newark, N. J., February 5, 1930
Gentlemen of the Board:

With your kind indulgence, I wish to say that the signatures on this petition, upwards of 1000, are all absolutely authentic. No duplicates, no camouflage. Every one represents a legitimate retail dealer in fruit and produce. These are the men that actually do the work in connection with the bringing together of the wholesaler and the consumer. Their appeal to you is genuine, as they know better than we could verbally express the great convenience and help a combined market really is.

They are taking this means of reaching you individually, by their signatures and addresses, that you readily could prove or disapprove, all are hard working, reputable citizens, and they ask all the consideration you can consistently give them in matter referred to.

As to location all are in accord, farmers, commission merchants and retail dealers. We await your pleasure. I thank you.

GEORGE BLACK

Referred to conference.

Newark, N. J., January 29, 1929.

To His Honor,

The Mayor and Gentlemen of the Board of Commissioners.

The undersigned, retail dealers in fruits and vegetables of Newark and adjacent towns, wish to show their interest in having the Farmers' Market located at Miller, Wright Street and Avenue A.

The advantages of this location has already been set before you, and we feel that your co-operation is an accepted fact.

Any other location would be an utter failure and we have at Avenue A and Miller Street all the natural facilities required.

The co-ordination of the two markets is an absolute necessity and they must be combined to get best results. We must consider distance, also proximity to railroad and good roads to this point. The interest of the consuming public can be best conserved by a combined market.

The split market showed the trade a decided loss, financially and otherwise, due to the impossibility of proper co-operation on account of difference in location. The cost of locating this market at this point would be comparatively nominal and the enhancement in value of adjacent property would very soon more than repay the outlay.

We earnestly appeal for your consideration and acquiescence in our request. Would be glad to confer with you at any time, if that should be desired.

Signed by about 350 retail dealers.
Referred to conference.

Mr. George Black, 197 W. Kinney Street.

Gentlemen of the Board, I am representing the Newark Retail Dealer's Association and the adjacent towns.

Commissioner Murray: What do they deal in?

Mr. Black: Produce. The letter read as follows. (Letter appears in minutes) That is the letter from the Board. I wish to present another letter that we have 1,000 signatures here signed and the letter reads above as follows. (Letter appears in minutes).

Mayor Congleton: The matter will be received and taken up in conference. Does anyone else have any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Mr. Moses Gansler, 93 Mercer Street. Gentlemen, we are here a number of property owners in reference to the repaving of Mercer Street, and we like to express our views to the Board, but the fact it isn't necessary—

Mayor Congleton: That ordinance comes up for hearing on the 19th of February. It is not before us today. Your notice that you got, stated the 19th of February. Does any other person have any other matter to bring to our attention this morning?

Honorable Sirs:-

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted granting the application of Joseph Lacara to enlarge a public garage at 296 Lafayette Street.

Plans for this alteration were denied by the Building Department January 16, 1930, and an appeal filed with the Board of Adjustment the same day.

A public hearing on the appeal was ordered for February 4th, at which time Mr. Paul Policastro represented the owner.

No objectors were present. The alteration consists of combining two existing garages, now under one ownership, into one building, and the construction of a small addition 7 by 24 ft. The completed building will be 32 ft. wide and 50 ft. deep.

There is no church, school, or similar institution within 200 feet.

Chamber of Commerce of the City of Newark, N. J.

February 15, 1930.

To the Board of City Commissioners,
City of Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:-

In its meeting of February 13th, the Municipal Affairs Committee of the Newark Chamber of Commerce, gave consideration to pending ordinances to amend Section 436 of the Building Code and to supplement the Building Code by establishing a Board of Appeals.

The Committee is opposed to both these ordinances and believe that they should not be passed.

The Committee feels that taxpayers will be saved a considerable sum and that the result desired in the form of an appeal from rulings of the Superintendent of Buildings will be secured if the Board of Commissioners hear such appeals in much the same manner as they now handle recommendations of the Board of Adjustment.

The Committee feels that the proposal to require officers of the Building Department to devote their full time to their respective duties is a move in the right direction, but it does not go far enough, and the Committee recommends that the present amendment to Section 436 be withdrawn and that an ordinance requiring all officers and employees of the City to devote their full time to their respective offices and duties be introduced and enacted.

Very truly yours,

G. W. Gehin,
Chairman

Commissioner Murray: With the corrections in the title of the City government, I move the adoption of it.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Howe, Murray.

Commissioner Howe: Does any citizen desire to be heard or to bring anything to the attention of the Commission?

Mr. Joseph Forman, 342 Washington Street.

I had a permit issued to me for portable tanks about six months ago, and if I run out on Sunday I don't have enough gas to supply my customers. I would like to know what I can do, what steps I can take.

Commissioner Murray: Where are you

Mr. Forman: 342 Washington Street.

Commissioner Murray: Between Pearl and Hill?

Mr. Forman: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: An open-air parking station?

Mr. Forman: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Howe: Have you made application for a larger tank?

Mr. Forman: Why no. I made an application—

Commissioner Howe: You have got these portable tanks?

Commissioner Murray: He wanted to get portable tanks originally, and the information we got was that your uncle, or somebody, owns the land, isn't that so?

Mr. Forman: Not originally. I wanted to get a reserve tank because five or six cars pulled in and I would be empty.

Commissioner Murray: Your uncle owned the land, didn't he?

Mr. Forman: Yes?.

Commissioner Murray: And he was letting you have it and use it cheap so you could make a living out of it, because he could not afford to build on it at the present time?

Mr. Forman: That is right.

Commissioner Murray: How many tanks have you got there?

Mr. Forman: Two.

Commissioner Murray: Two fifty-gallon tanks?

Mr. Forman: Yes.

Commissioner Murray: You are not limited to that, are you?

Mr. Forman: Yes.

Commissioner Howe: Two or four?

Mr. Forman: I am limited to two.

Commissioner Howe: But you have four.

Mr. Forman: Yes, for oil.

Commissioner Howe: I saw four there when I stopped yesterday to let a man out of the car. I just happened to recall it.

Commissioner Murray: I didn't know he was limited to two; I thought he was just limited to portable gasoline tanks.

Mr. Forman: On the permit it says two.

Mr. Rankin: We had this case before the Board on application for a drive-in gasoline station, and that was denied, but he was given permission to have wheel tanks.

Commissioner Murray: Was he limited to two?

Mr. Rankin: I don't recall that he was limited to any number of tanks. Probably the permit issued by the Bureau of Combustibles limited it. I don't recall that we limited it to two.

Mr. Forman: The Fire Captain said it would be dangerous to have more than two around, with the cars pulling in and out and running into them and knocking them down.

Commissioner Howe: Why don't you go and call upon him first?

Commissioner Brennan: Where is the place that you keep them?

Mr. Forman: On Hill.

Commissioner Brennan: Where do you keep them, off the sidewalk?

Mr. Forman: Back off the sidewalk.

Commissioner Howe: Back about twenty-five or thirty feet yesterday when I saw them.

Mr. Forman: The Fire Captain said it would be better to have one pump or two than to have these wagons around.

Commissioner Brennan: What was the objection to the underground tank?

Mr. Rankin: Underground storage constitutes a regular gasoline station, and they did not think Washington Street was the place for a gasoline station.

Commissioner Howe: It would look better than it does now.

Commissioner Murray: If he had a gasoline tank with one pump it wouldn't do any harm. How much in a tank, 500 gallons?

Mr. Forman: I don't know what they hold.

Mr. Rankin: They run various capacities.

Commissioner Murray: How big a tank do you want?

Mr. Forman: There is two kinds of gas, high-test and low-test. I have to have two.

Commissioner Brennan: You want both kinds?

Mr. Forman: I would be satisfied with one.

Commissioner Murray: How much high-test gas do you use? You don't use ten per cent. of high-test gas as you do the other.

Mr. Forman: We use pretty near as much. A lot of people use it in the winter time.

Commissioner Howe: Why don't you go back to the Board and make application? One thing, I am pretty well satisfied you don't appear to be trying to put anything over on us.

Commissioner Murray: No, he isn't trying to do it.

Commissioner Howe: You file a new application.

Commissioner Murray: And see Mr. Rankin.

Commissioner Howe: He will tell you what to do.

Mr. Forman: All right. Thanks very much.

Commissioner Howe: Does any other citizen have any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Mr. Henry J. Sutton, of 105 Springfield Avenue, Local Organizer of the Socialist Party of Essex County, appeared and stated he had been instructed to present a resolution requesting the City Commissioners to hold an immediate public hearing and investigation into the conduct and legality of action of all concerned in the matter of breaking up a meeting of the Communist Party and arresting some of those present.

Mr. Sutton then presented the following resolution:

Socialist Party of Essex County
105 Springfield Avenue

Newark, N. J., February 19, 1930.

To the Mayor and Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Gentlemen:—

At the regular meeting of the County Committee of the Socialist Party held last evening the following resolution was unanimously adopted, viz.;

WHEREAS: Recently the police of the fourth precinct of Newark, apparently without legal warrant or authority, and in defiance of the constitutional provision of the right of assembly and free discussion, entered a hall and paid for by a recognized political party, the Communist Party, at 93 Mercer Street, breaking up a meeting then in progress and arresting some of those present;

AND WHEREAS, Judges Albano and Simandl showed bias and prejudice when, without any definite evidence of violation of law on the part of the arrested communists they not only held them for trial by grand jury, but for what would seem an unconstitutionally high and excessive bail—undoubtedly with the knowledge that, being poor men, it would be difficult, if not impossible for them to provide that bail, and putting them at a distinct disadvantage compared with wealthier citizens or professional criminals, thereby depriving them of the freedom to which they have a right until found guilty by a jury;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Socialist Party call upon the City Commissioners to hold an immediate public hearing and investigation into the conduct and legality of action of all concerned in this matter.

I therefore respectfully submit the above resolution for your consideration and the action requested.

For the Socialist Party.

H. J. Sutton,
Local Organizer.

Referred to Commissioner Brennan.

Commissioner Brennan: I move that we adjourn.

Honorable Sirs:-

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted varying the Zoning Ordinance and granting the application of Mlleage Gas Corporation to enlarge an existing gasoline station, premises 320 Washington Street.

Plans were denied by the Building Department on January 15, 1930, and an appeal filed with the Board of Adjustment February 5, 1930.

A public hearing on the appeal was ordered for February 18, 1930, at which time Mr. Samuel I. Kessler appeared as attorney for the applicant. The rear of the premises now occupied by the gasoline station is used for parking of cars and in order to facilitate the movement of cars in and out of the parking station the applicant desires to remove the present office and erect a new one on the small plot adjoining on the north. The size of this plot is 19x29 feet.

No objectors appeared at the hearing.

There is no church, school or similar institution within 200 feet.

The application was granted by unanimous vote.

Honorable Sirs:-

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted varying the Zoning Ordinance and granting the application of Grace Nitti for the construction of four additional individual garages at premises 147/9 New York Avenue.

Plans were denied by the Building Department November 22, 1929, and an appeal filed with the Board of Adjustment February 1, 1930.

A public hearing on the appeal was ordered for February 18, at which time Mr. Anthony DeCastro appeared on behalf of the owner. Mr. A. Del Guercio entered objections on behalf of the adjoining owner at 151 New York Avenue.

On the property at present are two two-story dwellings with six individual garages along the rear line. It is proposed to remove the smaller dwelling, a dilapidated structure, and erect four garages in the front part of the lot.

The application was granted by unanimous vote on condition that the garages be set back on the line of the building to be demolished (about 9 feet).

In accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L., 1928, it is respectfully recommended that the above structure be allowed.

Honorable Sirs:-

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted varying the Zoning Ordinance and granting the application of Frank Cassane to alter a dwelling to a store and construct a bake shop at 218 Parker Street.

Plans were denied by the Building Department and an appeal filed with the Board of Adjustment February 4, 1930.

A public hearing on the appeal was ordered for February 18, at which time Mr. Peter P. Adubato appeared as counsel for the owner. Mr. George De Marco, 202½ Parker Street, and Dr. Clarence S. Janifer, 208 Parker Street, appeared in person to object to the proposed bakery. Counsel for objectors filed a written protest bearing signatures of 12 property owners.

The property in question is within 25 feet of the Bloomfield Avenue business zone, and a two-story frame building on the rear of the lot has been used for manufacturing purposes. There is a store next door and garages across the street.

The application was granted by a vote of three to two; Chairman Van Duynes and Mr. Pashkow voting in the negative.

The Board of Adjustment
R. B. Rankin, Secretary

Received, copy sent to each Commissioner, further action postponed to March 12, 1930.

February 20, 1930.

Honored Gentlemen:-

At the regular meeting of this Association the report was again received "that the Public Service buses on the Avon Avenue, Springfield Avenue, South Orange and Clinton Avenue lines; and the Orange Valley Line No. 44 were in such unsanitary condition that they were a menace to the public health."

The Secretary was petitioned to write to the city officials, county, state and municipal departments of Health of Newark, Irvington and the Oranges to use their good offices to have this evil corrected, and see if something can be done to obtain immediate relief.

These methods of transportation are unventilated, overcrowded. The riders often forced to vacate the buses so dizzy that they suffer from nausea. Many complaints come to us from the wives and women as to the moral effect caused by this overcrowding. We should like your co-operation and support in correcting this evil and bring about speedy relief.

we are,

The Trades Union Anti-Tuberculosis Association.

Its Secretary

State of New Jersey
State Water Policy Commission
605 Broad Street

Newark, N. J., February 26, 1930.
To County and Municipal Officials.

Gentlemen:-

Your attention is invited to the following summary of recent legislation regarding your right and privileges in the matter of stream encroachments, as well as the authority of the State Water Policy Commission in such matters.

The State Water Policy Commission desires to assist the Counties and Municipalities in their projects for the improvement and control of streams, and, in accordance with the law, the Commission requires that the plans for such projects be submitted to it for approval.

Chapter 80, P. L. 1929, page 128, adds to Subdivisions h and j, Section 1, of Article XX, of the "Home Rule" Act, (Chapter 152, P. L. 1917, page 319) the provision that every municipality may undertake, as a local improvement: "The removal of obstructions in, and the constructing, reconstructing, enlarging or extending of any waterway, of enclosing walls, or of a pipe or conduit, or any brook or watercourse, or part of same," and, "The defining of the location and the establishing of widths, grades and elevations of any stream, creek, river or other waterway, and the preventing of encroachments upon the same."

"1. It shall be lawful for the Board of Chosen Freeholders of any County and the governing body in any municipality or municipalities located in the County to enter into an agreement whereby the board shall agree to pay to the municipality or municipalities such sums towards the improvement of a brook or watercourse as the county shall deem just and fair. The municipality or municipalities shall agree to remove obstructions from, and to construct, reconstruct, enlarge or extend a waterway or to enclose the same between walls or in a pipe or conduit on any brook or watercourse, or part of same. * * * 4. For the purpose of providing the money necessary for such contribution it shall be lawful for such county * * * to issue bonds or notes * * *."

Chapter 318, P. L. 1929, page 733, provides that: "1. Every Board of Chosen Freeholders in counties of the second class having a population of more than 220,000 and less than 400,000, shall have power and authority to expend public funds for the purpose of controlling the flow of water in all brooks and streams located in any county of this State, and to that end shall have power to construct and operate flumes, dams and other structures necessary for the control of the flow of water in said streams and brooks, and shall have power to fix a line adjacent to said streams and brooks beyond which no structure may be erected, or debris, ashes, dirt, earth or other substance deposited without the consent of said board of freeholders. * * * 2. Said board of freeholders may contract with any city, town, township or village for the proportionate cost as between the county, and said city, town, township or village of the amount necessary to do the work as herein provided; * * * provided that where the State of New Jersey has authorized the Department of Conservation and Development, or any other State agency, to undertake the work of controlling floods or drainage of wet lands, then and in event the Department of Conservation and Development or such other State agency so authorized shall have exclusive power over any such project."

Chapter 267, P. L. 1929, page 631, creates the State Water Policy Commission and transfers to this Commission the jurisdiction, powers, rights and duties of the Department of Conservation and Development over water supplies, dams and flood control.

This act provide that: "11. No. Structure within the natural and ordinary high water mark of any stream shall be made by any public authority or by any private person or corporation without notice to the Commission, and in no case without complying with such conditions as it may prescribe for preserving the channel and providing for the flow of water therein to safeguard the public against danger from the waters impounded or affected by such structures, and this prohibition shall apply to any renewal of existing structures. * * *The Commission shall have power, whenever in its judgment public safety shall so require, and after a hearing either upon its own motion or upon complaint, to make and serve an order directing any person, corporation, officer or board, constructing, maintaining or using any such structure in any of the waters of this State, to remove or repair the same within such reasonable time and in such manner as shall be specified in such order."

A pamphlet containing detailed instructions as to the method of making applications for approval of such structures has been prepared. Copies and further information will be furnished you upon request.

Very truly yours,

Morris R. Sherrerd,
Chief Engineer.

The undersigned are all within two

March 4, 1930.

The Board of Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:-

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held this day resolutions were adopted varying the Zoning Ordinance and granting the application of Elmer T. Bley for the construction of a gasoline station at 95-97 James Street, north-east corner of High Street.

Plans were denied by the Building Department January 21, 1930, and an appeal filed with the Board of Adjustment February 14th.

A public hearing on the appeal was ordered for March 4th, at which time Mr. George B. Astley appeared as counsel for the applicant. He presented a petition in favor of the application signed by the owners of twenty properties on High, James and Burnet Streets, all within 200 feet of the property in question. No objectors appeared, although seven property owners were present to voice their approval of the proposed station.

A similar application was denied by the old Board of Adjustment on June 20, 1929. At that time there was a considerable protest from neighboring property owners.

There is no church, school, or similar institution within 200 feet.

The nearest gasoline station is at High and Orange Streets.

The application was approved by a vote by three to two, Commissions O'Connor and Pashkow voting in the negative.

In accordance with Section 9, Chapter 274, P. L. 1928, it is respectfully recommended that the above structure be allowed.

also that the Board of Commissioners interest themselves in the old age pen-that if the names of any aliens who

To the Mayor and City Commissioners
of the City of Newark.

Gentlemen:-

At a meeting of the County Committee of the Socialist Party of Essex County held on Tuesday, March 4th, the following resolution was unanimously adopted, viz:

"BE IT RESOLVED, that in connection with the serious unemployment situation in Newark, the City Commissioners be requested to take the initiative, by:-

(a) In auguring an immediate survey, by a house-to-house or other systematic canvas, to ascertain the extent of involuntary unemployment, utilizing the police and fire departments and any other available agencies, including possibly the county committeemen of the respective political parties and some of the unemployed themselves capable of the work; and

(b) Proceeding to organize a citizens' committee composed of representatives of organized groups such as welfare associations, churches, trade unions, fraternal orders, political parties business mens' clubs, etc. to consider what practical immediate steps could be taken to put to work at least some of those shown by the survey to be unemployed.

Respectfully submitted for your favorable consideration.

Per H. J. Sutton

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton: In behalf of all the members of the Commission I can assure you that we are very deeply interested in the problem and that insofar as we can are proceeding with all the municipal work that it is possible to do. There is some work that we might have laid over until a later date, but in view of the unemployment we are doing everything that we can to push forward every contemplated improvement. A lot of improvements that we have initiated, however, have been vetoed by property owners, who have been affected by the very situation you speak of. In many instances they have asked to have certain work postponed a year or two years or three years because, being out of work, with all that follows, they would not be able to meet any part of even a small assessment on their properties. You see, therefore, that it works both ways and that it is a very difficult problem to deal with, but we are very much concerned about it. You and your party and all other parties and organizations may rest assured that we will do everything within our power to help out the situation.

APPROVED:

Newark, N. J., March 12, 1930.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance to provide for the repaving of East Kinney Street from New Jersey Railroad Avenue to Adams Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on the ordinance providing for the repaving of East Kinney Street?

Mr. William Wurtz, 239 East Kinney Street: Mr. Commissioners, there was a petition put in here last time for objection against it. I do not see any of them around here, although they are all against it. People complained that the taxes is high and everything and they have not paid that, and it is hard for them to get along. I thought I would come up and see what they were going to do about.

Commissioner Murray: What street is that?

Mayor Congleton: East Kinney Street from New Jersey Railroad Avenue to Adams Street.

Mr. Wurtz: I don't see any of them up here from that section.

Mayor Congleton: The only protest that we have received to date is a letter representing 25 feet.

Mr. Wurtz: Well, I didn't go around with it. They brought a petition to me, and I went around to help them clear it up. I brought the petition objecting to it the last time.

Mayor Congleton: Where is that petition, do you know?

Mr. Wurtz: I gave it to Mr. Egan.

City Clerk Egan: It has been referred to your department, Mr. Mayor.

Commissioner Brennan: I saw the petition.

Mayor Congleton: How extensively was it signed?

Commissioner Murray: How many signatures were on it?

Mr. Wurtz: Over fifty, I believe.

Mayor Congleton: I suggest that it be laid over for two weeks, until we find how heavy the protest is.

December 17, 1929

To the Board of Adjustment and the City Commissioners of the City of Newark, New Jersey.

We, the undersigned adjoining property owners, beg to state we have no objection to the erection of a gasoline service station at No. 774-780 Sanford Avenue, corner Mt. Vernon Place, Newark, N. J.

Signed by twenty-two property owners.
Ordered filed.

Commissioner Brennan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Building, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Sandford Heights Development Company for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 774-780 Sanford Avenue; on condition that the necessary permits be obtained and work commenced within 90 days.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. James F. Mooney, 443 Broad Street.

Gentlemen of the Commission, in presenting this application for a permit I want to emphasize the fact that a consent in writing of all the property owners has been obtained. The station is to be of the highest type of modern architecture and will be an improvement to the community. There is not a gas or oil station in operation on Sanford Avenue between Springfield Avenue and South Orange Avenue on the right-hand side going north. We shall offer the Commission any reasonable guarantee that all the requirements that you think desirable will be complied with. Under the new zoning ordinance this is in the business district. The old Board of Adjustment has passed favorably on this application. We are not in this for speculative purposes; it is for permanent investment.

I therefore request that the permit be granted.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard in the matter? The resolution is to concur in the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment granting the permit.

Upon roll call Commissioner Brennan and Mayor Congleton voted no; Commissioners Howe and Gillen aye.

Commissioner Murray: I move that the application be laid over for a week.

To the Honorable
Board of City Commissioners,
City Hall, Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:-

At a meeting of the above Association held Friday evening, March 7th, 1930, at the Chamber of Commerce, a resolution was unanimously adopted that we petition the City Commissioners to make provisions in the erection of a new highway (on the Morris Canal Bed) Station for an entrance and exit on Halsey Street.

Should there be any objection to the above, will you be kind enough to notify the Association, otherwise we shall take it for granted that the proposal has received your approval.

This Association is now the result of an amalgamation of the two which were formerly known as the South of Market Street and the North of Market Street Association of the property Owners and Merchants on Halsey Street.

Anticipating favorable action upon this request,

Very truly yours,

Halsey Street Association

A. J. Cozzolino, Pres.

S. J. Bell, Secretary-Treasurer

Mayor Congleton: I suggest that we notify these people to come to one of our Tuesday conferences and state more in detail their reasons for the request. Of course, if we are going to put stations at every short block we are not going to have any kind of rapid transit? Suppose that we notify them to attend our conference next week?

The Board of Commissioners of
The City of Newark, N. J.

W. J. EGAN,
City Clerk.

Newark, N. J., March 19, 1930.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Absent: Commissioner Brennan.

The minutes of the meeting of March 12, 1930, were read and approved.

Mayor Congleton: Gentlemen, the Traffic Committee, which, has been working for the City for a considerable length of time, is here, as I understand it, to present its report. We shall be very glad to have them do so now. We don't want to keep them waiting during our routine work.

Mayor's Advisory Traffic Committee

Newark, N. J., March 19, 1930.

The Honorable Jerome T. Congleton.

Mayor of the City of Newark,
New Jersey.

My Dear Mr. Mayor:-

Several months ago you created this committee to study the traffic situation in Newark and to make specific recommendations to you and the Honorable William J. Brennan, Director of Public Safety. Much time has been given to the collection of data and special studies, all of which are described in the attached report, together with some specific and detailed suggestions which are respectfully submitted for consideration.

It is with much pleasure that the committee acknowledges the cooperation given by the department stores, other retail merchants, the business men's associations, Public Service Co-ordinated Transport, independent bus operators, the Garage Owners Association, the City Transportation Supervisor, the Street Cleaning Department and the Police Department. Without this cooperation and assistance the survey would have been tremendously handicapped if it were not made possible.

Special efforts were made to present the report and recommendations briefly and concisely. But the committee desires to emphasize the necessity of giving wide publicity — through the public press, leaflets, and adequate signs—to any changes made in traffic rules and regulations so that the public will be informed and may have no opportunity to plead ignorance as an excuse for violations. The success of any traffic plan in any city requires the good will and consent of the public.

Submitted herewith are vouchers covering the expenditures authorized by your committee to date and also an estimate of such expenditures as are authorized to complete a compilation of a total of two hundred copies of this report. The total expense for the year's work covering clerical assistance, blue prints, printing and incidentals will amount approximately $4700.00.

Respectfully submitted,
William L. Mallon, Chairman

Horace A. Bonnell
Harry D. Bowman
J. Nelson Carter
William C. Fiedler
Richard Hartshorne
Claude E. Holgate
Joseph A. Hurley
Alfred D. Way,

Fred M. Rosseland, Secretary

Alfred Bates, Executive Clerk.

Referred to the Mayor.

Mr. W. L. Mallon: May I add to that letter, sir, that I would like to have you understand that this report is not the findings of one individual; it is the unanimous finding of the ten members of the committee. There was no dissenting vote when the final report was approved at our last meeting. I would also like to emphasize the fact that all of the recommendations which we have made are not based upon opinions, but on facts that we have gathered. We do not express any personal opinions throughout the report.

The committee is hopeful that you, Mr. Mayor, and your fellow Commissioners, may not be too hasty in commenting on this report. I hope that you will study it with the idea that we have been giving a lot of thought to it. We will be glad to explain the comments and recommendations that we have made if they are not entirely clear to you.

There will be prepared a total of 200 copies of this report. The remainder of these copies aside from the few that we have handed to you will be ready within the next ten days, the delay being due to the binding and printing.

I should like to hand over to you, sir, a financial statement up to the moment, with an estimate of what it required to complete the job, together with an itemization of every voucher. I should like to direct your attention, sir, to the fact that there will be another appropriation of $300 necessary to complete our work, all of which appears on the last page of that report.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Mallon, I want to say for myself, and I am sure that I express the minds of the other members of the Commission and, I hope, the public at large, that we appreciate very deeply the great amount of work and study that your Committee has given to this subject. I want you and the members of your Committee to know that the report will be studied and that it will be our endeavor to put into effect such recommendations as you have made. I don't know what they are, but I feel sure that by reason of your work you have arrived at some common ground from which we can begin more energetically, perhaps, to relieve congestion and properly regulate traffic. We are deeply grateful to you and the members of your committee.

Mr. Mallon: Thank you on behalf of the committee.

Mayor Congleton: The report will not be smothered as has been suggested in some quarters, but will be given the widest publicity. We shall begin at once to make a study of it and to put your recommendations into effect.

Mr. Mallon: Thank you.

Commissioner Gillen: I move that the report be received with the thanks of the Commission.

PROCLAMATION

The importance and knowledge of hygiene and disease prevention cannot be impressed too strongly upon the public mind, especially in its relation to the growing generation and our problem of sanitation.

We, therefore, The City Commissioners of Newark, urge the citizens of Newark, and vicinity to attend the public Health Week Exposition sponsored for that purpose by the Newark Health Department in the Department of Public Works, during the week of March 24th to 29th, at the Sussex Avenue Armory.

We believe that this Health Exposition should have a special appeal to the parents of young children in that it will educate them in the progress of preventive measures now available to insure a healthy and happy childhood.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of William Okin for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 214 Nye Avenue;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Mr. E. Garfield Gifford, Prudential Building: I don't know that there is anything to be added to the situation. The Zoning Board has approved of this application of Mr. Okin's. I have made a personal inspection of the property and I see no reason, from the standpoint of the neighborhood there, why the permit should not be granted. It is a corner street on Leslie Street and Nye Avenue, the southwest corner. An examination of the neighborhood for eight or ten blocks, which I have made, shows that there is no other station near there and that the character of the neighborhood will not be injured. There is nothing else that can be put on that property at the present time. There are stores galore in the neighborhood. The other three corners all have stores. The adjoining property on the south and on the west do not have windows that overlook this. It will be an improvement to the property rather than a detriment. I think that the application may well be granted. It will bring much additional income in the way of taxes. Otherwise you will have only a vacant corner standing there, because there is no other form of improvement available at this time that will be advantageous.

Commissioner Murray: That is the southeast corner, isn't it?

Mr. Gifford: The southeast corner of Leslie Street and Nye Avenue. I have made a mistake. The property has been vacant. I do not think there has ever been anything erected on that corner. It seems to have been at one time a yard on a small adjoining house. There are no windows that overlook the property. On the south, there is one window on the second floor of a two-family house, but that is only the window on the stairway going to the second floor. I say that that gasoline station would be an improvement to the locality. It would put more light on the corner than there is now. There are stores all around there.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the application be laid over for one week.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

A decision of the Board of Public Utility Commissioners in the matter of the application of the Public Service Coordinated Transport for approval of substitution of street railway service on Walnut, Elm and Magazine Streets, Newark, N. J., and the substitution of bus service therefor by the Ironbound Route, in the City of Newark, N. J.

Commissioner Murray: Does that call for the removal of the rails from those streets?

Mayor Congleton: That is the case where we are repaving and they have agreed to substitute buses for rail service.

Ordered referred to the weekly conference of the Board of Commissioners.

A memorandum from The Board of Public Utility Commissioners re: Application of Public Service Coordinated Transport to increase the rate of fare to the occasional rider, was received and read, and on motion ordered referred to the weekly conference of the Board of Commissioners.

A communication dated March 13th, 1930 from the Central Foundry Company, protesting against the proposed ordinance to license electricians, was received, read and on motion ordered filed.

A communication dated March 13th, 1930 from Walter R. Darby, Commissioner of Municipal Accounts, relative to Budgets for 1930; payment of Municipal Claims, Ordinance Appropriations, Preparation of Tax Bills and Telephone Connection, was received, read and on motion ordered referred to Commissioner Howe.

Copy of ordinance from the City of East Orange re; building districts and restrictions was received and ordered referred to the Board of Adjustment.

The following petition was received and read:

Subject: Request for re-opening of our case with Board of Adjustment, for an exit driveway, at rear of our building, on west side of Fairmount Avenue, between Central Avenue and West Market Street.

To: City Commissioners, Newark, N. J.

We are the owners of three story building at 444 Central Avenue, corner of Fourth Street.

This building houses our warehouse in the two upper stories, from which point we deliver merchandise throughout the Northern part of New Jersey.

The entire lower floor is devoted to the retail selling and servicing of automobile tires, batteries, brakes and lubricating.

The ground floor is leased from us by the Firestone Service stores of Newark, of which Mr. L. R. Richmond, (formerly Schall & Richmond, Inc., 237-239 High Street) is President. This Company, employing local capital, is entirely a Newark retail institution.

The proper and successful operation of this station is entirely nullified by the fact, that when cars on which our service is finished, is placed in the Fairmount Avenue wing, it is impossible to again bring them back into the main service station, without moving every car which has been placed in wing behind the car to be moved.

This causes no end of inconvenience, and ties up several of our men at a time, in just moving vehicles back and forth about our station. Unless it is possible for us to obtain an exit at this end of our building, it will be utterly impossible for us ever to make this station pay, as we are now so tied up, that we cannot properly handle customers cars.

We feel we have added very materially to the beautifying and the ratables on the streets adjacent to this new building, and feel the property owners objecting on Fairmount Avenue, are more or less selfish in their determination against our having an exit from the rear end of our building.

We respectfully submit the above to the judgment of the City Commissioners with the request that we be granted the opportunity to request the Board of Adjustment to re-open our case and waive the time limit for such re-opening.

Respectfully submitted,

Firestone T. & R. Co.

L. R. Richmond

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Richmond, wasn't this all fought out at the time you received your original permission and didn't you receive your permit on the condition that there be no exit there?

Mr. Richmond: That I cannot answer you, Mr. Mayor, I wasn't here at the time.

Mayor Congleton: I have a very distinct recollection of the matter. When the application was originally made the people along Fairmount Avenue were very strenuously opposed to an entrance there. I think I read something in the newspaper a few days ago to the effect that they still were that way.

Commissioner Gillen: They have filed a unanimous protest. It seems to me that it is very strange that with that large corner there your architect could not provide a proper exit.

Mayor Congleton: The matter is under the jurisdiction of the Board of Adjustment. There is no appeal advised to us from their decision. You have to make your appeal to them, which I understand you have done, though they have not acquiesced in it. There is nothing pending before us on it.

Commissioner Gillen: When an application is once turned down the applicant has to wait three months to get a re-hearing. Mr. Richmond wants this Board to ask the Adjustment Board to give him a re-hearing, which is against the rules.

Mayor Congleton. The probabilities are if that condition had not been imposed you might not have gotten the original permission. The property owners, of course, are entitled to some protection. That building has only been in use for a very short time.

Commissioner Gillen: The building is a good one. It is not a detriment to the neighborhood. The people on Fairmount Avenue are opposed to it — almost unanimously opposed to it, I should say. I know that.

Mr. Richmond: Yes, they are opposed to it.

Commissioner Murray: I move that the matter be referred to the conference next Tuesday.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: Has any other person anything to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Mr. Domenick Flaniani, 93 Mercer Street, Mr. Jack Rubin, 48 Richmond Street, Mr. D. W. Graham, 173 Spruce Street and Mr. Michael Tomash, 48 Richmond Street, appeared and spoke on the present unemployment problem.

Commissioner Murray moved to adjourn.

City Commission,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:-

I notice with interest the item in to-night's Newark Evening News regarding your proposed ordinance regulating buses, etc.

I am glad that at least some notice is being taken of the proper disposition of exhaust gases. Many a time I have left these buses with smarting eyes and rebellious stomach on account of the fumes, and I hope you enforce at least that section of the ordinance with the utmost strictness and severity. More power to you on that!

Yours very truly,

E. L. Rudebock.

Referred to Commissioner Murray.

Commissioner Murray: I have the proposed ordinance in shape, now. What is your preference in the matter? Shall I have the Public Service representatives discuss the matter with the Commission at its conference?

Mayor Congleton: I think we should take it up with them.

Commissioner Murray: All right, I will take it up with them.

The Board of Commissioners,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:-

I was much interested in the report I saw in the News of your proposition to limit the number allowed to stand in buses to one standee to each person sitting and for each two cross seats. It seems to me that this would alleviate the present disgraceful and intolerant conditions, and I would like to see such an ordinance passed.

Saturday afternoon I went up to the Lackawanna Station on a bus, in the forward part of which there were every time that anyone gets out, seven persons in line transversely of the bus, two sitting, two strap-hangers practically in the faces and laps of the sitters, so that every time a person got out he had to squeeze between the inner two. The whole front of the bus was packed with rows like this as far back as the cross seats.

At the present time a passenger is helpless, but if you could pass such an ordinance as above it seems to me that a passenger could make a complaint and get some relief.

Very respectfully,

Russel M. Everett

Referred to Commissioner Murray.

Grasselli, N. J., March 19, 1930.

Hon. Jerome Congleton,
Mayor of City of Newark,
City Hall,
Newark, New Jersey.

Dear Sir:-

Our attention has been called to the fact that you have before you a proposal covering the adoption of an ordinance to license electricians. Briefly said proposed ordinance would give power to a Board of Examiners to permit, or to refuse to permit, anyone to carry on a business of Master Electrician, or to be employed as a journeyman electrician. Penalties would be fixed for violating or disregarding any provision of the ordinance.

Inasmuch as this would require us to employ only licensed journeyment for electrical maintenance work, we ask that you accept this letter as our formal protest against the proposed ordinance.

In this connection we wish to point out that all electrical work in our plants in the State of New Jersey is installed to meet the requirements of the New Jersey State Electrical Code, including also the National Electrical Code, as prepared by the Fire Underwriters. It must further meet our own standard specifications for electrical wiring which are more rigid and severe than either State or National Electrical Codes. The Fire Underwriters inspect our electrical equipment yearly and rigid adherence to the specifications, as pointed out in the aforementioned, preclude the possibility of fire or accident hazard.

In conclusion we would again call your attention to the fact that we are unequivocally opposed to the ordinance feeling same to be objectionable and unnecessary.

Very truly yours,

The Grasselli Chemical Co., Inc.

Auditor's Trial Balance as of February 28, 1930.

Mayor Congleton: Has any person any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Henry J. Sutton, 195 Springfield Avenue, appeared and presented a brief communication from the Socialist Party in reference to the unemployment situation.

Socialist Party of Essex County

105 Springfield Avenue

Newark, N. J., March 26, 1930.

To the Mayor and City Commissioners of the City of Newark.

Gentlemen:-

The undersigned committee of the Newark Branch of the Socialist Party has been instructed to present this communication to join you today, in support of its previous attempts to have you take the initiative in the systematic steps necessary to adequately meet the continued most serious unemployment situation in our city

On March 6th your honorable body was requested to order a house-to-house or other survey to ascertain the extent of involuntary unemployment in our midst, and to speed up public improvements as one means of furnishing work to our distressed fellow citizens. You were also asked to consider the calling of a special public conference, such as recommended to municipalities for just such times as this by the United States Commission on Industrial Relations in a previous similar period of trade depression. The only reply to our appeal was a verbal one to the effect, as reported in the press, that "many street improvements are blocked by property owners' petitions against the work because of the assessments."

With that reply in mind we then suggested that Newark take the lead in one measure that would be in line with the accepted American and democratic principle that property rights should be subservient to human rights, —especially now, when the provision of public work, that our people may provide themselves with food, clothing and shelter, is the only way they can enjoy their guaranteed right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. That particular suggestion was that you instruct our municipal counsel to draft a bill for immediate presentation to the State Legislature, providing for the imposition of a graduated super-tax on all large property holders, to finance the large scale public improvements recommended by the Industrial Relations Commission for such times as this. Our representative was told to go to Trenton direct. His efforts to reach Senator Joseph G. Wolber, as Chairman of the State Judiciary Committee, — by visits to his office, by telephone calls and by letter, have failed to bring a response, and so we again appeal to you to do what you can in this particular matter.

Our party is not primarily interested in making political capital out of the present tragic situation, as has been suggested in some quarters. In fact, we feel it would be fitting that we sink our identity in the larger group composing a citizens' committee we suggest you provide, and we again urge you to take the initiative in calling this special conference.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. Louis Reiss
Henry J. Sutton
Henry Green

Ordered filed.

Mr. Henry Green also appeared in reference to the unemployment and housing situation in the City.

Annual Reports of the following departments were received:

City Clerk for 1929.

At this time Lieutenants White and McMullen, aviators who just completed a Newark-Buenos Aires flight, were brought forward and presented to the Commission.

Mayor Congleton: (To the fliers): Gentlemen, in the name of the City we desire to extend to you our congratulations on your great undertaking. We are very glad that you are back here safe today with us. I don't know just how you landed at Port Newark, but if the plans were carried out, I assume that you were taken from aboard the steamer down the Bay and brought over to Port Newark. If that is correct, it seems to me that is another notch to your credit.

We are delighted to have you with us here today. We hope that you can stay with us and go to lunch. We will then try to show you our appreciation.

Commissioner Murray: We hope that when you make your next long flight you will invite the City Commission to go along with you.

Commissioner Brennan: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

MINUTES OF MEETINGS

OF THE

---

April, 1930

Newark, N. J., April 2, 1930.

A regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark, N. J., was held on the above date, in the Commissioners' Chamber, City Hall, Newark, at 11 A. M.

Present: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The minutes of meeting of March 26th, were read and approved.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the paving and repaving of McWhorter Street from Ferry Street to Elm Street with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Joseph H. Gunne, 44 Branford Place: Gentlemen, there has been a divided opinion down there as to the improvement of McWhorter Street. Everybody realizes the importance of the thoroughfare and how it is going to be an east and west connecting link with the new Pennsylvania Depot plaza, and there have been petitions for and against. The Ironbound Manufacturers Association as an organization, and some of its members, own property on McWhorter Street—are in favor of the improvement, but the opponents and the proponents have come to an understanding that if the City will bear a certain proportion of the expenses they are satisfied to have it done. The opposition petition was gotten up under the impression; that the assessment would be one hundred per cent. on the property owners. The question of 60-40 has been discussed.

Mayor Congleton: Which way?

Mr. Gunne: City way.

Mayor Congleton: The City to pay 40?

Mr. Gunne: The City to pay 60, but I guess that that is probably a matter of adjustment. The City, as we all know, has borne a certain percentage of the improvements on various streets. On Van Buren Street, which was put through last summer, I think that the assessment was something like 67 per cent for the City.

Mayor Congleton: There is always a percentage on the City. Do you think that if we lay this over for two weeks you can get those property owners to come to some agreement?

Mr. Gunne: They have expressed it?

Mayor Congleton: They will have to file another petition or withdraw the one that is here, because the petition that is now signed is so substantial that it might act to avoid any assessment levied. I think the petition should be withdrawn.

Mr. Gunne: I think that Mr. Gay has expressed himself that he would be perfectly willing to withdraw that petition if some understanding is entered into.

Mayor Congleton: We will lay it over for two weeks. We will take it up at our conference next Tuesday, and if you wish to you may be there. We will discuss the question of what if any division ought to be put in the ordinance.

Mr. Gunne: I think that that is very fine. I shall be at the conference.

It may use materials salvaged from such demolished building as far as practical in replacing building. Any material not so used is to be disposed of by Lessee. No machinery or fixtures are to be removed from present building without the consent of the Lessor until such time as the first new building shall have been completed, or until the Lessee posts a bond conditioned upon restoration of such machinery or fixtures removed. K. Lessee to indemnify the City from any claim arising out of the conduct or management of the premises. If any order is not complied with by Lessee within thirty (30) days after notice to said Lessee then Lessor may comply therewith and add cost thereof to the rent becoming due on the first day of the next succeeding month.

L. Lessee to comply with all present and future laws of the City, County and State or the United States, with relation to the manner in which the buildings are operated, or in relation to the uses thereof.

M. Lessee is to indemnify the City from any claim which may arise in the course of making additions or improvements to buildings.

N. Lessee will remain liable for rents, even if lease is assigned or sublet, until erection and completion of the first twenty-story building free of all liens and charges. If Lessee makes assignment, then it is to be released from liability under this lease upon the erection and completion of such building, free and clear of liens and charges, and all other rents and charges have been paid.

Lessor in case of assignment of mortgage or sub-letting of lease, upon request of Lessee, will furnish a certificate stating if there is any default to its knowledge at the time of such request.

CC. Except as provided for in paragraph 25, or by default of the Lessor, or earthquake, inundation or war, which may prevent occupancy of the building, rent shall not abate.

DD. Lessee to have the right to contest taxes and assessments, but must indemnify the City against loss.

EE. The buildings and all fixtures by way of real estate attached thereto, when erected by Lessee upon demised premises, shall be deemed attached to the freehold, and upon expiration of this lease shall be surrendered with said premises.

FF. No waiver of any covenant or term hereunder shall operate as a discharge of such covenant or term, or render same invalid, or impair the right of the Lessor to enforce the same in the event of any subsequent breach or breaches by Lessee; no default to work a forfeiture or ground for termination if default is corrected within sixty (60) days after notice, and if default is completion of building, then mortgagee or purchaser must complete in the same time as Lessee has, plus an additional sixty (60) days. In case of termination of this lease or re-entry by Lessor before the end of term, after sixty (60) days notice to mortgagee, the Lessor, at request, of mortgagee, to execute a new lease, for balance of term at same rentals and conditions.

GG. All notices required to be sent to Lessee to be addressed to 1060 Broad Street, or such other address as may be designated by Lessee; to mortgagee or mortgagees to address specified in notice to be given to Lessor; and to the Lessor at the City Hall, Newark, New Jersey.

HH. Lessee to be entitled to possession of the premises from May 1, 1930, and shall be entitled to the rents, issues and profits arising therefrom, from and after said date. Lessee takes premises subject to existing tenancies, as shown in schedule attached to lease.

II. Lessee to surrender its interest, if any, in easterly portion of Centre Market Building, which may be taken by New Jersey State Highway Commission or the State of New Jersey for Highway purposes, waiving all damages against the Lessor, New Jersey State Highway Commission and the State of New Jersey. The expense of demolition and restoration of building to be borne by Lessee.

JJ. Lessee agrees that it, as principal, with Albert G. Preen, Isaac M. Shackter, Isaac Klinghoffer, Morton S. Klinghoffer and Theodore H. Cohn, as sureties, will enter into a million dollars bond, guaranteeing the performance of the terms of this lease, and that upon completion of the first twenty-story fireproof structure, free from liens, and all rents and charges due Lessor having been paid, bond shall be cancelled and become a nullity. Lessee is to deposit with Lessor a Certificate of Deposit for One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) as further security for the faithful performance of the terms of the lease until the first twenty-story building shall have been erected, free from liens, and all rents and charges due Lessor having been paid.

KK. Lessor represents that it owns the present heating apparatus, refrigerating plant, electric light and power plant, elevators, hoists, electric wires, engines, machinery, market equipment, fixtures and other apparatus used in and about the Centre Market building, all of which to be included as part of the demised premises.

LL. Lease may be sub-divided as follows:

1. Lessee to notify Lessor that it desires sub-division of leased premises, and is to describe portion to be sub-divided or set off.

2. Parties to apportion rent reserved by this lease between the premises to be set off and the remainder thereof.

3. If after sixty (60) days the parties cannot agree on the proper apportionment of rent then the same to be left to arbitration.

4. Parties shall thereupon execute two or more new leases similar in every respect to this lease, except as inapplicable to premises described and rent reserved. Lease to expire April 30, 1980, and to be executed and delivered within thirty (30) days after the apportionment of rent shall have been agreed upon.

MM. Exterior design of any building erected for garage purposes or automobile storage to conform architecturally to other buildings erected.

NN. Lessor agrees that when Lessee takes possession, Centre Market building will be in as good condition as it was on October 31, 1929, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

OO. Centre Market to be continued substantially as at present for a period of not less than two years nor more than four years from date of this lease. Standholders on first floor, except F. & W. Grand Co. and the Steinlein Drug Company, are to be permitted to remain as tenants for a period of two years from the date of execution of this lease at the same rentals, provided they execute lease giving the length of term and amount of rental. Standholders to be subject to change of location of stands and storage space and subject to rules promulgated by Lessee. All changes and all rules to be subject to the approval of the Director of the Department of Parks and Public Property for the first two years of the term herein granted. If during the first two years a majority of the present standholders vacate the premises, Lessee may discontinue operation of Centre Market as a market.

PP. If Lessee becomes bankrupt and makes assignment for benefit of creditors, or is adjudicated insolvent, Lessor may terminate this lease by giving five (5) days' notice to that effect. Upon such condition, Lessor will give notice of its intention to terminate this lease to mortgagee of record, provided address has been furnished to Lessor. Upon written request of any mortgagee within sixty (60) days after notice, and upon mortgagee paying to Lessor sums that may be due under this lease, and assuming obligations of this lease, Lessor will execute new lease to said mortgagee for remainder of term, under same conditions as contained in lease. If there are several mortgagees then new lease to be made to holder of mortgage prior in lien thereon. All covenants and agreements shall bind the parties, their successors and assigns.

The following communication was received and read:

Newark, N. J., March 20, 1930.

The Honorable Jerome T. Congleton,
Mayor,

City Hall, Newark, N. J.

My dear Mayor Congleton:-

It has come to my attention since my appointment as a member of the Board of Adjustment that the question of the legality of personal work for the city by one serving on this or any other municipal board has been raised.

For some years past I have been employed from time to time by the City in a professional or business capacity and for this I have been paid.

In view of the above statement it is my conclusion that an attempt to carry on the personal work while serving on the adjustment Board might create an embarrassing situation for both you and myself and I feel that I can not afford to place myself in a position where I may not be called upon from among those qualified, for this special work. With great regret, I therefore tender my resignation as a member of the Board of Adjustment and request that it be made effective as of April 1st, 1930.

With kind personal regards,

Very sincerely yours,

Harrison R. Van Duyne

Ordered filed.

Mayor Congleton offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Harrison R. Van Duyne has submitted his resignation as a member of the Board of Adjustment of The City of Newark, which resignation has been accepted;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that William F. Yeomans be and he is hereby appointed in the place and stead of said Harrison R. Van Duyne, as a member of the Board of Adjustment, to serve for the unexpired term of said Harrison R. Van Duyne, or until his successor has been appointed.

Jerome T. Congleton
W. J. Brennan
Charles P. Gillen
John Howe
Jno. F. Murray, Jr.

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: I should like to say that Mr. Van Duyne has resigned because of a possible legal technicality about his serving on the Board of Adjustment and also doing some work as surveyor and engineer in appraising properties occasionally for the city. The question has been raised, and Mr. Van Duyne has said that rather than embarrass the City Commission or me he would resign. The resignation is accepted with regrets, because it seems to me that Mr. Van Duyne is peculiarly suited for this type of work. I am very sorry that it is necessary for him to resign.

Commissioner Brennan offered the following resolutions:

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Benjamin Birkenfeld, 790 Broad Street.

I represent the Mileage Gas Station, Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen of the Commission. This is an application to extend an existing gasoline station and to take out the existing station house and erect a station house in conformity with all our buildings as they are today. There is a parking station back of the gasoline station, and there is considerable congestion there because at times, cars, coming out from the parking station and cars stopped at the pumps are in the way of one another. By adding this eighteen feet, which is immediately adjoining the gasoline station, the congestion will be eliminated and matters will be made better for both of us.

Commissioner Murray: Is this extension the piece that clears to the north on Washington Street?

Mr. Birkenfeld: Yes, sir.

Commissioner Murray: It does not interfere with the piece running out in William Street?

Mr. Birkenfeld: It is just that little shack.

Mr. George B. Astley, Kinney Building.

I have appeared before you in conference, when all were present with the exception, I believe, of Commissioner Murray. I went into the merits of this thing and I am willing to go into them now, but I don't want to take your time unless you consider it necessary.

Commissioner Murray: The statements were made yesterday, while this matter was up before the conference that a twenty-five foot front station on James Street would be impossible.

Mr. Astley: That isn't twenty-five; it is fifty. Commissioner.

Commissioner Howe: Originally it was twenty-five.

Mr. Astley: It has been fifty ever since I made the application. This has been passed by the Adjustment Board on the fifty-foot basis.

Commissioner Murray: I move that it be laid over for conference next week.

Hon. William J. Egan,
City Clerk,
City Hall,
Newark, N. J.,

Dear Sir:-

Enclosed herewith you will find copies of letters addressed by us to the Department of Public Affairs, one to the attention of Hon. Jerome T. Congleton, Mayor and the other to the attention of James Costello, Chief Engineer, which are self-explanatory.

We respectfully ask that the contents of these letters be brought by you to the attention of the City Commission and the Commissioner in charge of the matter as soon as possible and at its next meeting.

Thanking you in advance, we remain

Very truly yours,

Sorg, Duncan & Bailey,

By George B. Bailey.

Received and filed.

Mr. George B. Bailey, 1060 Broad Street.

Gentlemen, I don't know that I can add very much to that letter except to say this: The statute, as you are familiar with, states that the contract shall be given to the lowest responsible bidder. Upon the opening of the City bids on January 23, Mr. Carracino was the lowest bidder. I think he was $1.50 low on the total of the bid. For the reason, I have been so informed by the engineer, that the bids or the items were not balanced — I presume they mean by that that each item in itself could not be done for the price at which Mr. Carracino bid—his bid was rejected.

A further advertising was had and new bids called for. Taking the position that the City required him to boost his bid on all items, he did on several of the items which were low, with the result that he was next to the lowest bidder. The other man did not boost his items. The contract was going to be awarded to the other man, and Mr. Carracino objected on the ground that the same reasons that had caused the rejection of his bid in the first place should then apply, and the other man's bid was rejected.

A third bid was had, and still keeping in mind the position of the engineer that each item should be balanced Mr. Carracino submitted the bid, but the other man had not raised his bid, so as it stands now there are still items which in themselves do not carry themselves. In other words, they are being done below cost.

Personally I see no objection to it. I think the bid should have been given to Mr. Carracino in the first instance. It makes no difference to the engineering department whether or not the man is going to lose on his contract. He has the bond up and the City has a right to rely on that bond. Furthermore, he is personally responsible, and the experience of this City with him has demonstrated that fact. He has had the contract seven or eight times.

I say that it was all uncalled for in the first instance to reject the bids. I ask for at least a reconsideration of the award and for a fourth try, and we are willing to abide by the result.

Mayor Congleton: Your man has had three tries at this, Mr. Bailey. It isn't a question of our desire to boost items that he is low on; it is our desire and our effort that he, after he has done that, should not try to make it up and put in an exorbitant price on items that carry large quantities. That is what we have endeavored to do in throwing out these bids, that are unbalanced. So far as my recommendation to my colleagues goes, we have endeavored to compel proper, honest and balanced bidding. I do not know that we have succeeded, but we have made an honest effort to do it.

Without meaning to be curt in any way, I say that your client, if he has any legal redress, will, as far as I am concerned, have to go for it.

Mr. Bailey: May I ask you on what legal basis you can take that position?

Mayor Congleton: On the basis that we have a discretion to exercise, and to exercise it honestly for the best interests of the taxpayers of the City of Newark. We feel that we have the right, when we think that a bid received is not for the best interests of the taxpayers, to reject it, which we did and called for re-advertising.

Mr. Bailey: I have nothing more. I have stated my position.

Mayor Congleton: It is a difference of opinion between us.

Mr. Bailey: I still say that under the statute you have not the discretion. We might as well try it out.

Mayor Congleton: All right, sir, we have to differ on that. I think we have.

Mr. Bailey: Is the Commission going to pass on it formally?

Mayor Congleton: We have. We awarded the contract two weeks ago.

Mr. Bailey: May I have the action of the Commission on the letter, definitely rejecting it? That is all I am concerned with.

Mayor Congleton: There is no action to be taken. Your letter will be received and filed. We have heard you. There is no question to be taken up. It does not require a motion or anything else. The letter is received and filed.

Has any person any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Henry J. Sutton, of 105 Springfield Avenue, representing the Socialist Party of Essex County, and Mr. Henry Green, of 215 Avon Avenue, appeared in relation to the unemployment situation.

Mayor Congleton: Has anyone else any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission?

Mr. Louis Kasoff, 164 Market Street.

Gentlemen, we have a committee from the Newark Society of Architects, who want to voice their objection with regard to the building code and the Zoning code. Mr. Egan told me that the ordinance has already been passed. We have been here patiently and we haven't heard it.

Mayor Congleton: It was read out loudly enough and I asked if there was anyone here who desired to be heard on it.

Mr. Kasoff: We have been here, but we haven't got the drift of what was going on.

Mayor Congleton: Well, it was read three times and you should have heard it. It is now passed, but if you have any objection to make we shall be glad to hear them.

Mr. Kasoff: The first objection we have is to the three months' period on permits issued through the Board of Adjustment.

Mayor Congleton: That only applies to gas permits.

Mr. Kasoff: The advertisement in the paper didn't read that way. If it only applies to gas permits, we don't care about it, even if you cut them out altogether. It is all permits coming through the Board of Adjustment that we are concerned about.

Mayor Congleton: It only applies to applications for gas stations before the Board of Adjustment.

Mr. Kasoff: But we have legitimate propositions coming to the Board of Adjustment, propositions from a one-family house up to a factory. Many times a man might get a permit from the Board of Adjustment to put up a one-family building and find that he can't do it within ninety days, and he has to go before the Board of Adjustment again and pay a fee again. If the ordinance applies only to gas stations, I have no objection to it.

We feel that the best solution is that the Board of Adjustment be given authority to limit the time for putting up the buildings as the case may justify.

A man may apply to the Board of Adjustment for a set-back proposition, which is a legitimate proposition. He gets up a set of plans, but sometimes the bids run too high and in the meantime his time is up. Then he has to go to the Board of Adjustment and pay another fee. We do not think that that is fair.

Mayor Congleton. If you revise your plans you have to go before the Board of Adjustment again for another hearing. The permit that the man gets from the Board of Adjustment is given on his application with the plans that are submitted.

Mr. Kasoff: Take the case of a small one-family residence, where a man applies to put up a one-family house.

The one obstacle in the way may be the question of a set-back. He is willing to comply with the set-back demanded by the Board of Adjustment after he gets the permit on that, he gets the bids in and finds that the bids are too high. Then he wants to change his plans, although he is not going to change the set-back. Then he has to go before the Board of Adjustment again and pay a fee.

Commissioner Brennan: You don't have to. You go before the Building Department.

Mr. Kasoff: We have no objection to that, but he has to pay for a new permit.

Commissioner Brennan: The thought we have had in regard to these matters before the Board of Adjustment on permits is this: Past rumor has it that these permits have been held just for peddling purposes, which evil we thought would be eradicated by the adoption of the ninety-day rule.

Mr. Kasoff: Can't you see, Mr. Commissioner, that a man who goes before the Board of Adjustment about the governing of a set-back or regulating of a one-family house, that he has a legitimate proposition?

Mayor Congleton: But there have been a great number of permits that have been peddled, the premises being sold with the permits.

Mr. Kasoff: That was before the new building law came into effect. It was prior to the last zoning law.

Mayor Congleton: That is so. It is against the peddling of gas station permits that we want to guard.

Mr. Kasoff: The next objection we have to raise is on the question of garages in first or second industrial districts. We feel that when the Zoning Commission spends a year and a half in zoning the City, that they have decided where garages could be built and could not be built, and when they pick out sections like first industrial and second industrial, which are mainly factory sections, I can't see why a garage cannot be built unless you go before the Board of Adjustment. Why should we be put to all that trouble to go before the Board of Adjustment.

What objection have you to garages being built in those sections?

Commissioner Murray: There isn't any objection. All we are concerned with is the type of garage and the location of the building. It might be convenient to the general welfare of the City to change the plan a little. Not very long ago an application was made to erect a gasoline station, to which the Mayor took exception. After a discussion the applicant said, "Well, if you don't want a gasoline station we can put a public garage there without your consent." If we let him put a public garage there without permission, it might interfere with the development of the City. It might block the path of a future street or highway.

Mr. Kasoff: Then, wouldn't that apply to factories and such buildings?

Commissioner Murray: Well, it might in some case, but as a rule no. It is not the intention of the City to be arbitrary or to prevent a man from putting his property to the most profitable use. We want to have some sort of order and system about the erection of these properties.

Mr. Kasoff: After all, you must realize that when the Zoning Commission has zoned these streets for industrial purposes, that it has taken into consideration that a garage will not be a detriment in such neighborhood. When the Zoning Commission has zoned it as industrial, why should we have to go before the Board of Adjustment?

Mayor Congleton: My experience has shown that there are streets in sections that you call the heavy industrial where we would very seriously object to the erection of garages, for traffic reasons and reasons of safety.

Mr. Kasoff: Because of traffic and safety? When you say traffic I can realize what you mean, but when you say safety, which way do you mean. Fire hazard?

Commissioner Brennan: Automobiles crossing the sidewalks where there are a large number of people coming in and out from industrial buildings might constitute an element of hazard.

Mr. Kasoff: In other words, today we cannot be sure that we can build a garage on property in an industrial section?"

Commissioner Murray: The chances are very good that you can build it.

Mr. Kasoff: What reasons, if any, could we give to the Board of Adjustment if we want a permit?

Mayor Congleton: You would ask for a variation of the ordinance. There would have to be some good reason why it should not be granted.

Mr. Kasoff: In other words, it would have to be up to the Board of Adjustment to prove that we are not entitled to it, and not up to us to prove that we are entitled to it?

Mayor Congleton: It is not a question of proving at all; it is a question of proving all the facts and judging the location and the surrounding territory.

Commissioner Murray: I don't think you are running much risk on it? Have you any particular cases in mind?

Mr. Kasoff: We have no particular cases in mind right now. It is just a case of general conditions. As an architect we know that we hate to go to the Board of Adjustment. Many times we present plans, which is an expense, and the owner finds that he cannot do the things he wants to do.

Commissioner Murray: You can find that out before you go to the Board of Adjustment.

Mr. Kasoff. If the Board of Adjustment would just accept a plot plan and let us say that we want to build a garage on that, it would be different, but as a rule we have to submit a complete set of plans, and then we have to be rejected by the Building Department before we can go up to the Board of Adjustment, and your Building Department requires complete sets of plans.

Commissioner Murray: Do you think that the matter ought to be taken up next Tuesday in conference to see if we can possibly put in an amendment without destroying what we had in mind originally? We like to encourage building, not discourage it.

Mr. Kasoff: That is what we want to do. We have been idle for a good many years. We think that this law will chase building out, instead of encouraging it.

Mayor Congleton: We passed an ordinance on Kinney Street. Some people came in afterward and said that they thought it was not coming up today. We have a protest but it is a protest of only twenty-eight per cent. of the property owners. Before going ahead with it, I want to lay it before you. The street is very badly in need of repairs.

Where is the gentlemen who presented the petition?

Mr. William Wurtz, 739 East Kinney Street.

Gentlemen and Commissioners, some time ago we put in a petition against the repaving of East Kinney Street and made a statement here, and I understand there wasn't enough signers, so there has been another petition circulated and sent in last week. Now, I want to find out what is going to be done.

Mayor Congleton: The report to me from the Engineering Department was that there was a twenty-nine per cent. protest against it. If there is any question about it, I will look it up and I will not have any bid received on this until we have more opportunity to go into it.

Mr. Wurtz: That is what I want to find out—If anything has been done since this second petition has been in.

Mayor Congleton: We have not awarded a contract yet for the paving of it, and I will not do so until we go into it further.

Commissioner Murray: Are there two petitions in there.

Mayor Congleton: There is one.

Commissioner Murray: The total is twenty-nine per cent.

Mr. Wurtz: The first petition.

Commissioner Murray: No, both of them together. The total of the two petitions is twenty-nine per cent. of the property owners.

Mr. Wurtz: That was on the first.

Mayor Congleton: I will have it checked up.

Commissioner Murray: Have you got over fifty per cent?

Mr. Wurtz: I could not tell you how much. We got some protests from big property owners.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

APPROVED:

JEROME T. CONGLETON

The Board of Commissioners of

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one appearing, Commissioner Brennan moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Brennan moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

The clerk then read the ordinance by sections:

Title declared open to amendment.

Section 1 declared open to amendment.

Section 2 declared open to amendment.

Section 3 declared open to amendment.

The ordinance was declared open to amendment in all its parts.

Commissioner Brennan moved that the ordinance be adopted on second reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Brennan moved that said ordinance be ordered to a third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Brennan moved that the ordinance be taken up on third reading and final passage.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Brennan moved that the title of "WHEREAS, The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark believe that a majority of those who labor in the diversified industrial occupations of the City are in favor of an hour's daylight saving, and that it is beneficial for mental improvement and physical recreation," be taken for its third reading.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The clerk then read the title of the ordinance as follows:

WHEREAS, The Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark believe that a majority of those who labor in the diversified industrial occupations of the City are in favor of an hour's daylight saving, and that it is beneficial for mental improvement and physical recreation.

The ordinance having been read three times was then declared to be upon its third and final passage.

The roll being called, the ordinance was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the grading and paving of North 9th Street from Springdale Avenue to Third Avenue West with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance.

A communication dated April 5th, signed by Isabel E. Bolen and Harry A. Everts favoring the adoption of the ordinance for the repaving of North 9th Street was received, read and on motion ordered referred to Mayor Congleton.

A petition signed by eight property owners on North 9th Street protesting against the ordinance providing for the paving of North 9th Street was received, read and on motion ordered referred to Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: I would suggest that further consideration of this ordinance be laid over for two weeks, in order that the protests may be tabulated.

Commissioner Howe moved that the ordinance be laid over until April 23rd.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: I should like to say that I had this improvement initiated because I have had recent requests as well as complaints against the condition of the street from some of the property owners. Some of these streets which were laid out originally by the developers of the tract, are in very poor condition and have reached the point where the City cannot afford to go on repairing them year after year. If the property owners do not want these streets properly paved they will have to put up with the dust and dirt of the old macadam pavement, because we will not keep on repairing it. It is a waste of money.

The City Clerk presented an ordinance to provide for the grading and paving of North 10th Street from Third Avenue West to Second Avenue with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

City Clerk Egan: I have a petition signed by many property owners in favor of the proposed improvement.

Mayor Congleton: I suppose they want the cost divided something like 40-60.

City Clerk Egan: 60-40.

A petition signed by twenty-seven property owners on North 10th Street favoring the repaving of the street and that the City assume 60% of the cost was received, read and on motion ordered referred to Mayor Congleton.

Mayor Congleton: I would suggest the same course. There are three streets there that are involved in this improvement.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be laid over until April 23rd.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance to provide for the grading and paving of North 11th Street from Springdale Avenue to Third Avenue West with asphalt pavement (1½" top-1½" binder) on a new six (6) inch concrete foundation, and stated that today was the time for hearing on the same.

Commissioner Murray moved that the ordinance be laid over until April 23rd.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr W. D. Ward of 47 North 10th Street appeared in reference to the paving of North 10th Street and urged that the City assume 60% of the cost.

Mayor Congleton: I don't think we will stand that much in residential districts, but we will lay it over for two weeks and let you know what we will do.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance authorizing the acquirement of lands known as 242-248 Belmont Avenue and 218-234 Livingston Street in the City of Newark, for public park purposes, and providing for the financing thereof, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Adolph Klein, 126 Springfield Avenue: Gentlemen, I am here to represent the Third Ward and also the Springfield Avenue Merchants' Association. We are here in a body to protest against the location of a certain park on Belmont Avenue. I don't know the exact location of it. The property owners on the west of Springfield Avenue feel and have felt for a great many years that the location is not a proper and fit one. We feel that we ought to have it down in an easterly direction. This thing has been talked about for a great many years, by the Merchants' Association and other Associations combined, which you will be able to hear. We would like to know what you are doing on the matter and we feel that we ought to have a hearing on it.

Mayor Congleton: This is the time for it. We shall be very glad to hear anyone who has any opinions to express on it.

Commissioner Gillen: As I understand it, your objection is that you think the placing of a playground on Belmont Avenue will preclude adequate park facilities in the lower part of the ward. Is that the idea?

Mr. Klein: That is practically the idea.

Commissioner Gillen: Then you had better start off on the right track. It will not preclude facilities in the lower part.

Mr. Klein: We have a representative here, an attorney, who is better able to talk on the matter than I am.

Commissioner Gillen: We want you to understand the situation. There has been, and there is now being carried on, a survey in the Third Ward for a playground in the lower end, near the Morton Street School. Several blocks have been surveyed. The tax assessments have been considered. The Department is waiting for the final settlement of the Prudential housing plan before anything definite is done in that vicinity. With that understanding, you may go ahead and talk.

Mr. Klein: If you will permit me, I would like to introduce Mr. Brams.

Mr. Herman D. Brams, 951 Broad Street: Gentlemen, the matter of parks, as you know has been discussed by the Third Ward Improvement Association ever since two or three years ago. We have felt right along that the park facilities and playground facilities in the Third Ward are insufficient and inadequate. When the proposition of Hayes Park first was talked about and initiated, we were urging that a park be located east of Belmont Avenue. A park was selected in the Third Ward at the very end of it, at the last block in the ward, located on 18th Avenue and Jelliff. At that time we objected to that location, but the Commissioners in their wisdom decided to locate it there nevertheless. We are not now objecting to that location, because it has already progressed. However, the purchase of the property that is now being contemplated by you is within two or three blocks of the Hayes Circle West Park. We want to call your attention to the fact that in that Third Ward east of Belmont Avenue, commencing with South Orange Avenue and ending with Avon, there are no parks of any kind. There is one playground located on Prince Street at Waverly, I think it is, and another small playground on Howard Street at Morton. That playground takes in about a half a block. All of that district is densely congested. When usually one family lived in an apartment that are four or five.

Mayor Congleton: That is what makes it so difficult to get property for parks — because people want so much for it.

Mr. Brams: And there is no outlet for the enthusiasm of the young people, or facilities for old persons to sit down and have a little breathing place. Now, we urge that the money that is to be expended for the purchase of property on Belmont Avenue be saved for the purchase of property on the east side of Belmont Avenue. We have been told that the money that was available for the Hayes Circle Parks has been practically used up and that any purchases that would be made would have to be met by the City. We understand that the City Commissioners are endeavoring in every way to keep down the taxes, and naturally it will follow that there will not be very much money for purposes of the kind that I am now talking about. If prices are high in the section that I speak about, the same condition exists in every other section of the City. As soon as a person hears that the City or County or State or any corporation is about to purchase his property, the property immediately increases to twice and three times its actual value. We understand and appreciate just what you are up against and what the Prudential is up against. At the same time, however, we say that if there is any expenditure of money, that money should be saved for purchasing property east of Belmont Avenue. One objection we have to the location of the Belmont Avenue property—whatever the purpose of it may be, whether it be merely a breathing space or a park or playground—is that we feel that Belmont Avenue does not lend itself to that purpose because it is a bad location. It is a heavily trafficked street. There are trolley cars on it, and a great deal of automobile traffic, and it won't be anything that will lend to the safety of the children who will use that location.

Commissioner Gillen: There are a great many apartments and tenement houses there, aren't there?

Mr. Brams: Well, Belmont Avenue mostly is business property. There are, of course, apartments there.

Commissioner Gillen: There are stores on the avenue, but above the stores there are a lot of families living. It is densely populated.

Mr. Brams: That is true, yes, sir, but it is not nearly so densely populated as any one street from Belmont Avenue to High Street.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Brams, you probably know through the public press that the blocks with which the Prudential is concerned are in that section where you think the park ought to go.

Mr. Brams: Yes, sir.

Mayor Congleton: If that is so, and if the Prudential succeeds in getting what they want in that section, you will succeed in having your parks.

Mr. Brams: As I understand it the project that they have in mind is the erection of apartment houses surrounding playgrounds. I don't believe that they are going to purchase a tract and devote it exclusively to a park.

Mayor Congleton: Their plan calls for putting a block running north and south and building apartments along the new street frontage, but not across the ends. In the center of these blocks will be a tract, say 12 feet wide for the entire length of the block for a playground and park purposes. That is a pretty good sized plot.

Mr. Brams: Yes, and I am just wondering now that you have mentioned that, whether those facilities will be open to everybody, regardless—

Mayor Congleton: Everybody, regardless of whether they live in one of the apartments or not.

Mr. Brams: Very good.

Mayor Congleton: They will be public parks.

Commissioner Gillen: That is what I meant, I said that our survey was being completed along that line and that we are waiting to see what the Prudential plans were.

Mr. Brams: However, I wanted to go a little further. As I understand it, the properties being purchased by the Prudential includes Barclay Street on the east side and Somerset on the west, approximately between Spruce and Rose Now, there remain, in this section right here (indicating on a diagram) at least three or four times the area of this ward that will not have such facilities. I especially call your attention to those blocks that are located within the immediate vicinity of Morton Street School. They are small blocks with terribly dilapidated buildings. There is in the power of this City the right of condemnation. If the people of that section will not sell their property for their value, the properties can be condemned. I am sure that there are a number of our people who will sell at a very fair price, who own property in that immediate vicinity. We urge that whatever may be intended or contemplated for the future in regard to the Prudential that it does not take care of at least three-quarters of the people who live in the vicinity of the Third Ward. We have discussed it. The officers and members have discussed it a number of times. We feel that any money that is available for the purchase of park properties or playground properties should be utilized for something that might be bounded by South Orange Avenue and Montgomery or Spruce Street, and on the west by Belmont Avenue, and on the east by High Street.

Mayor Congleton: I have had a letter only recently from the clergyman in charge of the Polish Church, I think it is, on Livingston Street a little further to the north of this tract, making just the same strong and earnest plea that you do for that section that you have in mind, to create playgrounds and parks up there regardless of what we may do in the rest of the Section. Personally I feel that where we have an opportunity to buy a piece of property such as we have now, without buildings on it, we ought not to let that opportunity go by. I have just the same keen desire that you have to see as many parks in the Third Ward as it is possible to have. Here, however, it is a piece of land available where we do not have to pay large sums of money for old dilapidated houses such as you speak of. You know from your experience that in condemnation proceedings we have to pay very substantial sums for these houses, based on the income that is being received from them. Here is a piece of property that is practically vacant. I do not think that we ought to miss it. Livingston Street is built up.

Commissioner Gillen: The land is totally vacant.

Mayor Congleton: Yes.

Mr. Brams: But nevertheless, Mr. Mayor, that location is still within a very short radius of this new park up there.

Mayor Congleton. All right, sir.

Commissioner Gillen: Let me say a word about the new park up there. The Third Ward is not the only ward in Newark. The sooner we come to that conclusion the better off we will be. There are fifteen other wards in Newark, which also have to be considered. When I located Haynes Park West on Boyd Street and 18th Avenue I had in mind also the lower end of the 14th Ward, which is densely populated. The people there are just as much entitled to park facilities as the people of the Third Ward area. Now, we are running this Commission. If you people from the Third Ward will have just a little faith in this Commission and in our promises, we will take care of the Third Ward, but if you are going to come here dissatisfied and try to run the Commission, tell us what to do, and tell us where to locate these parks and playgrounds, you are going to run up against opposition.

Mr. Brams: Mr. Gillen you know me. I have never appeared here to try to dictate to you on any proposition.

Commissioner Gillen: You are dictating now. We say that this land up on 18th Avenue ought to be purchased. You say that it should not be.

Mr. Brams: We feel that it should not be.

Commissioner Gillen: Suppose that you let us carry out what we have in mind and have faith in us.

Mr. Brams: We think that it is the privilege of every citizen to come here and make suggestions as to what we think the Commission should do.

Commissioner Gillen: We have told you that we were making a study of the lower end of the Third Ward, but you have meetings and people get up and say "The Commissioners are going to neglect us. They are going back on their promises. Nothing will be done at all."

Mr. Brams: I am merely expressing the sentiments of the people in that section.

Commissioner Gillen: I told your people what was in my mind. We still have the same thing in our minds. We are waiting for the Prudential to give us their plans. You know what we are doing. We are waiting for that part of the Ward to be taken care of.

Mr. Brams: May I ask you this. After the Prudential Insurance project has been taken care of—as you remember, last year you positively assured us that there would be a park east of Belmont Avenue.

Commissioner Gillen: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: If the Prudential thing goes through you will have two parks.

Mr. Brams: I don't mean that Mr. Mayor.

Mayor Congleton: That is a park.

Mr. Brams: That is not taking care of that part of the ward that I have spoken of.

Mayor Congleton: But you have two east of Belmont Avenue.

Mr. Brams: Yes Sir:

Mayor Congleton: That is what you say our promise is.

Commissioner Gillen: We are having a conference today with the Prudential people on this very matter. We are studying and looking over the situation. When it is all over the people of that section who remain there will be perfectly satisfied with the park facilities down there.

Commissioner Murray: Don't you believe, Mr. Brams, that it is good policy to take a vacant piece of land when you can get it, no matter where it is, as we can get this, for the very purpose you are talking about?

Mr. Brams: Yes, if there is plenty of money available for just that purpose for any other section.

Commissioner Gillen: The people on Belmont Avenue are just as much entitled to the facilities that you are talking about as the people on Morton Street—not any more, but just as much—and we are trying in our own way, as best we can, to give them those facilities wherever they require them.

Mr. Brams: Both of these Parks will be located here (indicating on a diagram), but all this remains, heavily tenanted (indicating).

Commissioner Gillen: I tried to tell you before that there are other sections of the City besides the Third Ward.

Mr. Brams: That is true.

Commissioner Gillen: I have as much respect for you people of the Third Ward as I have for those of any other ward, but we have to consider other people. When we located the park down there we considered the 14th Ward as well as the Third Ward.

Mr. Brams: It is taking care of the 14th Ward as well as the Third Ward?

Commissioner Gillen: Yes, absolutely.

Mr. Brams: We feel that there should not be another within three or four blocks.

Commissioner Gillen: Oh, yes, you can't have too many, because the City can't afford it.

Mr. Brams: It would be wonderful to have as many as the City could afford. I feel that the people who live down in that section where there are no facilities of any kind should be given the choice.

Mayor Congleton: Isn't where you are indicating in the map the Prudential section?

Mr. Brams: No, sir, the Prudential section is over here. I am talking about this section (indicating).

Mayor Congleton: It is a block away.

Commissioner Gillen: The only difference between the section that the Prudential has in mind and the section that you are talking about is that your section is ten years older.

Mr. Brams: I want to say, Mr. Mayor, that it is six blocks away, not one block.

Mayor Congleton: It is one block from the way you showed the map to me.

Mr. Brams: Here is the location where the Prudential is. I am talking about this section here (indicating).

Commissioner Murray: That is the older section of the Third Ward that Mr. Brams is talking about. There will be a lot of buildings condemned in that section, but not for park purposes.

Mr. Brams: There is a small playground there now.

Mayor Congleton: One of the first in the City.

Commissioner Gillen: We are surveying four or five blocks in that section, and the agents are now talking to the owners, at this very moment, right in that vicinity.

Mr. Brams: In the vicinity of Morton Street in that section?

Commissioner Gillen: Yes.

Mr. Brams: We submitted this to you, Mr. Gillen, about a year ago.

Commissioner Gillen: I know it, and those are the blocks that we have surveyed. We are waiting for the Prudential to complete its plans before we do anything definite, sir.

Mr. Brams: Then, I can carry away to those who are not here this morning that the section we are speaking about will be in the future taken care of.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this matter?

Commissioner Howe: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen: I agree that that location is a very desirable place for a playground and I am in favor of the purchase. My only objection is that I have conferred with a number of people and I have looked up the records, and there is no sale within five years on an inside block in either one of these streets that amounts to that much. The highest appraisal that I got of its actual value was $60,000, and another $60,375, and another of $66,000, adding for influence, so if that exceeds $66,000 I will have to vote no. This is the highest of the three appraisals I have. I want to go on record as being in favor of it and objecting only to the price.

Commissioner Gillen: We might take it by condemnation, but it is entirely possible that if you condemn the property you might be able to get it for less: I don't know. Sometimes the condemnation commission gives a higher price than what we could purchase it for. They have done it. If property is condemned and we later on try to use it for some other private use, we will have more sorts of difficulty with it. If we get the property in fee, then even though we pay a couple of thousand dollars more for it. We have a clear title and can do whatever we want with it. I think for the slight addition—perhaps the City might be lucky enough to get it for a little less than this price—that it would be better to take the property in this manner.

Commissioner Howe: I am in favor of the proposition and I think that the site is ideally located, but if the price exceeds $66,000, I will have to vote no.

No. one else appearing, Commissioner Gillen moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the resolution was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Brennan offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Elmer T. Bley for a gasoline station; premises 95-97 James Street; on condition that the necessary permits be obtained and work commenced within ninety days;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: By the Board of Commissioners of The City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the application be laid over to April 16, 1930.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. George B. Astley, 790 Broad St. Gentlemen, last week the question rose as to whether or not this station would cover a fifty or twenty-five foot frontage. I think it has been satisfactorily explained that it is a fifty-foot frontage. I would like to have the matter brought up and determined at this time, and that is about all I have to say.

The pumps and the other paraphernalia to be built will be back twenty-five feet from the street line, and the other good features—I don't think there are any bad—I have gone into, I think, with all the Commissioners. I do not think there is anything further I can say on it.

Commissioner Murray: How large a building are you going to put on there?

Mr. Astley: They are going to put a $18,000 improvement on the property. The property is now assessed at $5,000 and the land at $6,000.

Commissioner Murray: The building is going back in the rear end?

Mr. Astley: Going back on the north-east end of it. There will be nothing twenty-five feet from James Street. It is going to make conditions so that it will give a point of vision sixty feet down James Street and a hundred feet up High Street coming up, and I think it will improve traffic conditions there.

Commissioner Brennan: It is a poor place for a gas station. There are two fire companies one hundred feet away, and the approach is a very heavy grade. With all that, and with the traffic that there is on James Street, as much as I would like to, I can't reconcile myself to the locating of a gas station at that point.

Mr. Astley: I may say, in answer to Commissioner Brennan, that the grade there, I think, is five feet to a hundred feet.

Commissioner Murray: Five per cent.

Mr. Astley: Yes. At the present time you have to get up to the intersection before you can see traffic coming the other way. Anyone crossing there rapidly is sure to have an accident.

Commissioner Howe: The nearest I have ever come to being knocked over was at that point.

Mayor Congleton: That applies to all corners in the City. That is why I am against a gas station at a corner.

Mr. Astley: The elimination of this building will give you a point of vision for the fire engines going down. Of course, I have gone into all this with you gentlemen. There is no use of my taking it up again with you.

Commissioner Murray: It happens that I was not present.

Mr. Astley: My point was that at the present time you have to get to the crossing of the point of intersection before you can see all the way down any of these streets. With this building down—it is a big building there, which is no improvement. It is over sixty years of age and it is assessed at $5,000. That will have to come down. It will give a point of vision on High Street at least sixty feet down James Street. Coming up James Street you will get a vision on High Street over 100 feet.

There are two companies of fire engines there. Forty per cent. of their alarms come that way. They will get a view sixty feet down James Street. Therefore, I contend it is an improvement.

High Street is not a through Street. It stops practically at Orange Street or a little north of Orange Street.

I think I have stated the situation carefully. I think that it is an improvement on the traffic condition there. I have been before the Commission either eight or nine times, and I might say that the Adjustment Board went up and took a special view of this property, as to the grade and so forth, and the majority of them finally come to the conclusion that it was safe and proper thing.

Commissioner Murray: I have never seen these things. I think these things ought to be brought into conference and the matter gone into, so as to make a determination as to what we are going to do about it.

Mr. Astley: We were in there.

Commissioner Gillen: They have agreed to move back those things on the corner.

Mr. Astley: Yes, sir, everything goes back.

Commissioner Gillen: So that there is no obstruction at all.

Mr. Astley: Gentlemen, you understand that the condition on which the Adjustment Board gave their recommendation to us was the fact that we were to be back twenty-five feet. That is what we are up against.

Commissioner Murray: I think that if you take the trouble to lay it over one week and take it up with the conference next Tuesday, you will not have to come back before the Board any more.

I move that we lay it over for a week.

Mr. Astley: All right, if you feel that way.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

WHEREAS, the Board of Adjustment has certified in writing to this Board that it has approved, on appeal from the refusal of the Superintendent of Buildings, an application for a variation from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommends that the following structure or use for which application was made be allowed:

Application of Nicola Grasso for the construction of a gasoline station; premises 785-787 North Sixth Street, for a period of four years, on condition that permits be obtained and work commenced within 90 days;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Newark that the recommendations of the Board of Adjustment be and the same are hereby approved, and the Superintendent of Buildings, the administrative officer in charge of granting permits, be and he is hereby directed to issue a permit for the application above set forth.

John Howe,

Director of Revenue and Finance

Mayor Congleton: Has anyone any matter to bring to the attention of the Commission this morning?

Mr. Peter Adubato, 60 Park Place.

Mr. Mayor and Commissioners, this is an application in behalf of the applicant for reconsideration of the Board in not passing or confirming the action of the Adjustment Board in granting a permit for a bake oven and store at 218 Parker Street.

218 Parker Street is south of Bloomfield Avenue. The matter was acted upon by the Board about three weeks ago. The resolution of the Adjustment Board was to recommend the granting. It came before this Board, unbeknown to me that it was going to be acted upon by this Board on that day. There was no one to appear for it and, I understand, no one to appear against the consummation. 218 Parker Street is 225 feet south of Bloomfield Avenue on the west side. Immediately next-door, 220 Parker Street, there is a butcher shop and a grocery store, which is about 200 feet from Bloomfield Avenue and beyond the business zone line.

Immediately the premises 218 Parker Street are five garages fronting the street—five private garages, the boards of which are in dilapidated condition.

Mayor Congleton: Our objection was not so much to a bake shop going there as to the fact that you are building up practically the whole lot.

Commissioner Murray: There were a large number of objectors to building the premises in the back yard.

Mr. Adubato: At this time there is on these premises a two-story frame house in the rear of the premises, and we are only going to utilize the space which has already been utilized by this two-story frame building, which is a fire hazard.

Mayor Congleton: We are opposed to that. We think they ought to have some breathing space.

Mr. Adubato: I think, Mr. Mayor, that the building at the present time in the location where it is the intention to put up this bake oven is a two-story frame building, in the rear of the front of the premises, and it is a fire hazard, which would be replaced by a modern brick fire-proof building.

Mayor Congleton: You would still use all the lot. You had that building on the rear of this lot before there was the proper regulation. If we do not stop that and permit it to go on day by day, we will have a situation similar to the one in the Third Ward that you have heard described this morning. Personally I am against any residential or semi-residential section having buildings taking up the whole of the lot.

Mr. Adubato: The new building would be a one-story building, so that there would be only one-family in the front building.

Mayor Congleton: How about the people next door on the south?

Mr. Adubato: I think that if the Department of Public Properties allows business properties going into the section I don't think that people next door would lose by it; they would rather gain by the improvement.

Mayor Congleton: Your property is not in the business section, is it? You have gone into a residential section. If you go out on a business street it is different.

Mr. Adubato: There are about seven stores on that one block between Bloomfield Avenue—

Mayor Congleton: But they don't run through to the full depth of the lot.

Mr. Adubato: There are stores in the basements of buildings on that street which, I think, is as bad a condition as building an improved building in the rear.

Commissioner Gillen: The building that is intended to be erected is a one-story building in the rear to replace a two-story frame building which is already on the premises and which is a fire hazard. We haven't thought of tearing down that building.

Commissioner Murray: Well, why not permit him to bring his facts before the conference next Tuesday and have the Adjustment Board Secretary bring down the list of objectors. As I understand it, there were a large number of objectors right in the neighborhood.

Mr. Adubato: There were objections there. I appeared for the applicant at the time, and they were represented by counsel. There were two objectors there, one a colored gentleman who lives in the block and another one the owner of property on the corner of Bloomfield Avenue and Parker Street, whose main objections was that there was going to be competition, that my client was going to put up a bake shop on Parker Street three or four doors below his premises. His objection was that it was going to compete with the business he had there. There were twelve objectors listed on the memorandum that they had, but only two appeared.

We thought that because we were not going to change any conditions there that it was not necessary to go about asking any-one to consent to the putting in of the bake oven, because we believed that it would be an improvement to the properties there rather than hurt them, because of the present conditions of properties there, and so forth.

Mayor Congleton: Commissioner Murray's motion is that the matter be taken up in conference next Tuesday.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. O. Henry Grois of 704 South 14th Street, on behalf of the Essex Trades Council, appeared and stated that the Council has gone on record as being opposed to any increase in fares or any reduction in the number of tokens which are now being sold.

Mayor Congleton stated that the Law Department has been instructed to file an answer for the City opposing any contemplated increase in fare.

Mr. Henry Green of 259 Avon Avenue appeared in reference to the unemployment situation.

Commissioner Gillen: I move we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The City Clerk presented An ordinance authorizing the making and execution of a certain lease between the City of Newark and the City Centre Corporation, a New Jersey Corporation having its principal place of business in the City of Newark, County of Essex and State of New Jersey, of the Centre Market premises and adjoining property, as herein more particularly described, located in the City of Newark, New Jersey, and stated that today was the time fixed for hearing on the same.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

M. Meyer Zemel, 826 South 18th Street: That lease refers to the leasing of the Centre Market, do I understand, gentlemen?

Mayor Congleton: Yes, sir, Mr. Zemel you are quite right.

Mr. Meyer Zemel: I want to say that the lease provides certain conditions that I don't think are fair to the citizens and taxpayers of Newark. One of these conditions is that it actually allows the lessees to destroy a five million dollars building or proposition, and they have only a bond up for one million dollars. It is very broad, the terms are in that lease. It practically allows them to do most anything they want with the land and buildings. The next thing I want to speak of is that million dollar bond. The million dollar bond, from what I understand, is a personal bond of all these men who make up this corporation. From what I understand this bond is backed up by these men's personal resources. What I want to know is, is this bond a first lien upon what the men own? If it isn't, then the City isn't being properly protected, because the City of Newark hasn't any mortgage at the present time on this Centre Market. There wasn't any mortgages outstanding and this lease is a first lien upon this market proposition. Being so, I don't see why the City of Newark should take any inferior bond.

I also understand that a lot of this property is owned outside of the County of Essex, not backed up by good collateral, as we call it. I know it is customary that where a man signs a bond, he generally signs it in the penal sum of double the amount of the mortgage. It is customary if a man is going to build, if he is going in a real estate deal, if it is for $5,000 he generally gives a $10,000 bond; so in this case here with a five million dollars proposition, at the price it actually cost the City, the City isn't properly protected when they only get a million dollar bond.

I don't think that the City is going to bother itself in this entire deal if they don't protect themselves properly, and I, one of the citizens and taxpayers of Newark, protest against this thing unless it be shown that the bond filed is sufficient and that it is a first lien on all the property that these gentlemen own, just the same as the lease is a first lien upon the City Centre Market.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard?

Commissioner Gillen: Mr. Mayor, at the request of Commissioner Brennan I move that it be laid over for one week, but I suggest that that be the last postponement.

Commissioner Howe: I think there is one thing that should be made clear, and that is that the Market did not cost $5,000,000. It did not cost $2,000,000 even.

Mr. Zemel: The whole proposition I am referring to.

Commissioner Howe: Let it be clear that the building did not cost two million, and the building is not going to be knocked down.

Mr. Zemel: But they have the right. As I read the terms in that lease—I am glad you mentioned that. It didn't cost two, but what did it actually cost? It cost more than one?

Commissioner Howe: Yes.

Mayor Congleton: Almost two million.

Mr. Zemel: Almost two. Then, the bond should be four million dollars.

Commissioner Howe: But they are not knocking the building down, from what I read.

Mr. Zemel: All right, from what you read, but they have the right. Perhaps you aren't reading the terms of that lease right.

Commissioner Howe: Oh, yes, I am.

Mr. Zemel: I analyzed it and digested it as I read it in the Sunday Call.

Commissioner Murray: They have to dispose of that building.

Mr. Zemel: Oh yes. I am not finding any fault, providing the City is properly indemnified. This City has entered into a lease over my protest and that of other citizens, but it says that the City of Newark should be properly protected, not by any straw bonds, gentlemen—not by any straw bonds, gentlemen, not by any second liens. You wouldn't take any second mortgages today.

Commissioner Howe: You know that no one would knock that building down and leave the land lay idle.

Mr. Zemel: I don't know anything. We don't anticipate anything, but it can come, and I say this: I often heard my friend Mr. Egan read off "Bonds approved as to sufficiency." This bond is insufficient. The City of Newark is not protecting its citizens and taxpayers in this deal.

Commissioner Howe: We are guided by the advice of the Law Department, Meyer.

Mr. Zemel: The Law Department is not the Commissioners of the City of Newark. We are in your hands and we demand protection.

Commissioner Howe: You will be protected.

Mr. Zemel: Not with a million dollar bond. It is straw. If it is a second lien on the property it doesn't adequately protect the citizens and taxpayers.

Commissioner Howe: We will always hold title to the property.

Mr. Zemel: You may always hold title to the property, but you don't know how they will fanegle it around. You don't know what they are liable to do with that proposition, because your terms are broad.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Zemel, I do not want to abate the question of the sufficiency of the bond, but I do want to correct one impression that you have, as to which I think you are mistaken, sir.

Mr. Zemel: I am subject to correction.

Mayor Congleton: The million dollar bond is given to guarantee alterations of the present market building to the extent of a million dollars, and you will find another clause in the lease to the effect that if they are going to demolish the present market building they must give a bond sufficient and satisfactory to the Board of Commissioners, to guarantee the rebuilding of a new building, and that bond is not limited in amount. Before they can begin to tear down the present Market they will have to give a bond. You will find that on page 15 of the lease—that they "must produce contracts executed by said lessee and contractors for the completion of said improvement or alterations on building or rebuilding or improvements or alterations and will enter into a bond of indemnity with the said lessor with sufficient surety satisfactory to the said lessor, guaranteeing that it will in place of said building or buildings on said premises erect and construct a new building", and so forth. That does not say that they may give a personal bond.

Mr. Zemel: That is all right as far as you have read. I am referring to the clause that refers to alterations. It doesn't restrict them as to how they should alter, and we are being so broad that there is nothing to stop them from ripping down the entire building, I contend, down as far as the foundation. They can alter. "Alteration." That is a very broad word. They are in a position to ruin the entire project as it stands today, with their alterations.

Commissioner Murray: Plans and specifications are filed before the alterations are done.

Commissioner Gillen: You are afraid they will put up a new building?

Mr. Zemel: Don't worry about that, sir. As far as the bond is concerned, it is insufficient. I don't think you are properly safeguarding the citizens and taxpayers of Newark when you take a second lien. The City of Newark at no time, I think, has had any mortgages on this property. You are giving a first lien lease. You should be properly indemnified with a first lien bond.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard at this time.

Board of Adjustment

Newark, N. J., April 16th, 1930.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:-

At a meeting of the Board of Adjustment held yesterday resolutions were adopted granting the following applications for variations from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance, and recommending that your Honorable Body allow the structures in question:

Application of Sam Loshin for the construction of a 4-family dwelling in a Second Residence District; premises 67-69 Willoughby Street.

Application of William Garodnick for the construction of two three-family dwellings in a First Residence District; premises 29-33 Arsdale Place.

Detailed reports on these applications will be submitted.

Respectfully,

The Board of Adjustment,

R. B. Rankin, Secretary.

Received, copy to be sent to each Commissioner and action deferred to April 30, 1930.

Board of Adjustment

Newark, N. J., April 15, 1930.

The Board of Commissioners
of The City of Newark.

Honorable Sirs:-

In the matter of the application of Agnes M. and George C. Andrews for an amendment to the Zoning Ordinance placing property at 9-11 Keer Avenue in the Third Residence District, which application was referred by your Honorable Body to this Board on April 2,

1930, I have been directed to report
as follows:

This matter was taken up by the Board of Adjustment at a meeting held this day, after a careful inspection of the premises in question and of the surrounding neighborhood. Keer Avenue begins at Elizabeth Avenue a block and a half north of the Union County line. Elizabeth Avenue property for a depth of 100 feet is in the Third Residence District, but where properties in a single ownership at the time of the passage of the ordinance are more than 100 feet deep the regulations for that district may extend the entire depth if not more than 150 feet deep. The premises in question are situated on the north side of Keer Avenue approximately 100 feet west of Elizabeth Avenue, and are therefore in the First Residence District. The south west corner of Elizabeth and Keer Avenues is developed with an apartment house on a lot more than 100 feet deep, and owing to the angle at which the two avenues meet, the rear of this building is directly opposite 9-11 Keer Avenue. The owners feel that they will be surrounded by apartment houses, but the situation is no different than that which prevails at all zone boundary lines.

The Board of Adjustment is of the opinion that no amendment to the ordinance affecting this property should be made, especially at this time when the Elizabeth Avenue frontage between Keer and Hansbury Avenues is still vacant.

Respectfully submitted,

THE BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT,
R. B. RANKIN, Secretary.

Received and filed.

Commissioner Brennan offered the following resolution:

City Commissioners,

Mr. Wm. J. Egan, City Clerk,
City Hall,

Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:-

A resolution was passed at our regular meeting, April 3, 1930, that the wage scale adopted May 1, 1929, is to continue for another year, up to May 1, 1931.

Thanking you for past favors and whatever we can do to further your business will be done by organized labor and their friends.

Yours very truly,

Commissioner Brennan: Mr. Mayor, some few weeks ago, on March 12th, the Board at a regular meeting rejected an application for alterations to a dwelling by the construction of a bakery 218 Parker Street which application has been passed upon by the Zoning Board. I have looked it over myself, and in discussion yesterday the Commissioners felt that the proposed improvement would be a help rather than a detriment to the neighborhood. I move, therefore, that the action of the Board on March 12th in rejecting this application be reconsidered.

Commissioner Murray I second it.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Brennan: I move that the matter be laid over for two weeks, to allow the people who previously objected to be heard.

Hon. Jerome T. Congleton.

My dear Congleton:-

You are probably informed of a proposition of Mr. Timothy Foyle to open a funeral parlor at 301 Roseville Avenue, much to the aversion of the residents on the block and to the detriment of our property.

I would ask you as a one-time resident on the avenue to use your influence to have this averted.

There is a petition out which has been signed protesting the granting of this privilege.

With best wishes to you and yours,

Theo. P. Huffman.

North Halsey Street Improvement Association

Newark, N. J., April 14, 1930.

Board of City Commissioners,
Newark, New Jersey.

Attention Hon. Wm. J. Egan.

Dear Sirs:-

Notices in local papers state a new Halsey Street Association has been formed, and that the North Halsey Street Improvement Association had merged with the new association.

This statement is incorrect as the North Halsey Street Improvement Association, which was formed in 1924, and includes in its membership practically all the property owners, and larger store keepers on Halsey Street north of Market Street, is still in existence and has made no consolidation.

If changes should be contemplated by the City Commission at any time pertaining to Halsey Street between Market Street and Washington Park we would appreciate a notice so that we can be represented at hearing.

Very truly yours,

George E. Ilsley,
President.

Mayor Congleton: Has anyone anything to bring to the attention of the Commission

Mr. Louis Auerbecher, 60 Park Place.

Gentlemen, there was before this Commission an application to the Board of Adjustment for a permit to erect a one-story concrete block and brick building for automobile sales and service. As I understand the records, the Board of Adjustment granted the application and recommended that the City Commission pass verbally upon it. The application was granted by affirmative vote, and then it came before the City Commissioners. The application recites that the application of Charles Ryan for an automobile show room be granted on condition that no gasoline be stored and sold on the premises, and it further goes on to state that it was approved by the Commissioners, showing their signatures.

I contend that that is not the recommendation of the Board of Adjustment. Unfortunately, I was away for the summer and I could not be present when it came up before the City Commission. The application was for automobile sales and service. There was to be no public selling of gasoline, but only the storing of such gasoline as would be incidental to automobile repair work, to put in a car that might be there for repairs, but that there was to be no gasoline sold in the ordinary sense of the word. As the resolution is now passed, the only thing that Mr. Ryan can do it to have an automobile show room, yet the most important thing was to have the repairs. I would like, therefore, to have the City Commission reconsider its vote on the matter and pass on the application in the form as recommended by the Board of Adjustment.

Commissioner Murray: That was on 165 West Kinney Street. My recollection is that the objection to anything in the nature of gasoline being on the premises was based upon the fact that adjacent to it are dwelling houses of frame and that the neighborhood is congested, so the question of a gasoline station would not be entertained by the City Commission at all at that time. It was only on the assurance that the place would be free from gasoline and used entirely as an automobile sales and show room that the matter was considered, as I remember.

Mr. Auerbecher: Nextdoor, Commissioner Murray, is a factory. It is residential on one side. On the other side is a factory.

Commissioner Murray: People live over the store.

Mr. Auerbecher: People live over the store

Commissioner Murray: Yes.

Mr. Auerbecher: Well, I think about eighty-five per cent. of the people there have requested that this change be brought about, for the sake of the improvement of this particular parcel. What concerns me most is that they have the right to do automobile repair work there. Now it is only an automobile showroom. I am not pressing the question of gasoline now.

Commissioner Gillen: Why should they have any gasoline?

Mr. Auerbecher: If an automobile comes in there to have the motor tested and they take the gasoline out and fix up the motor, they have to put some gasoline in again to turn the motor over, and in some cases they may have to go a half mile for gasoline. As I understand it, there are to be no pumps on the outside of the premises and there are to be no public sales there.

Commissioner Brennan: But they did put in pumps and tanks on the premises, Counsel, and they also put up a sign for gasoline.

Mr. Auerbecher: Yes, sir, but that was a mistake, because Mr. Ryan assumed that the application had gone through in the way he had originally presented it. While I was away Mr. Daniel Dwyer, who had charge of it—I assumed that it had gone through that way and even he understood it, and when he misunderstood it and Mr. Ryan thought it had gone through in the form of the original application for the show room, and when I came down here I saw that all he got was permission for a show room. I think that now he ought to have the right to make repairs there.

Mayor Congleton: Is the building built for that purpose?

Mr. Auerbecher: It is a one-story concrete block and brick building.

Mayor Congleton: With stores in the rear, I suppose.

Commissioner Brennan: The application calls for a one-story concrete block and brick building for automobile sales and service.

Mr. Auerbecher: For sales and service.

Commissioner Gillen: Has he underground tanks?

Mr. Auerbecher: Underground tanks.

Commissioner Murray: How large is the tank?

Mr. Auerbecher: I don't know, sir.

Commissioner Murray: Suppose that you check that up and give us the information on it. If the man is going to give service he can't test motors without gasoline.

Mr. Auerbecher: Certainly not.

Commissioner Brennan: But if he puts pumps up and signs up in front he can't have the permission.

Mr. Auerbecher: He took that sign down and stopped the whole thing as soon as he got notice. He is willing not to engage in the business of selling gasoline there.

Commissioner Murray: I move that it be laid over for the conference next Tuesday, and that in the meantime we inspect the premises. We did that before. We went over it personally.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Mr. Henry Green, of 259 Avon Avenue, appeared in reference to the unemployment situation.

Mr. John A. Bernhard, 763 Broad Street.

Mr. Mayor, I have a very modest request to submit. Last October the Zoning or Adjustment Board granted a permit for a parking space on Washington Street. This Board approved the permit, but limited the time to May 1. It was thought at that time that the owner would be able to erect a new building on it. My request this morning is for permission of the Board to continue that permit for the parking space until the 1st of September, at which time erection will begin.

In that regard, I want to remind you that the owner has just recently completed a rather substantial building at the corner of Washington Street and Central Avenue, and the building will be continued on the present parking space just as soon as funds can be obtained for that purpose.

Mayor Congleton: Where is that located?

Commissioner Murray: That is this side of the Museum. As I remember, it was extended until May 1 on the representation of the owner that his lease ran until May 1st.

Mr. Bernhard: That is an exact statement of the facts. Since that time he has been willing to take the lease from month until the tenants can make application for a new building. If my request is granted, I promise you that I shall not make a further application.

Commissioner Brennan: I move that we adjourn.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioner Brennan, Gillen, Howe, Murray, Mayor Congleton.

The Board then entered upon said hearing.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone desire to be heard on this ordinance?

Mr. Meyer Zemel, 826 South 13th Street: Gentlemen. I desire to be heard on this thing. I would like to know what the City of Newark is going to get in exchange for this valuable birthright. I want to know what kind of mess of porridge we are going to get in return. From what I understand and hear, they are going to convert this massive beautiful structure into a garage. That answers one question that I was in doubt about.

In the Lefcourt lease, Mr. Lefcourt was compelled to provide a bond to show his good faith as to when he would start erecting a building on the ground. On this lease I fail to find where it provides that the City Centre Holding Company or corporation or whatever you call them are under any bond whatever to perform to this building agreement.

If you erect a garage or if you alter these premises to be used as a garage, picture for yourself, the new Raymond Boulevard from Broad Street and the new Pennsylvania depot, costing millions of dollars both to the Pennsylvania Railroad and the City of Newark, Commerce Street, a wonderful artery from Broad Street down to the railroad also, and the Market Building, in my opinion, at the present time is about 500 feet long. To the north Commerce Street; to the south Raymond Boulevard. A fine building you will have there to decorate one of the main arteries with a garage. I don't know whether we citizens have any rights here in this matter. I know that if any other citizens want to erect a garage or any other kind of structure he must conform with the zoning laws and the laws that are on the books.

Coming back again to that bond. I am not opposed to any man who is worth $2,500,000 in free and clear unencumbered property having his bond accepted for a million dollars, but the public has not been informed, the citizens haven't been informed, and the newspapers haven't been informed what this bond is backed up by. Nobody knows. Nobody knows where this property that goes to back up this bond is located. Nobody knows how many mortgages encumbered this property, whether they be first, second, or third. It may be free and clear. Nobody knows what the property consists of. There is a rumor around that it is some quarry property up in the country somewhere. I think and I insist that the citizens of Newark, the public, the taxpayers, the newspapers, should be informed.

Let us get down to the question. Is this bond sufficient in the sum of a million dollars, if they are going to ruin th's building, as it was my contention last week, under that alteration clause, which is so broad and so long that it gives them the right to destroy the building down to the very foundation? The Mayor has informed me that the building is worth $2,000,000. As it stands today it is a loss to the City, they claim, for about $150,000 or $160,000 a year. As I analyze it, to see where the City will gain under this agreement, the ground and the building, $5,000,000 — that is their worth. At the present tax rate $5,000,000 would bring into the City $200,000. That is what the City of Newark is going to get in rental for this property. The taxes—that is all the City will get. The City is going to obligate itself to pay a commission of $33,000 and something every year. The City has outstanding bonds which also cost something.

Anyway you put it, the City loses that same amount of money, either way. They have to pay the interest on the bonds. They have to pay the commission if they lease it. If they hold it the number of men that they keep employed, they keep at peace, that is worthy of some consideration by your honorable body. I don't know.

I understand there is a movement on foot also to buy a new market site for the farmers. True, sooner or later some part of this market will be destroyed for the benefit of the railroad project and the canal project, but is the City of Newark going to spend another two or three hundred thousand dollars for a farmer's market, in addition to this thing? The City of Newark can't at this time commit itself for all these things. The City of Newark at this time is committed very heavily; this Pennsylvania Railroad project, this canal project, and Port Newark must be taken care of, and, gentlemen, last, but not least, don't forget that we need a City Hospital in Newark, New Jersey, badly. That does not enter into this thing, but we cannot spend any more money for other things. We have got to take into consideration that at the present time the taxpayer is burdened with a heavy burden and if he takes care of everything that he has got at the present time he has got plenty to do.

I therefore appeal to your body at this time that this contract or agreement or lease is not to the advantage of the City of Newark and its citizens, its voters and taxpayers, and should not be foisted upon them at this time, especially in the form of a garage; and in the form as this bond is, we should not. Gentlemen, I thank you.

Mayor Congleton: Does anyone else desire to be heard on this ordinance?

(No response).

No one else appearing, Commissioner Gillen moved that the hearing be closed.

The roll being called, the motion was declared adopted by the following votes:

Yeas: Commissioners Brennan, Gillen, Howe.

Nays: Commissioner Murray, Mayor Congleton.

Commissioner Gillen moved that the following ordinance be taken up on second reading:

fits for local improvements, for paving, sewers and water service, and all payments levied or imposed on said real estate and on any buildings and improvements thereon, and upon the leasehold, estates, insurance premiums and costs of repairs, except taxes on the ground, and original cost of improvements for opening, widening, paving or otherwise improving Mulberry Street, Raymond Boulevard, New Jersey Railroad Avenue, Commerce Street, Raymond Plaza West, or the street to be laid beneath State Highway Route No. 21.

D. Lessee agrees to pay the rents and charges provided for in Paragraph 1 and 3 of the lease, and referred to in Preceding paragraph. If Lessee does not make payments then Lessor may advance same and charge such advance with interest thereon at six per cent. (6%) per annum to the rent due on the first of the next succeeding month.

E. Lessee to make fireproof alterations, additions and improvements on present Centre Market building, to include a convention hall and/or arena and/or exhibition hall, to cost not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000.00), which improvement is to commence within two years from the date of taking possession of premises, and to be completed within five years from said date. The Lessee is to erect on premises fronting on Mulberry Street a fireproof building at least twenty stories in height, costing approximately two million dollars ($2,000,000.00). Lessee to erect another building on plot known as Tract 2, or so much thereof as may be required, a fireproof building at least twenty stories in height, costing approximately two million dollars ($2,000,000.00). The erection of one of the two beforementioned buildings to commence on or before the first day of May, 1936, and to be ready for occupancy on or before the first day of May, 1938, the erection of the second building to commence on or before the first day of May, 1940, and to be completed on or before the first day of May, 1942. The building now on the premises, and the buildings to be erected on said premises, and additions and alterations to the present Centre Market building shall be suitable for use for offices and/or hotel purposes, and/or stores and/or amusements and/or garage and/or mercantile purposes. Lessee may erect other fireproof buildings and may improve present Centre Market Building. Lessee may replace present Market building, or a part or parts thereof, with fire proof building or buildings. It may demolish any building it may erect, provided the same shall be replaced by another building or buildings of equal or greater value. It may use materials salvaged from such demolished building as far as practical in replacing building. Any material not so used is to be disposed of by Lessee. No machinery or fixtures are to be removed from present building without the consent of the Lessor until such time as the first new building shall have been completed, or until the Lessee posts a bond conditioned upon restoration of such machinery or fixtures removed. If any personal property be disposed of by Lessee, surplus, if any, after payment of expenses for moving the same, to be paid to the Lessor. Before Lessee begins demolishing or making improvements on present superstructure on premises, costing twenty thousand ($20,000.00) dollars or more, Lessee is to produce contracts for the making of such improvements or new building, and enter into bond of indemnity. No excavation to be made under present building without filing of bond.

F. All buildings are to be erected in conformity with all laws, ordinances, orders, rules and regulations of the Federal, City and State governments.

G. Lessee is to insure premises against loss by fire, equal to eighty per cent. (80%), in the name of the City, Lessee and mortgagee.

H. Lessee at its own expense to provide insurance on fixtures, machinery and equipment, also explosion insurance, also Workmen's Compensation, and adequate general and public liability insurance, also elevator and sidewalk elevator insurance.

I. Lessee at its own cost and expense to keep in good and satisfactory condition and repair the buildings, fixtures and equipment on the said premises, and to make all repairs to the same.

J. If Lessee does not make necessary repairs Lessor may make them and add cost thereof to the rent due on the first day of the next succeeding month.

K. Lessee to indemnify the City from any claim arising out of the conduct or management of the premises. If any order is not complied with by Lessee within thirty (30) days after notice to said Lessee then Lessor may comply therewith and add cost thereof to the rent becoming due on the first day of the next succeeding month.

L. Lessee to comply with all present and future laws of the City, County and State or the United States, with relation to the manner in which the buildings are operated, or in relation to the uses thereof.

M. Lessee is to indemnify the City from any claim which may arise in the course of making additions or improvements to buildings.

N. Lessee will remain liable for rents, even if lease is assigned or sublet, until erection and completion of the first twenty-story building free of all liens and charges. If Lessee makes assignment, then it is to be released from liability under this lease upon the erection and completion of such building, free and clear of liens and charges, and all other rents and charges have been paid.

O. Said premises are not to be used for any purpose which may create a nuisance.

P. The City not to be liable to any contractor or any person supplying material or performing work upon said buildings.

Q. The Lessee on the last day of the term or sooner termination of lease will peaceably and quietly surrender the premises to the Lessor in good order and condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted, all buildings and improvements to remain the property of the Lessor.

R. All additions to conform substantially to plans and specifications submitted by Lessee to Lessor.

S. Lessee may not mortgage fee, but may place mortgage on building, buildings or equipment, or leasehold estate, subject to this lease.

have, hold and enjoy said premises.

U. Lessor covenants that it is the owner of premises and has legal right to make this lease.

V. Upon default of payment of fixed rent for thirty (30) days, or upon default of other covenants or provisions of lease continuing for sixty (60) days after notice in writing, the City at its option may terminate said lease.

W. Lessee may assign or sub-let premises in whole or in part, but no such assignment or sub-letting to be made by Lessee if at the time of such assignment or sub-letting, it is in default under the terms of the lease, and every successive assignee or sub-lessee shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as to further assignments or sub-lettings, as provided for in lease. Lessor in case of assignment of mortgage or sub-letting of lease, upon request of Lessee, will furnish a certificate stating if there is any default to its knowledge at the time of such request.

X. Lessor may enter the premises, at reasonable hours to examine the same, and during the last six months of the term to exhibit the premises to any person or persons, and put up notices "To Let" or "For Sale" on the outside wall thereof.

Y. In the event of condemnation (except any proceedings relating to State Highway Route No. 21, which is herein otherwise expressly provided for), Lessee is to have no claim for damage or loss against the City, and the City to be first entitled to receive out of award the value of the lands, and out of the balance Lessee to receive the value of the buildings, including fixtures and equipment, and the value of the leasehold estate.

Z. In the event of partial taking, rent to abate proportionately.

AA. Lessee, in case of partial or total destruction of buildings by fire or structural weakness, shall promptly repair, construct and complete building of at least the same general character as building in existence before destruction, using insurance money for that purpose.

BB. That no damages to or destruction of any building shall entitle Lessee to surrender possession of premises or terminate lease, and neither the City or Lessee to be released by reason of damage or destruction of any obligations created or imposed upon them by said lease.

CC. Except as provided for in paragraph 25, or by default of the Lessor, or earthquake, inundation or war, which may prevent occupancy of the building, rent shall not abate.

DD. Lessee to have the right to contest taxes and assessments, but must indemnify the City against loss.

EE. The buildings and all fixtures by way of real estate attached thereto, when erected by Lessee upon demised premises, shall be deemed attached to the freehold, and upon expiration of this lease shall be surrendered with said premises.

FF. No waiver of any covenant or term hereunder shall operate as a discharge of such covenant or term, or render same invalid, or impair the right of the Lessor to enforce the same in the event of any subsequent breach or breaches thereof by Lessee; no default to work a forfeiture or ground for termination if default is corrected within sixty (60) days after notice, and if default is completion of building, then mortgagee or purchaser must complete in the same time as Lessee has, plus an additional sixty (60) days. In case of termination of this lease or re-entry by Lessor before the end of term, after sixty (60) days notice to mortgagee, the Lessor, at request, of mortgagee, to execute a new lease for balance of term at same rentals and conditions.

GG. All notices required to be sent to Lessee to be addressed to 1060 Broad Street, or such other address as may be designated by Lessee; to mortgagee or mortgagees to address specified in notice to be given to Lessor; and to the Lessor at the City Hall, Newark, New Jersey.

HH. Lessee to be entitled to possession of the premises from May 1, 1930, and shall be entitled to the rents, issues and profits arising therefrom, from and after said date. Lessee takes premises subject to existing tenancies, as shown in schedule attached to lease.

II. Lessee to surrender its interest, if any, in easterly portion of Centre Market Building, which may be taken by New Jersey State Highway Commission or the State of New Jersey for Highway purposes, waiving all damages against the Lessor, New Jersey State Highway Commission and the State of New Jersey. The expense of demolition and restoration of building to be borne by Lessee.

JJ. Lessee agrees that it, as principal, with Albert G. Preen, Isaac M. Shackter, Isaac Klinghoffer, Morton S. Klinghoffer and Theodore H. Cohn, as sureties, will enter into a million dollar bond, guaranteeing the performance of the terms of this lease, and that upon completion of the first twenty-story fireproof structure, free from liens, and all rents and charges due Lessor having been paid, bond shall be cancelled and become a nullity. Lessee is to deposit with Lessor a Certificate of Deposit for One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) as further security for the faithful performance of the terms of the lease until the first twenty-story building shall have been erected, free from liens, and all rents and charges due Lessor having been paid.

KK. Lessor represents that it owns the present heating apparatus, refrigerating plant, electric light and power plant, elevators, hoists, electric wires, engines, machinery, market equipment, fixtures and other apparatus used in and about the Centre Market building, all of which to be included as part of the demised premises.

LL. Lease may be sub-divided as follows:

1. Lessee to notify Lessor that it desires sub-division of leased premises, and is to describe portion to be sub-divided or set off.
2. Parties to apportion rent reserved by this lease between the premises to be set off and the remainder thereof.
3. If after sixty (60) days the parties cannot agree on the proper apportionment of rent then the same to be left to arbitration.
4. Parties shall thereupon execute two or more new leases similar in every respect to this lease, except as inapplicable to premises described and rent reserved. Lease to expire April 30, 1980, and to be executed and delivered within thirty (30) days after the apportionment of rent shall have been agreed upon.

MM. Exterior design of any building erected for garage purposes or automobile storage to conform architecturally to other buildings erected.

NN. Lessor agrees that when Lessee takes possession, Centre Market building will be in as good condition as it was on October 31, 1929, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

OO. Centre Market to be continued substantially as at present for a period of not less than two years nor more than four years from date of this lease. Standholders on first floor, except F. & W. Grand Co. and the Steinlein Drug Company, are to be permitted to remain as tenants for a period of two years from the date of execution of this lease at the same rentals, provided they execute lease giving the length of term and amount of rental. Standholders to be subject to change of location of stands and storage space and subject to rules promulgated by Lessee. All changes and all rules to be subject to the approval of the Director of the Department of Parks and Public Property for the first two years of the term herein granted. If during the first two years a majority of the present standholders vacate the premises, Lessee may discontinue operation of Centre Market as a market.

PP. If Lessee becomes bankrupt and makes assignment for benefit of creditors, or is adjudicated insolvent, Lessor may terminate this lease by giving five (5) days' notice to that effect. Upon such condition, Lessor will give notice of its intention to terminate this lease to mortgagee of record, provided address has been furnished to Lessor. Upon written request of any mortgagee within sixty (60) days after notice, and upon mortgagee paying to Lessor sums that may be due under this lease, and assuming obligations of this lease, Lessor will execute new lease to said mortgagee for remainder of term, under same conditions as contained in lease. If there are several mortgagees then new lease to be made to holder of mortgage prior in lien thereon. All covenants and agreements shall bind the parties, their successors and assigns.

Mayor Congleton: Mr. Duffield, President of the Prudential Insurance Company, and some of his associates are here this morning to take up with the City, or to make a statement to us, with reference to the housing proposition. I think it is appropriate that we suspend our regular order of business at this time to listen to them.

Mr. Edward D. Duffield, Prudential Insurance Co.: Mr. Mayor and gentlemen, I have asked the opportunity of coming down at this time and speaking to the Commission on the housing project in which the Prudential has been now engaged for over a year. You will recall, Mr. Mayor, that the inception of the whole matter was originally brought to my attention through you and through Mr. Sinclair's stating that there was in the City of Newark a real need for consideration of the housing problem. Mr. Sinclair, in connection with his work on the Essex County Park Commission, had become disturbed over the conditions which he found in endeavoring to find places for the laying out of parks in our City. He interested you, and you brought the matter to my attention.

The work has been carried on with the feeling that we were engaged in doing a work that would ensure to the benefit of the City. We have felt throughout that it was possible to bring the project to a successful conclusion only through the cooperation of the City. I have therefore done my best, Mr. Mayor, to keep you and the Commissioners informed as to the progress of our thought in connection with this matter.

The project has now reached a point where, it seems to us that if it is carried to a successful conclusion we should have the co-operation of the City, at least in on particular, in rather a definite form. I felt when we were first brought into the matter that there were certain factors which were necessarily controlling if there was to be the benefit which we all hoped would ensue in connection with the whole project. It was my thought then that the project, while of inestimable benefit to the City and to the people of the City, if it were to be of the greatest benefit, should be kept on a business basis. In fact, that was the only way in which the Prudential could cooperate in this matter.

sums of money, none of which belong to the Prudential, all of which are entrusted to the Prudential for investment, in order that we may be able to fulfill our contracts and safeguard the interests of those who have entrusted their needs to us for that purpose. Under those circumstances, it was essential that there should be a fair return on any investment which we made in connection with the housing project; but it has seemed to me that it was even more desirable from a broader aspect, because whatever the Prudential may be able to do in Newark or in any other City would be comparatively slight. We could take care of some families; we could make living conditions better for some people; but if we were tackling the whole problem we would serve best if we were able to demonstrate that buildings of a character which would furnish proper and decent housing facilities could be erected and could afford a fair return on invested capital. It was our hope that if we pioneered in this project we could demonstrate that fact and induce others to invest their funds with like purpose, in order that the general conditions of housing might be improved in this municipality. It was with this purpose that we entered into the project, which we hope now is reaching a point where we can see a successful launching.

We have been informally assured that we might count on the City's co-operation, but we have not been in a position until recently to suggest how far we feel it is essential that the City cooperate in connection with the whole project. I come to you this morning with a rather definite program. The company has already secured the title to a tract in the Ironbound District at Oxford and Lexington Streets and from Passaic to Fleming Avenue. We have acquired title to that entire tract and we propose there to erect model — I don't like the word "tenements," but that is all-comprehensive. We propose to erect there buildings which will cover that block and which will provide housing accommodations for roughly one thousand families.

You are aware of the conditions of the buildings there, Commissioner Howe. I think the whole assessed value of that tract at the present time is somewhere in the neighborhood of $135,000. By the time that we have completed our operations there, I imagine that there will be an investment on the part of the Prudential of over two million dollars. As I say, without asking the City to join with us in partnership, we will be able to invest this sum to provide accommodations for at least one thousand families and to furnish—

Mr. Hamilton calls to my attention that I am confusing the families with individuals. There will be accommodations for about one thousand persons. I thought that I was getting a little enthusiastic in this matter.

—and to provide in the interior for playgrounds, which the occupants of those houses can utilize for their children and for their own benefit. In one sense it will not be a community project, in that those parks will occupy the center of the block will not be utilized in a general community way. There does not seem to be a necessity for that there, by reason of the parks which have been opened in that locality.

In addition to that, we have purchased and expect eventually to develop a tract on Frelinghuysen Avenue. Just what utilization we may make of that, which is now vacant land, I am not prepared to say. It requires a great deal of study, care, and thought as to how that large tract of land may be best utilized to furnish the maximum of usefulness to the people of Newark in the way of again providing housing to them at a low cost.

The interest that I really have—I won't say the interest, but the major interest that I have had in this project has been not only that we should create something, but that we should remove something. It has seemed to me that if we were to utilize to the greatest of our ability to best serve this community, it would be to go into some neighborhood where present conditions were extremely bad and convert these bad conditions into good conditions, and that if we would remove houses unfit for human habitation but being occupied by human beings, and put in the place of those houses buildings which were suitable and which would furnish good accommodations and provide proper housing facilities, we would have then served a real purpose and have given to Newark a real benefit, which was our purpose and desire to do.

You will recall, Mr. Mayor, that I asked at the outset of this matter that you make a survey of Newark through the Health Department, through the Police Department, and through the other facilities which you have, in order to determine where best we could carry out this project along the line that I have been speaking of and every source of information you had came to certain blocks in the Third Ward in the City of Newark. We have gone into that Ward and we have acquired properties on the blocks between Barclay and Somerset Street and going from Montgomery to Spruce to Waverly, two blocks running lengthwise. You Commissioners all are familiar with the location of these blocks. We have by private negotiations acquired there the title or option to about eighty-five per cent. We believe that without coming to you and asking you for condemnation, with the possible exception of two or three properties, the owners of which seem to be determined to insist upon a price which would be exorbitant and utterly out of line with the properties that have been already acquired, that we can probably acquire title to the whole tract through negotiations. If it is necessary we shall come to you and, under the statute, ask for the privilege of condemning or having you condemn them under the provisions of that Act, in order that we may utilize those blocks where it seemed to you, and under the advice which you had, most desirable for us to change the entire condition of a neighborhood in this congested Third Ward.

Now, I am sincerely desirous that that project should be carried out. I believe it would mean much to that community. I believe that there we can and should give consideration to a community project, but it is essential, if that be done, that we should have some cooperation with the City in connection with the financing of that project. In other words we have acquired those two blocks, which we could utilize in their entirety without coming to the City, but if we did so it would destroy the whole project, for this reason: That the cost of acquisition of this land has been higher than in the other two cases that I have mentioned. We purpose that in every case we shall once adopt the principle that these buildings must yield a return at that go into these buildings a mere return on the capital invested. Of course, the more capital invested, the higher the cost of the building, the higher the cost of the acquisition of the land, the more necessary it will be to provide a higher rental in order to furnish a return which seems to me to be requisite that we should receive as trustee. It will be a low return; it will be a fair return, one which will commend itself to the public and to your honorable body, but nevertheless, if you once adopt the principle that these buildings must yield a return at that minute you assume that the higher the cost of acquisition the higher the rentals necessarily must be. Therefore, if we want to carry out the main purpose of this whole project to go into this community and give the people there apartments at a low rental, some method must be found to bring the cost down to a point where it can be done.

That can be done not by asking the City to bear any part of the cost of the housing project. That is the last thing in our mind. As I say, we do not propose to ask cooperation on the Iron-bound proposition or on the Frelinghuysen Avenue tract, but in the Third Ward we ask if the City could see its way clear to utilize such portion of these blocks that we have acquired as will not be necessary for utilization by the Company for the erection of these houses. If the City will take the remaining part of that tract and utilize it for parks in that ward we can carry out this plan successfully.

Now, this is our thought: Assume that these two blotters here are the two blocks that we have. (Commissioner Howe produced a plan). Mr. Howe apparently has a plan. This will show it, exactly. There are the two blocks I am talking about (indicating). Now, our thought is gentlemen, that if we could enter into some arrangement with the City by which we proceeded to acquire title to those two blocks running, as I say, from Waverly to Spruce and Montgomery and between Somerset and Barclay, and utilize them, leaving the ends open, erecting buildings along the side of Barclay Street, along the side of Somerset Street, and carry them through those two blocks, but leaving the entire interior space open, and if the City utilize that space for park purposes, dividing the cost between the City and ourselves on what could be an equitable basis, we paying for the part that we utilize for housing and you paying for the part that you utilize for parks, we could then carry out, it seems to me, this project with a reasonable hope of success.

I believe that the City is not only justified in doing this; I believe it is something that the City ought to do. If there is one place in the City of Newark that does require consideration in regard to furnishing a breathing space, independently of the housing proposition, it does seem to me that the Third Ward is that place. I imagine that it is the most congested ward in the whole State of New Jersey. If that is true, certainly your body must have given, as I know it has, consideration to providing breathing space there, a place in which to gather and a place in which the ordinary utilization of park purposes can be had.
